Thumbs Up... Jason and Jeremy Kaufman won the grand champion. The talent show held on Thursday, March 17, brought out more than some of us were expecting. I think that's the way we can sum up '93-'94.

180 Daze Days
1993-1994

Baldwin County High School
BALCOALA

Vol. 72, Enrollment 1,298
#1 Tiger Drive, Bay Minette, Alabama 36507
For More Information Call (205) 937-2341

Josh McCullough, Todd Lyles, Geoff Parker, Walt Norton, Greg Randall, Bud Shaver, and Danny Norton start the year in an orange and black frenzy. In August, time was measured in yells; by June, we are almost in a stupor, they call it the 180-Day Daze.

Takin' a Break... Amber Taylor and Sarah take a rest during break. After two long hours it's great to be able to sit, talk to friends, and soak up some sun.

Dancin' to the Music...Mireo English

I wanna be like Mike!...Kirk Stewart, Chris Hill, Jake McNeeley, Trey Dorman, Josh McNeeley, Jeremy Rodgers, Brian Penn, Tony Judge, Jason McWaters, Jeremy Odom, Frank Boatwright, Michael Walker, and Craig Murph are only a few of the football players who have their heads shaved. Some guys got their numbers shaved, while others opted for things like Tiger paws. It must be dedication if these guys were willing to let cut their hair.

180 Days in a DAZE

180 Days ...was it really that long? It was August 28 and then before anyone realized it, it was semester test time. Lunches and breaks in the "Commons" had been flooded with students studying for their next periods. Senior prom, "A Night to Remember," rolled around and became a memory. Then it was Spring Break, and it seemed as if our new tans hadn't even begun to fade; and, yet, it was already June 3rd, graduation. What had seemed like a lifetime, really turned into no time at all. It was just a...180 Daze.

Oh Yeah...Go Freshman! Eric Chastang gets the freshmen all revved up during the Spirit Yell. Pep rallies are a big part of our school lives. These Friday afternoons allow us to vent frustrations as well as build up and express pride.

180 DAZE

Savy Sun, Fun, & then School Summer

Going for a ride... Cindy Harcey and her horse end an afternoon ride. Many people spent a lot of time outdoors during the summer break.

Let the Lines Begin... Kenny Hall, Jason Godwin and Mr. Blackmore endure the tedium of pre-school registration. After all, nothing is better than ending up the summer with school registration.

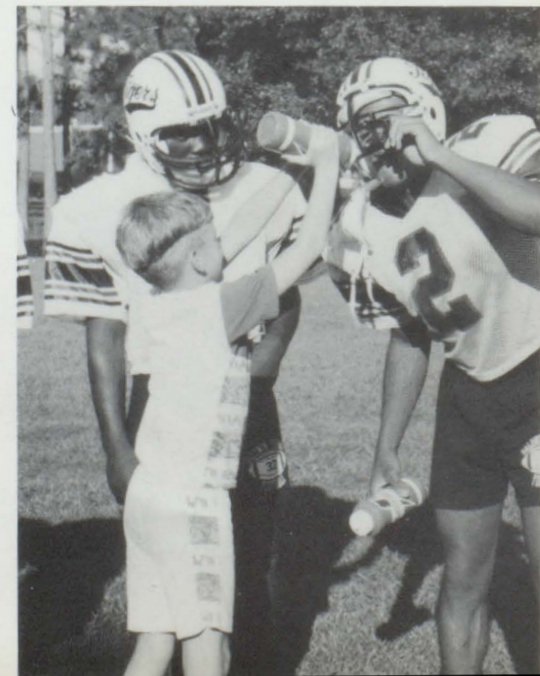

*What did you do this past summer?
"I went to Hawaii and enjoyed sightseeing."
-Melissa Baggett, 11*

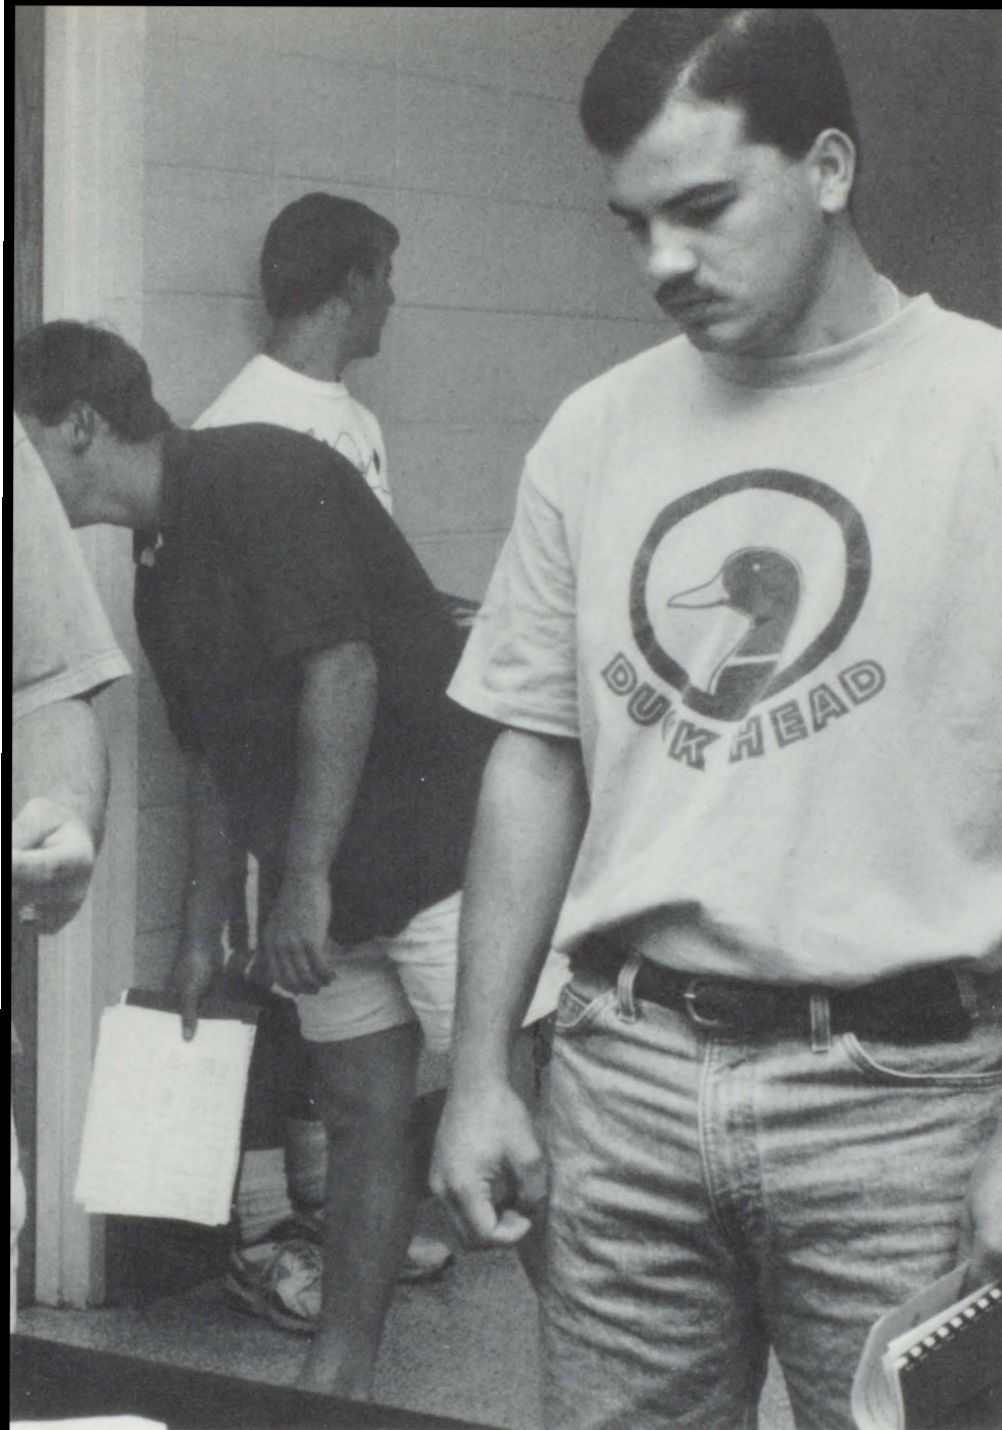

*Were you excited about coming to high school?
"Yes, because I knew it would be totally different from middle school."
-Amanda Morries, 9*

