FOREWORD

As we walked through these doors on the first day of our senior year we realized that we had only one more year together as a class. We silently vowed to make it our best year, one that we would always look back on with pride.

This Balcoala is a record of your high school memories, and the staff sincerely hopes you will be proud of it.

WE BUILD THE LADDER BY WHICH WE RISE

SENIOR CLASS

OF 1961

CLASS OF 1961

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Having at last convinced Mr. Daniels, innumerable teachers, and the truant officer of our unsound minds, we the class of 1961, do with characteristic lack of dignity and respectfulness, make our last will and testament:

The seniors of the track team leave their unused ability to come in first at a track meet.

The trig class leaves Mr. Messick's answer book to anyone who can find it.

John Ryba leaves his hobby of chasing Georgia girls to anyone who is not afraid of cops.

Vicky Robertson leaves her pen, paper, and bobby pins to any Junior who has the habit of putting embarrassing notes on people's backs.

Don Hogan leaves his dancing ability to Sam Ruple.

Becky Bryars leaves her sombrero to Miss West's Spanish class.

Aubrey Yarbrough leaves his ability to run into fences to anyone with a passion for band-aids.

Elaine Knight leaves her recipe for frying chicken without cooking it in the middle to all Juniors who like frozen foods.

Dennis Baxendale leaves his house to any girls who want to dress on the way to the Gulf.

Annie Murphy leaves her post office box keys to anyone who will continue to make six trips a day to the post office.

We leave to next year's Seniors our trip to New Orleans if they can find a way to make it.

Elizabeth McPhaul leaves the results of her dancing classes to all the lucky Junior girls.

Lual Barr leaves the old lab to anyone who is too lazy to walk to the incinerator.

Ginger Bryars leaves her book, 1001 EXCUSES FOR GOING TO THE SOUTH-END OF THE COUNTY, to all interested girls.

The Senior cheerleaders leave their yells and cough syrup to next year's cheerleaders.

Robert Good wants to leave the whole school because he never could find any use for it anyway.

Ross Davidson leaves to Junius Long his ability to cut English classes without getting caught.

Leon Taylor leaves his inexhaustable supply of chewing gum to anyone who can stand the lack of peace that goes with it.