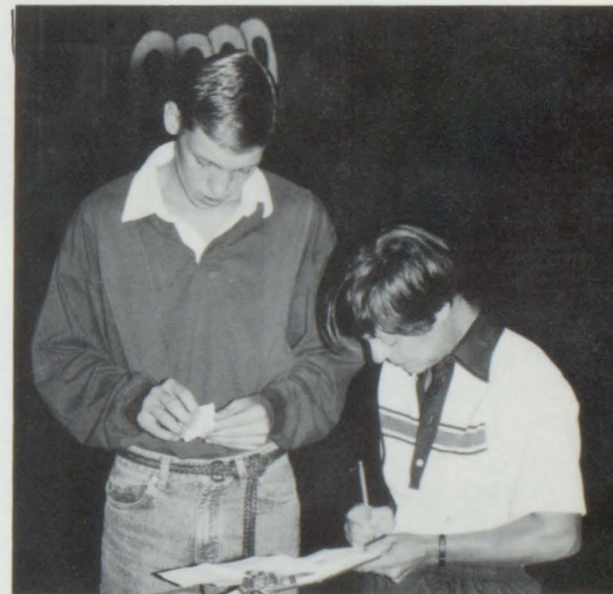

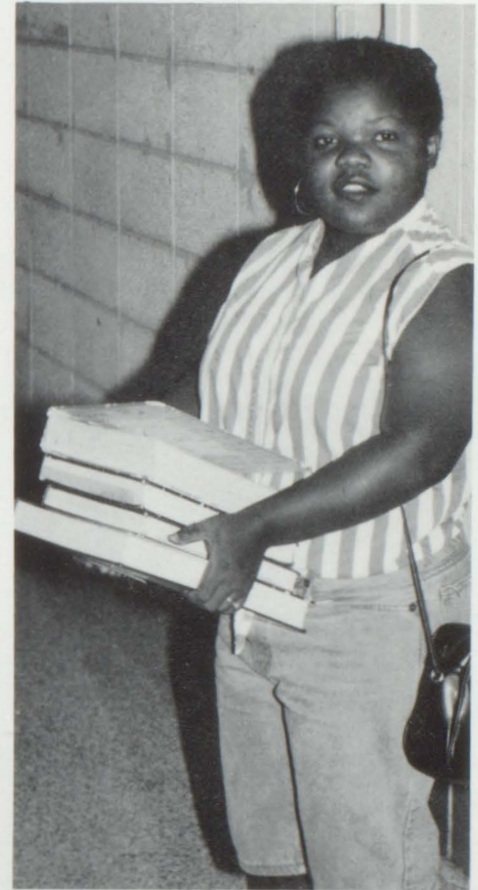

*What was the best part of coming back to school?
"I got to see all of my friends plus meet some new people."
-Marcus Hyatt, 9*

Taking Ten... Dewayne Taylor and Mark LaMar stop to catch a few moments rest between practice drills. They proved that not everyone had a "free Summer."

Letting Everyone Know...Laura Jenkins is definitely ready for an exciting year. The books are new to us now, but by October they're old news!!

Am I lost ??...Tommy Richerson, with the help of Ms. Racine decides whether or not P.E. is his right class. Learning the class routines is always confusing the first week or so.

Getting it Together...Mrs. Scott and LaTanya Crook put info into the computers. Julie Hall and Karen Harville wait patiently for their turn. There were a few difficulties on the first day, but that sure didn't stop the job from being done.

Day In

Day out

Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic...Daily studying is a major part of everyone's school day. Janet Aplin proves this by studying hard and making good grades.

What is your most memorable moment of your sophomore year?
'The best times I've had were winning all the basketball games we did.'

-Mark English, 10

What is the best thing about being a senior?
'The best thing would have to be knowing that this is my last year and I don't have to come back.'

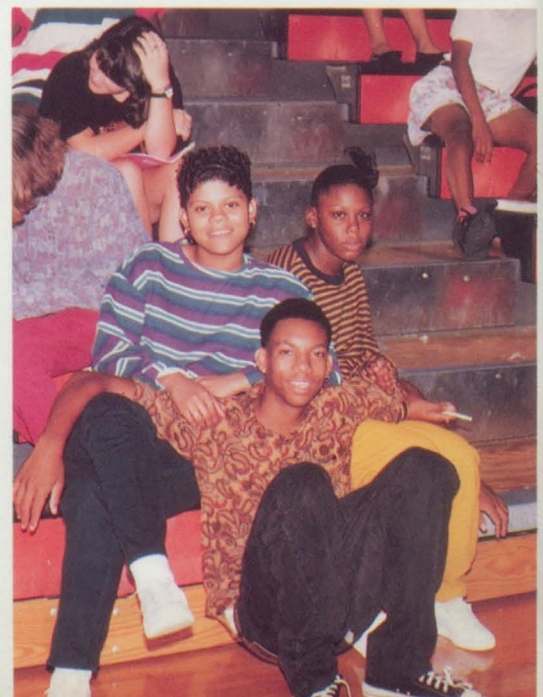

-Carter Scott, 12

What is the worst thing about being a freshman?
'The worst thing would have to be the size of the school. I find myself getting lost a lot.'

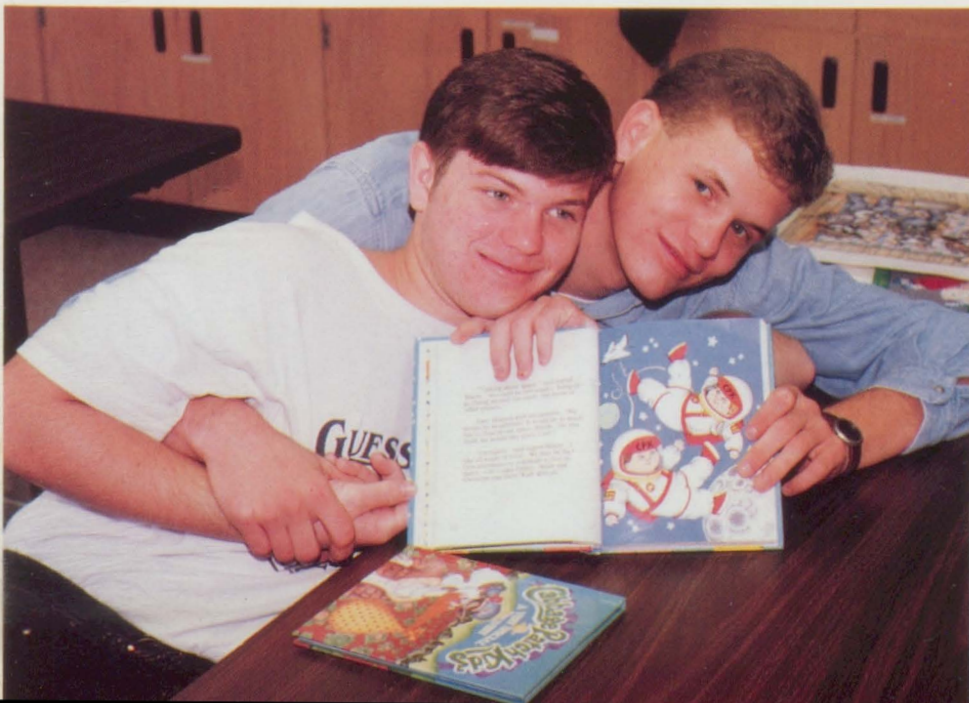

-Brandon Falls, 9

Just Look at Us...Shaquila Mix, Farrah Brown, and K.K. Marshall get ready for the weekly pep rally we have during football season. This assembly gets everyone excited and ready for the night ahead.

Check Us Out...Stacey Stewart, Eric Chastang, Cheryl Watts, Willie Wilson, Victor White, Danny Dykes, Stephen Sawyer, and Tracey Stewart spend their lunch break together. That's one of the nice things about the school day - friends.

Class Clowns...Jeff Bass and Andy Bryars share a story with each other. After all, everyone needs to read some of the "heavy" classics - Cabbage Patch Kids sure beats Jude.

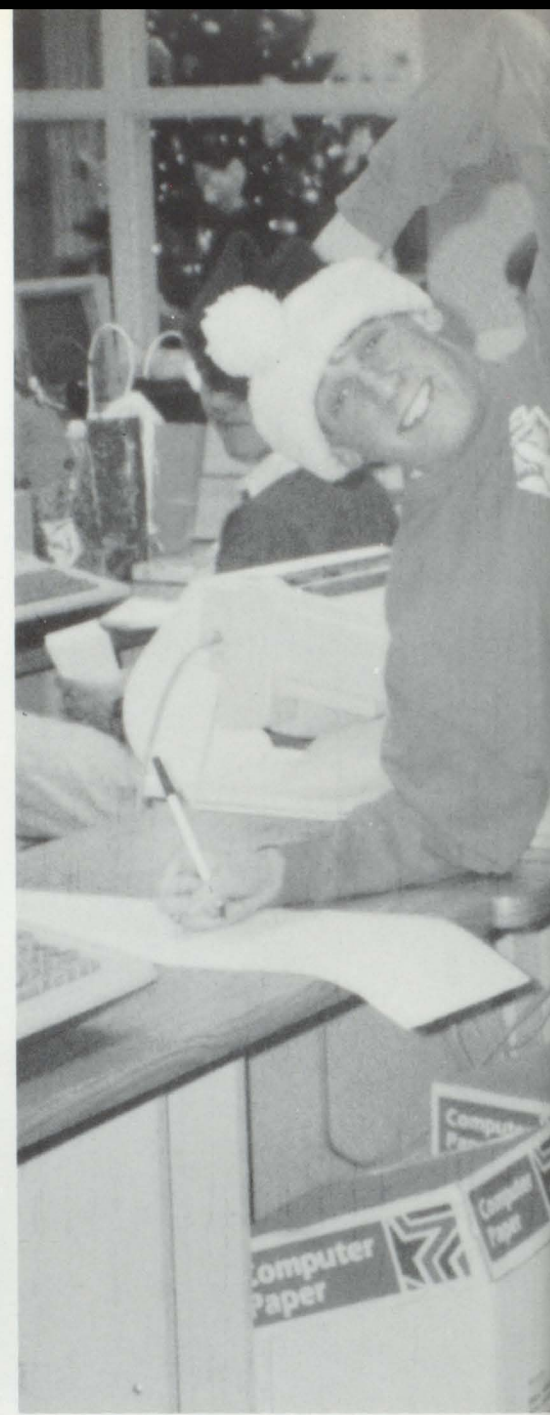

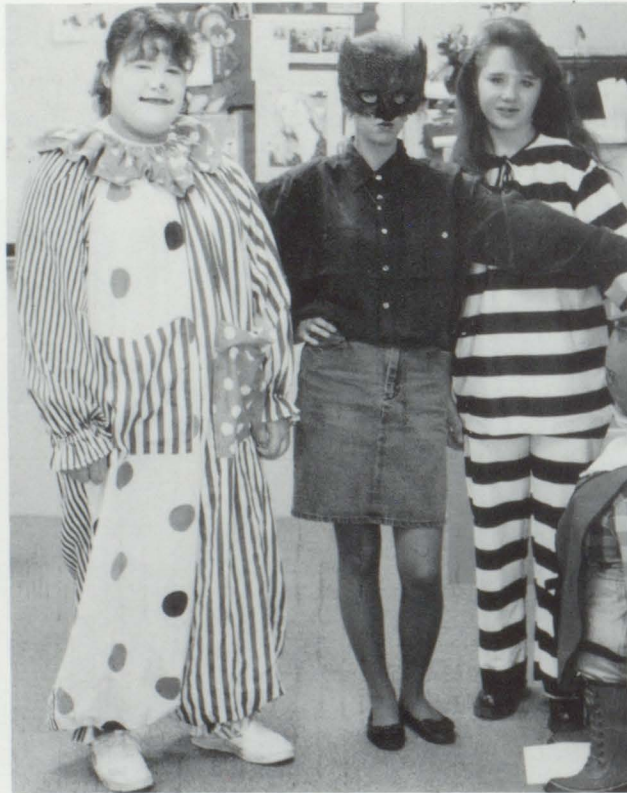

Different Strokes

DIFFERENT FOLKS

Flaunt it, baby, flaunt it... Greg Randall shows off his holiday drawers in an effort to get a laugh. Josh McCullough Craig Murph pay him no attention.

All Dressed Up... Mindy White, Mystic Welch, & Erika Turberville dress up in the spirit of Halloween. Pausing by the pumpkin, the girls head to Oakwood Nursing Home to visit the patients.

What's
The Big Deal

'The days at BCNS are different because of the originality of the student body.'

Nancy Howell, 12

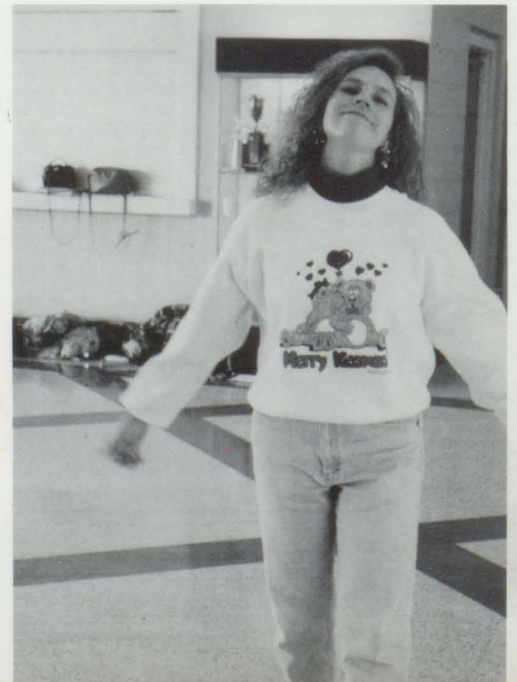

'Freedom. On the holidays you are not obligated to do anything you don't want to do. It is your personal & free time to enjoy with whom you choose.'

Danny Stevens, 11

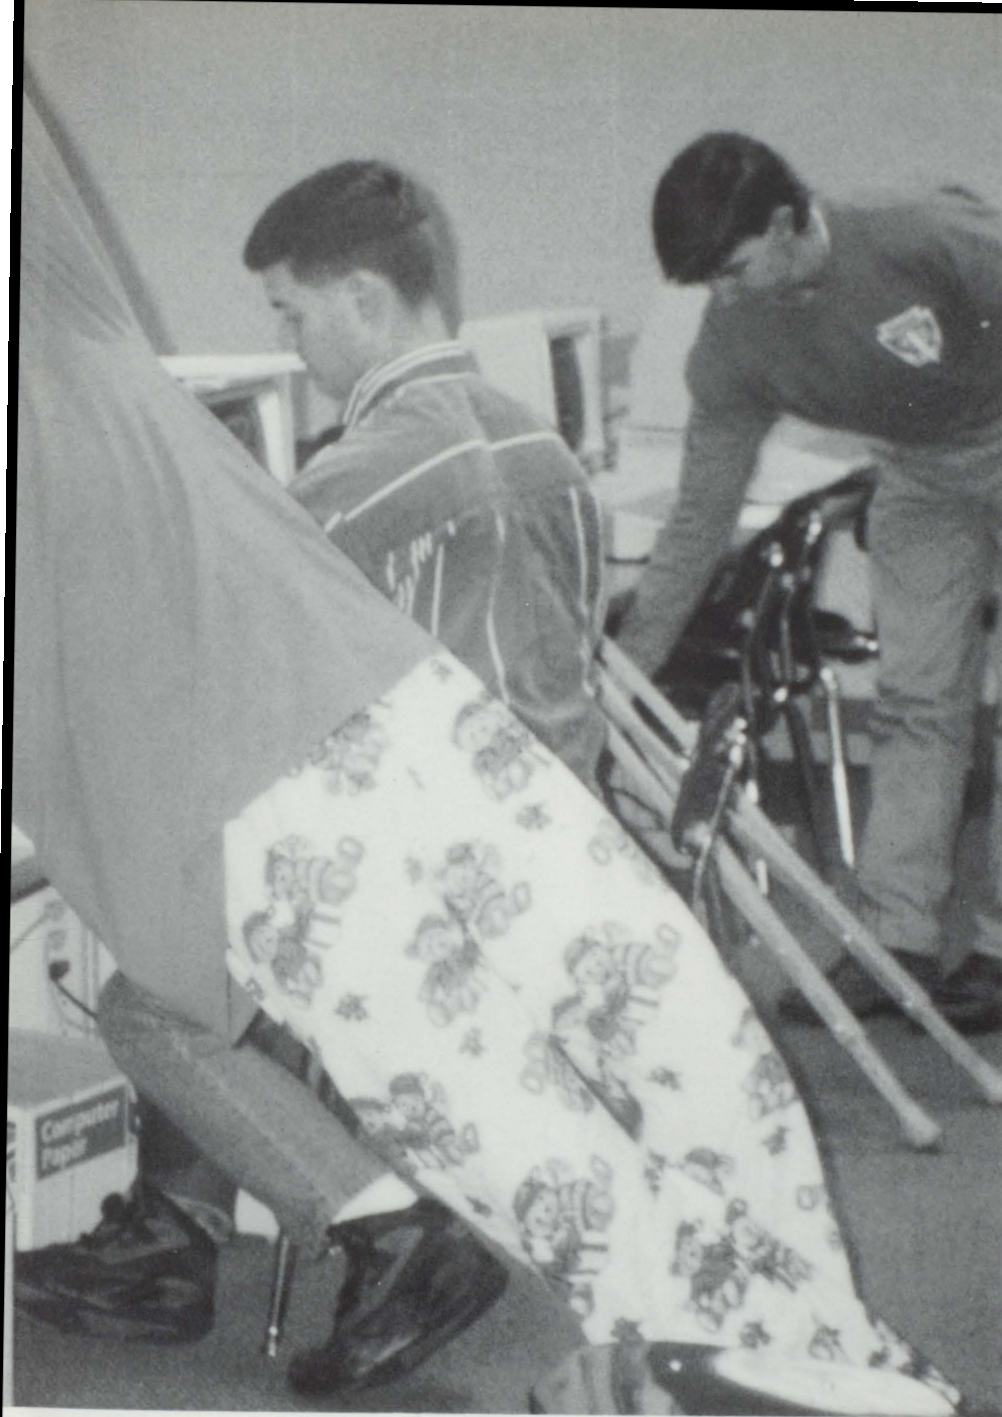

'Time for family, togetherness, & friends. Time to get things done that you usually don't have time to do. Time to thoroughly enjoy yourself.'

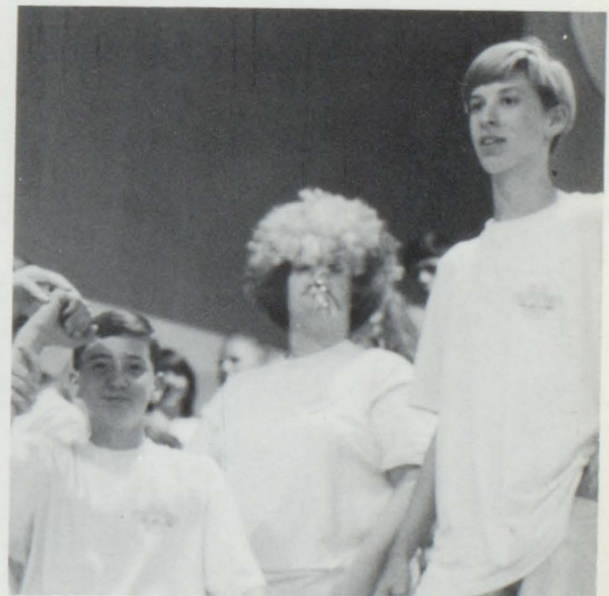

Mrs. Fagan

In the Spirit.... Tara Smith strikes a pose in the name of Christmas. The holidays bring out the spirit in all of us.

Clowning Around...Misti Doggett blows up a balloon at the Pine Grove Fall Carnival. Misti, along with several other students, puts in time for the many churches who participate to put on this special day.

No Holiday..This is just a freshman being a freshman. Sean Clark and Brian Penna cheer on Jessica Owens as she "clowns" around.

Toga, Toga, Toga...Angel Martin, Brooke Beasley, Monica Cook and Jennifer Faik trust their stuff at the Halloween dance sponsored by the cheerleaders. Togas are the "things to wear" this Halloween for attention grabbers.

Campus Capers

PEP RALLIES & PEP FEST

Where's Moe & Larry?... Sometimes when you put two heads together you still don't have enough to make one! James Mateiket and Jake McNeely participated in many pep rally antics.

Kissy, Kissy, Kissy... Tony Judge receives a big smack at the Satsuma pep rally from what he thinks is a Varsity Cheerleader.

"Everyone crowded together, yelling, and screaming like a bunch of wild Indians." James Dean, 12

"The cheerleaders doing those toe touches before the pep rally, it was great." Blake Hadley, 10

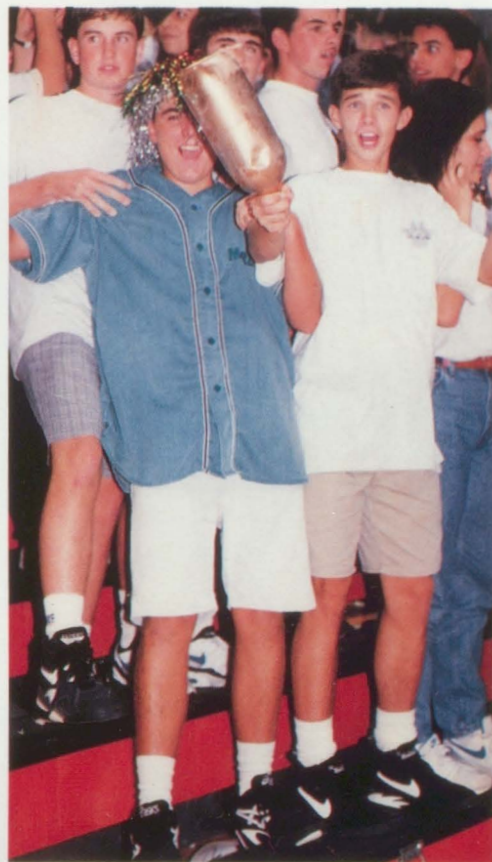

"The cheerleaders doing back flips at the pep rally, that was cool." Daniel Rhames, 11

Exceptional Tiger PRIDE...Tara Smith and Julie Howell show their winning Tiger Spirit by their big smiles and painted faces.

Goldilocks???...Crystal German does her impersonation of Goldilocks at one of the many pep rallies. Is she possibly hunting the Robertsdale Bear?

Drummin' ...John Davis, Les Hall, Chris Hedge, Chris May, Andre' Tate, Shawn Williams, and Bobby Thomaston prove just how awesome they are.

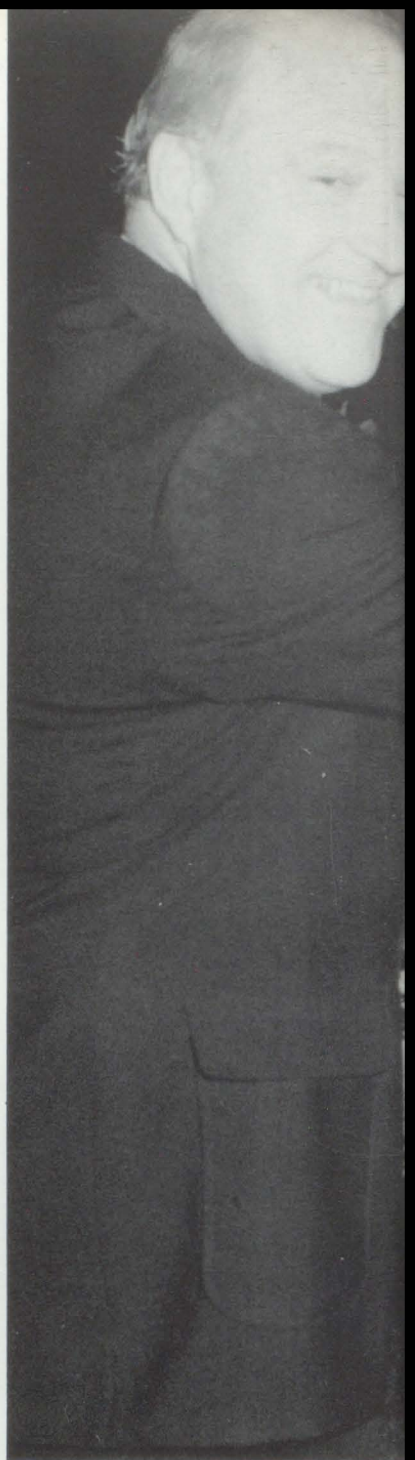

Homecoming Court

THE UNFORGETTABLE

A memorable moment...The night only lasted a few hours, but Queen Dillon will remember it for the rest of her life. Here she is assisted by her father, Mr. Tom Mitchell; student council president, Angie Windham; former Homecoming Queen, Ms. Joyce Chunn and principal, Mike Duck.

Homecoming Fun

PEP RALLIES & PEP FEST

Doing their part...Stuffing paper in chicken wire, Brad Taylor and Matthew Mitchell work on the Sophomore float. Unfortunately for them, their hard work went unrewarded, the seniors won.

Pomp and Circumstance...Carrying the "dead" Davidson Warrior around in a mock funeral, seniors Greg Randall, Josh McCullough, Scott Nelson, and Todd Lyles predict the outcome of the game.

Seeing Brian Penn in a tuxedo and seeing all my friends at the game, made my Homecoming memorable.
Toni Ammons, 10

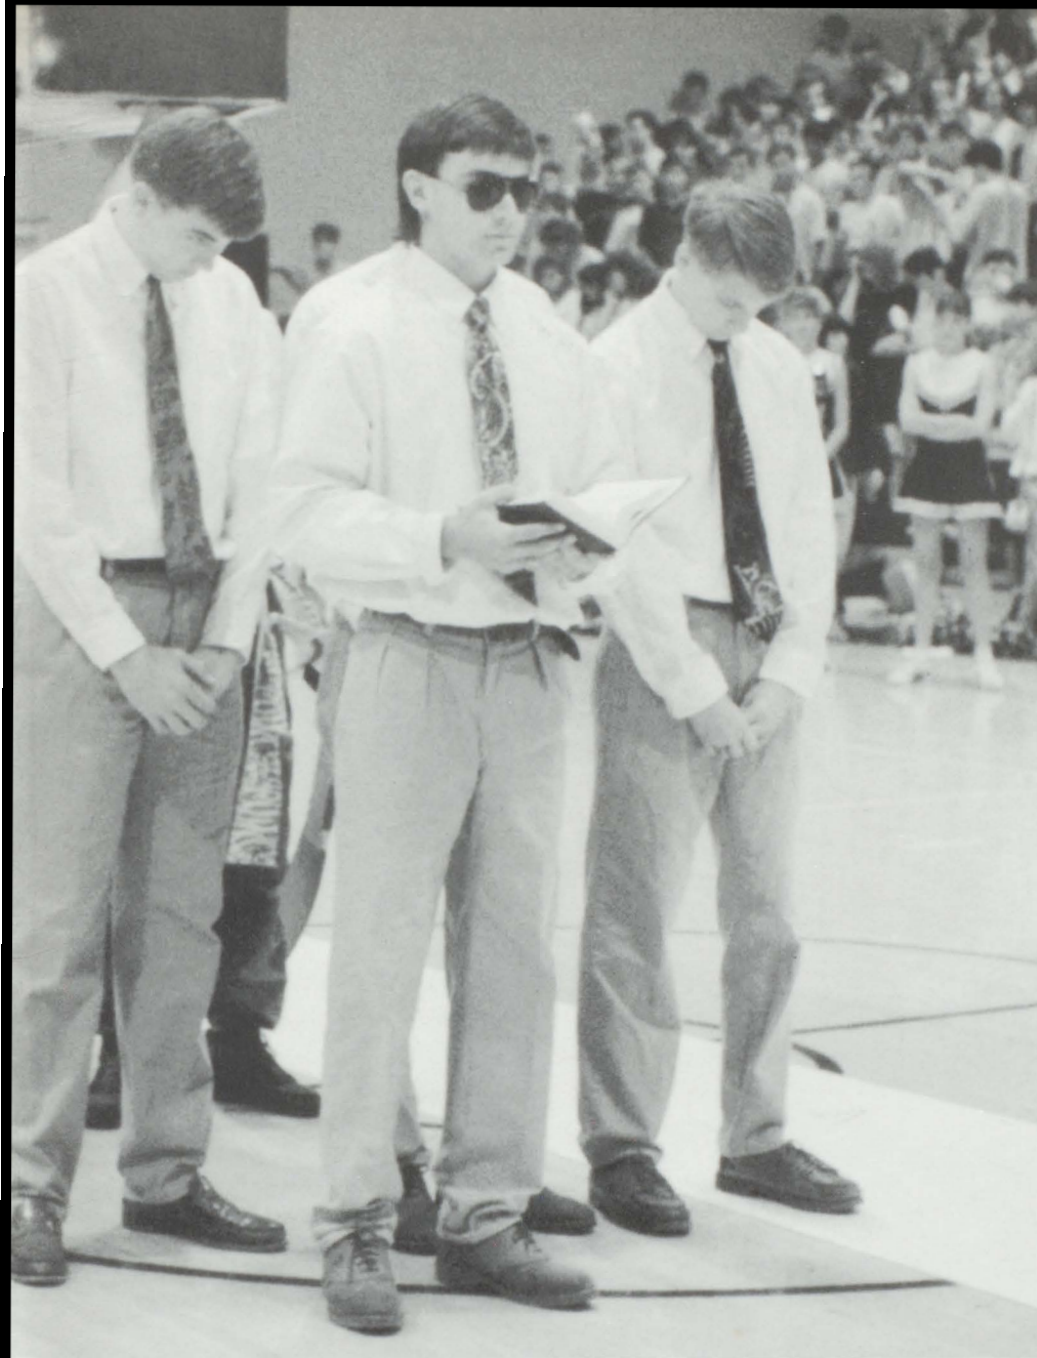

This year Homecoming was more enjoyable. The pep rally was a lot of fun. We all had a good time. Everyone seemed to have their spirits up!
Mandy Watts, 11

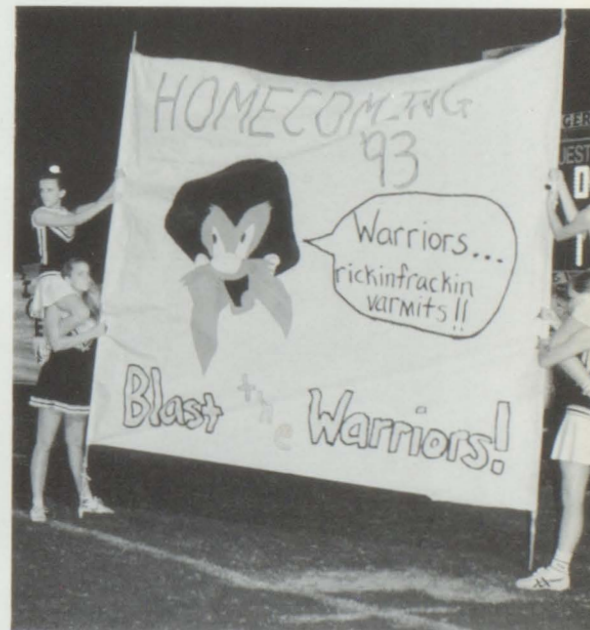

Homecoming was memorable this year because of all the festivities and parade, and because we won the game this year.
Mikie Williams, 12

Dancing the night away... Jeremy Rogers leads Mya Heaton around the floor. The western trend influences the way we dance.

Dress up DAZE... Andrea America and Selene Gandy dress up for 60's-70's Day. Other days included Western Day, Favorite Sports Team Day, and Tiger Pride Day.

Here Come the Tigers...Macy Nelson, Jessica Bryant, Sara Taylor, and Davin Arnold hold the run through. The cheerleaders design and draw these for each game.

Float Fun...FHA hammed it up in the parade. Mystic Welch, Leona Collins, Lashonda Atchison, Melanie Swayne, and Tessa Wallace enhance their float with their tiger garb.

Campus Hots

HIPPIES, WESTERNS, & PREPS

70's?? - 90's??... Amy Branum shows her personality through her clothes. She must be interesting; babydoll dress, fish net tights, and combat boots have been an everyday attire for her.

Check My Shoes... Shaakira Robbins makes a fashion statement everyday by either wearing cool shoes or an eccentric pair of earrings to complete her outfit. She's from the north, you know.

What is your favorite fashion?

"My favorite fashion is jeans, tee-shirts, and tennis shoes."

Jessie Leveque

What is your favorite fashion?

"My favorite fashion is silk shirts, jeans, and dress shoes."

Amy Osborne

What is your favorite fashion?

"My favorite fashion is sweaters and jeans and anything that's comfortable."

Rhonda Long

Talent and Style... Tammy Burger expresses her talent as well as her fashion. Hippy skirts and tie-dyed shirts are a big thing.

Books and Bells... Latanya Crook and Barbara Knight show off their bell bottom outfits and clog shoes while studying for tests.

Fun in the Sun... There's not a day in Cathy Hicks' life that she doesn't come to school dressed for success. Cole Haan mocassins, short-shorts and tee-shirts are a fashion trend of the 90's for summer.

Hair Do You Do?... Latonya Morrissette, Laurie Leggett, Carla Sledge, and Andrea America converse over their new hair do's. Which do do you prefer?

Donkeyball & Volleyball

WHAT A MATCH

Who Called It?... Ryan Craig, Selena Powell, Amanda Galloway, and Rikki Doggett all prepare to save the ball. This Mark Event is very popular with everyone on campus.

Another One Bites the Dust... Paul Lamb's ride comes to a quick stop during the donkey ball game that the National Honor Society sponsored. Paul has finally met something as stubborn as he.

"The thing that I enjoyed most about donkey ball was seeing the look on Mrs. Hudson's face when she fell off."

Heather Bengtson

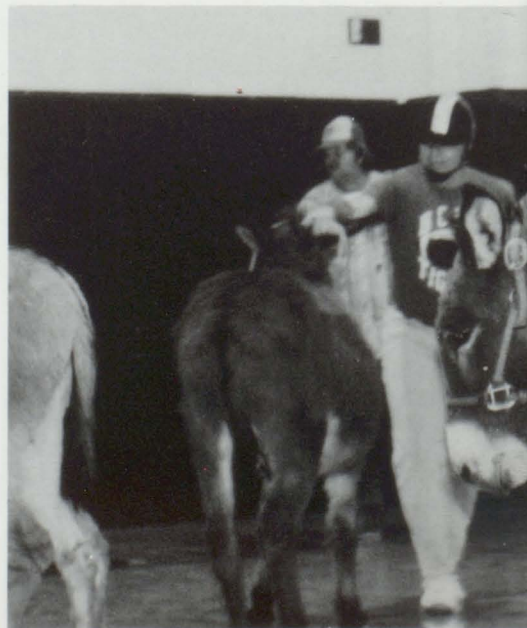

"The thing that I enjoyed most was watching everyone get bucked off."

Gabriel Boatwright

"I really enjoyed beating the teachers in the volleyball game."

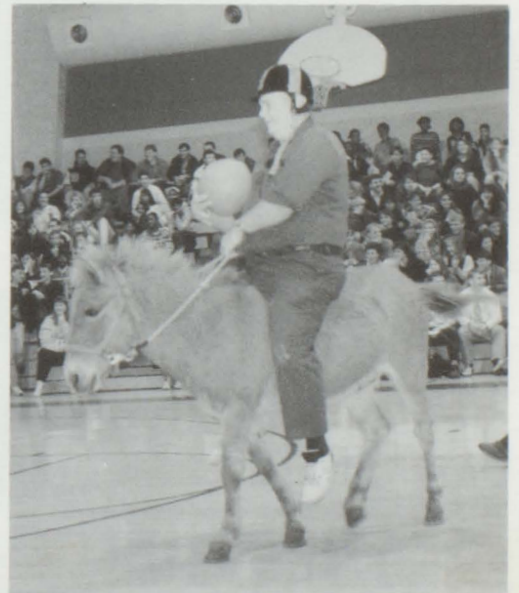

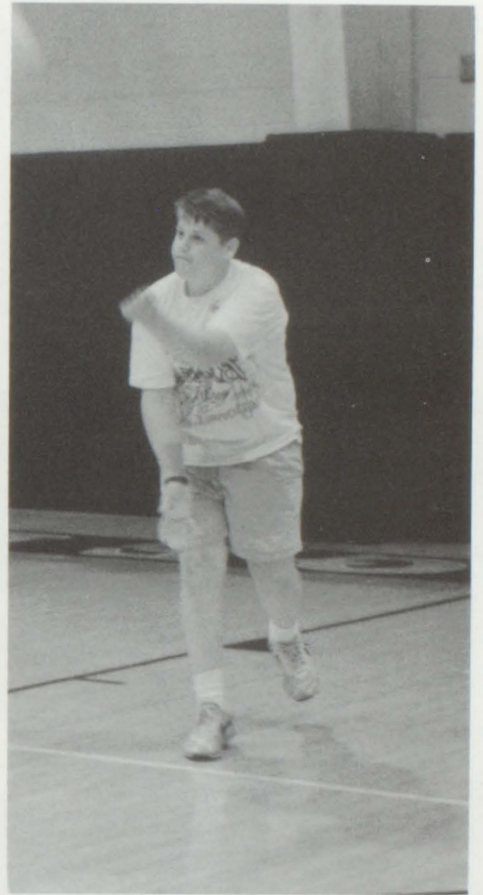

James Haig

Having Trouble???... Coach Ford carefully eases onto his donkey. Maybe he will have better luck this time. I doubt it.

Over the Net... Justin Mizell serves in the annual Student vs. Faculty Volleyball game. The students were victorious for the first time.

Easy Does It... Mr. Conway is ready to score a basket. He is slowly but surely heading toward the goal. I don't think he made his points.

Mark Events

ANYTHING GOES

Set, Hike... Cathy Hicks hikes the ball to Heather Bengtson, who is ready to pass the ball to Melissa Price, during the Powder Puff game between the juniors and seniors, juniors won.

Slip and Slide... Jason McWaters slips during the Anything Goes Egg Slide, giving Geoff Parker, Richard Mims, and Derrick McCall the opportunity to catch up. Anything goes...down!!!

"Powder Puff Football was my favorite Mark Event."

Pete Sellers

"I like the Male Cheerleading because then I know what guys to stay away from."

Matthew McDonald

"I like the Egg Slide. It was hilarious."

Jodi Sullivan

Hula Girl!!! Kevin Boyington, does a Hula Dance during the Mr. Balcoala Padgent. Each class sent two representatives.

What Beautiful Cheerleaders... Josh McCullough, Barrett Wiggins, Michael Walker, Danny Norton, and Brian Penn show-off their cheering skills and tiger pride during the male Cheerleader Contest.

Three are Not Better than Two... Jessica Hinote and Tammy Mims carefully make the finish line during the three-legged race. It isn't easy to run with three legs, especially when one of them isn't yours.

O.C. Play

"You Ain't Nothing But A Werewolf"

Elvis Presley/Werewolf Style: Greg Randall sings "Your Ain't Nothin' But A Werewolf" while Kristy Morris, Shannon Martin, and Misty Morris howl in the background. The O.C. Play was about a boy who gets transformed into a werewolf.

"Tell me your problems, Rupert." Walt Norton played Murdock Dangerfield, the mad scientist, who changes Rupert Lydecker, played by Josh McCullough, into a werewolf.

"I thought the play was worth it because it was a success and we all became closer as a result of it."

Lisa Killcreas, 12

"I enjoyed getting up on stage and performing for all the people. I also enjoyed all the wise cracks that the guys pulled during the practices and even during the play."

Charlie Perkins, 12

"I enjoyed my character and all the extensive makeup because it was fun being someone so opposite from myself."

Jessica Nelson, 12

Sweeping Up: Julie Howell plays Sadie, the cleaning lady at Riverdale High. She brought many humorous moments to the play.

"Rupert, my baby boy!": Stephanie Daniel, as Mrs. Lydecker, was a zany, forgetful person. She added a lot of happiness to all our practices.

"I respect you, Miss Chicklet": Mandy Parker as Miss Sesame, the school secretary, was always bothering Lenore Dyess, who was Miss Chicklet, the school principal. This twosome added a little seriousness, but their overall effect was hilarious.

"I Got Bit": Coral Daniels, as Mamie, sings about her love life with the Werewolf. Jennifer Dickman, Kristy Morries, Stephanie Daniels, April Prewett, Misty Morries, Shannon Martin, and April Sanks are her back-up singers.

Prom

Sophomore Cruise

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER!

Moments Rest...Marsha Helms, Jodie Hastings, Mya Heaton, and Tommy Horn sit out a dance to rest and eat. The cruise was definately a night that would not be forgotten.

Can You Believe It!...Dillon Mitchell and Tony Martin are caught up in the excitement of being Prom Queen and King. That night is one that will be embedded in their minds forever.

"The cruise around Mobile Bay was very nice and enjoyable."
Brian Bryars, 10

"The cruise provides the students with a magical evening of fellowship with their classmates, friends, and that someone special."
Ms. Nollen

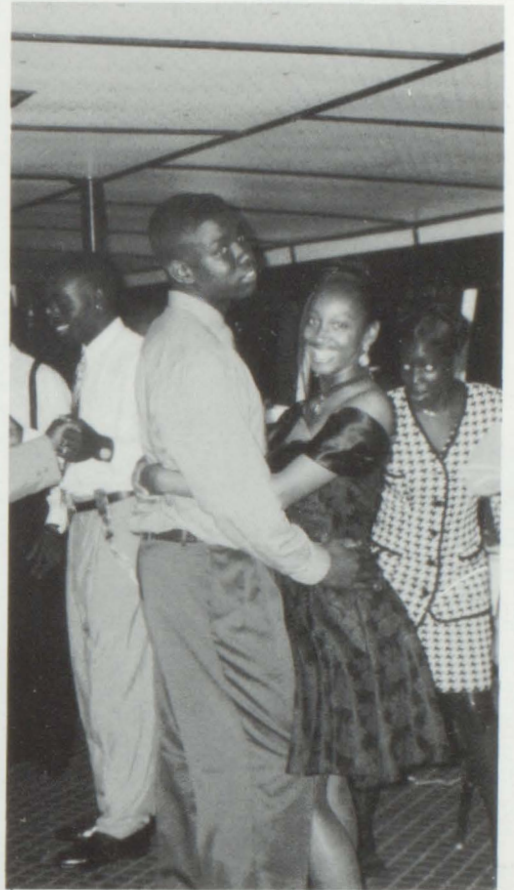

"I liked where it [the Prom] was held. I think it was memorable because the last couple of years we have almost always been in a hotel, and this year it was in a beautiful building made of glass which gave us a wonderful feeling."
Demetrea Mason, 12

Moment in Spotlight...Jennifer Harville and Jake Hadley take a stroll down Senior lane at the Prom. Seniors had a chance to make a Grand entrance through Senior leadouts.

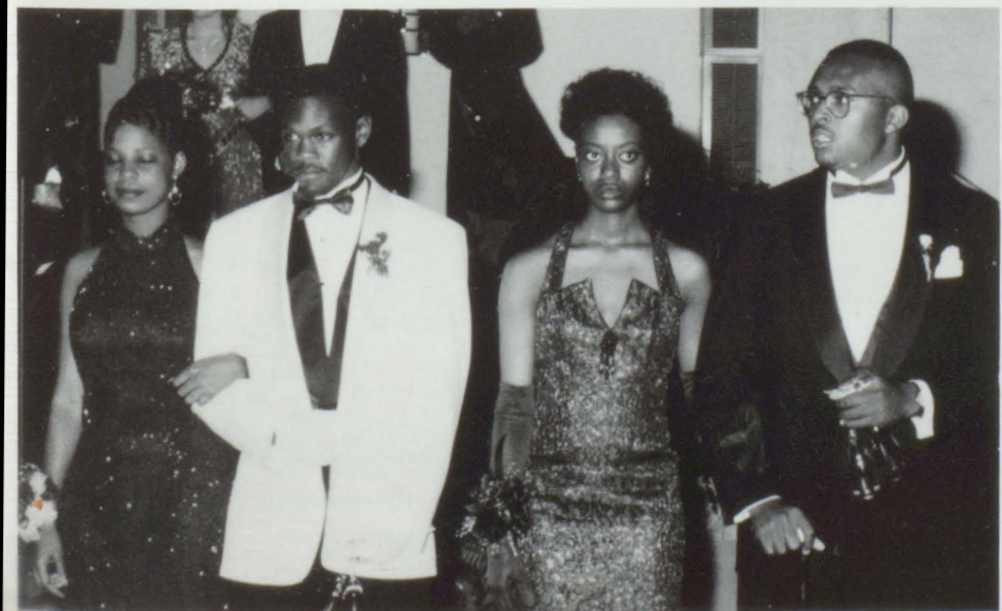

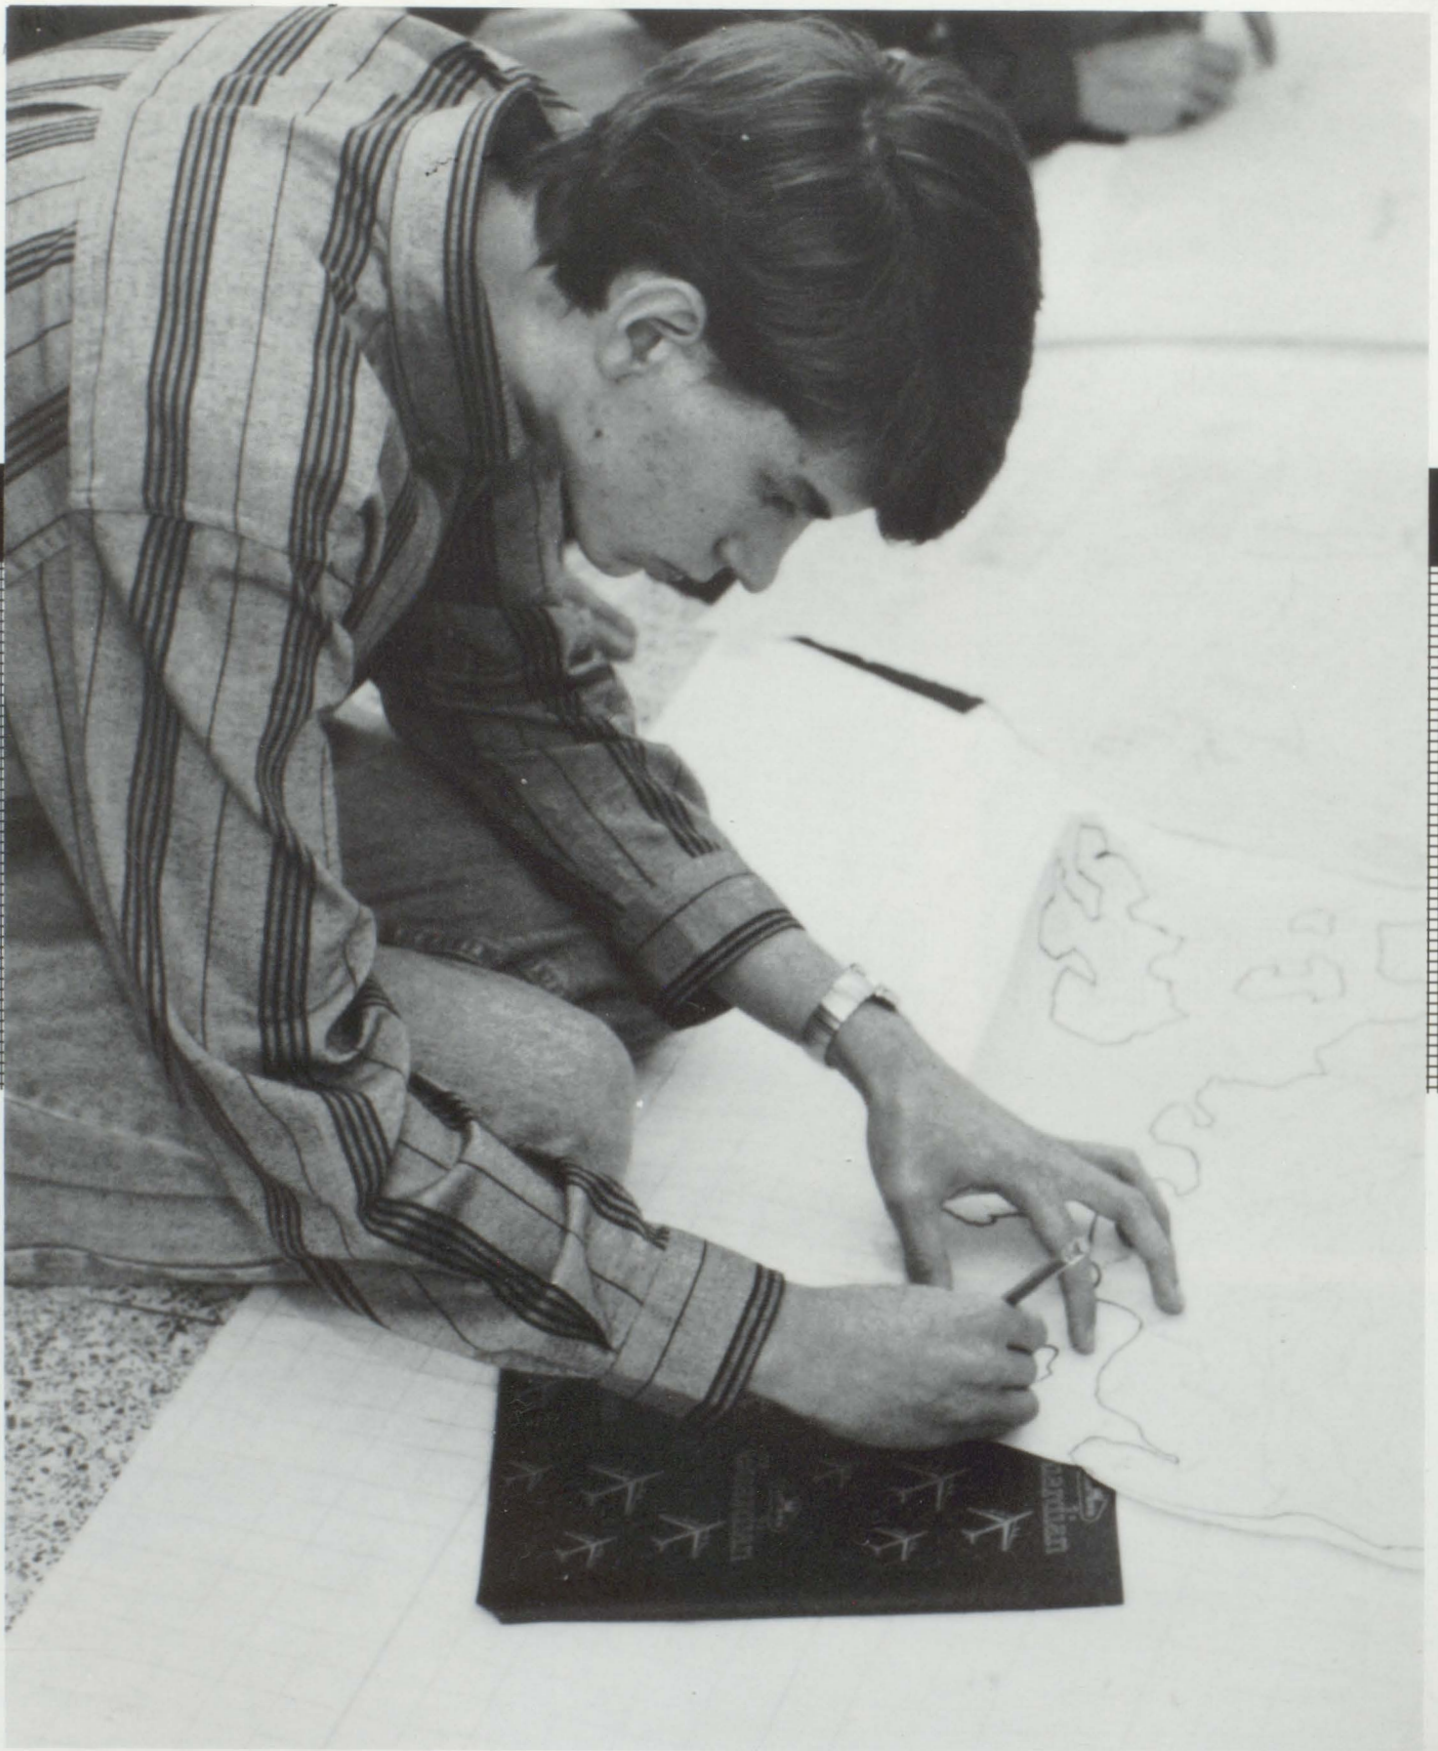

Dancin' the Night Away...Robert Jones and Kim Maddox get lost in the music. The music allowed couples to get close and enjoy the night.

Chatting Away...Kelly Kirchharr and Jeremy Redmon eat and take time to talk before the dancing began. The cruise was not just dancing, it was a time to fellowship also.

Waiting...Latonya Crook, Clay Williams, LaShonda Mims, and Vinson Bradley patiently await the crowning of Prom King and Queen. The tension could be felt as everyone waited for the announcement.

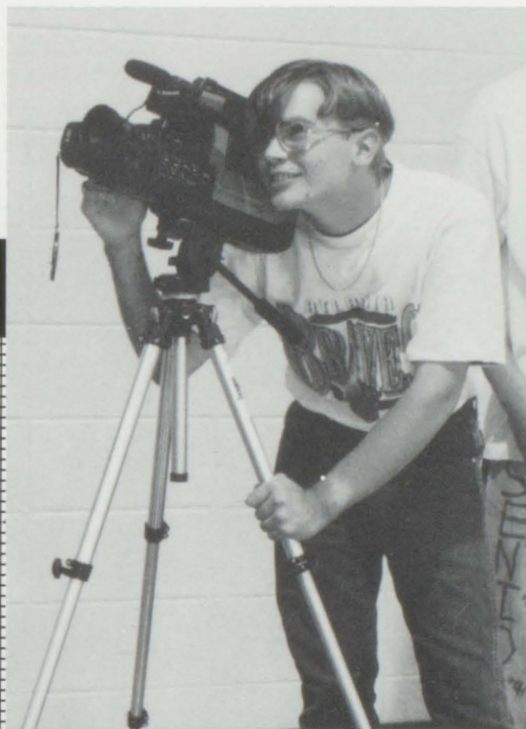

Steady Hand... Sean Denmark knows that it takes total concentration to draw out a map. A. R. is not all hardwork though many A. R. students say that they do have their good times in there, like putting on the Talent Show.

Makin' Music...Carter Scott helped many groups in Mrs. Hudson's AP English class perform their ballads. This was one of the more interesting projects of the year!!

Math & Science

Check it out... Elijah Hollinghead double checks his work to make sure that the problems are correct. Sometimes just looking over your work will help to make a better grade.

S a m p l i n g Seaweed...Macy Nelson gives Andy Bryars a taste of seaweed. Mrs. Fagan always had interesting "stuff" in marine biology.

For the Grade... Mandy Hadley and Angela McBride wait while Mr. Brackman grades the homework assignment from the night before. It is always important that each student turns in his or her paper on time.

FFA is a national organization of students enrolled in vocational agribusiness. All students in these programs are to receive instruction in personal leadership growth and development which can best be achieved through the FFA. FFA members learn by taking part in and conducting meetings, speaking in public, participating in contests based on occupational skills, earning awards and recognition, becoming involved in cooperative efforts, and community improvements. FFA sells fruit, welds, competes in animal-judging contests, and forestry-judging contests.

Sizing It Up... Richie Byrd measures a tree while Jade Dunn, Jamey Byrd, and Jeremy White look on. They are practicing for the the District Forestry Judging contest.

"The French Club members are enthusiastic, highly motivated, and a great bunch of kids. I have enjoyed working with them."

Mrs. Katherine Land

The French Club participated in the Homecoming parade and Club Day. The major social event of the French Club was the "pique-nique." (For those of you who do not take French, that's picnic.) It consists of French style food and French music. The French Club also helped add a little color to Madame Land's room by making Christmas Stockings, Valentines, kites, and bumper stickers. They also made crepe, which is like a pancake with filling rolled up inside. The French Club shows each student what life is like in France.

'The Safety Club completed several projects. The display of a 'wrecked car during Labor Day weekend,' 'Share the Road' with trucks was another, but 'Prom Promise' was the exciting project which members promised to refrain from the drinking on prom night. Safety Club members attended meetings throughout the state, and plan to attend the National Conference in Seattle, Washington this summer.'

The sisters of Sigma Delta Phi and their Big Brothers shared numerous memories and laughter while fulfilling this year's agenda.

Sigma Delta Phi participated in one community project and various "fun" festivities per month. Members splashed into the year with a Pre-school pool party that ended with a volleyball match.

No one escaped the bubbles and the water battles of the car wash. Building a winning homecoming float challenged all. Laughter filled the air as characters worked together on the "Dennis the Menace" theme.

Thanksgiving fruit baskets and a Santa's stocking for each patient of the local nursing home kept our hearts in the joy of giving.

Sweethearts dancing introduced the New Year for all - with springtime came the Academic Tea and plans for a new year. Some how, no matter what job or task we did, the ties of friendship saw us through.

People Who Do a Great Deal... Amanda Riddle, Jodi Sullivan, Jessica Wessler, Miss Holmes-Sponsor, Leilani Williams, and Tiz Thompson.

Student Council

hours. The Student...

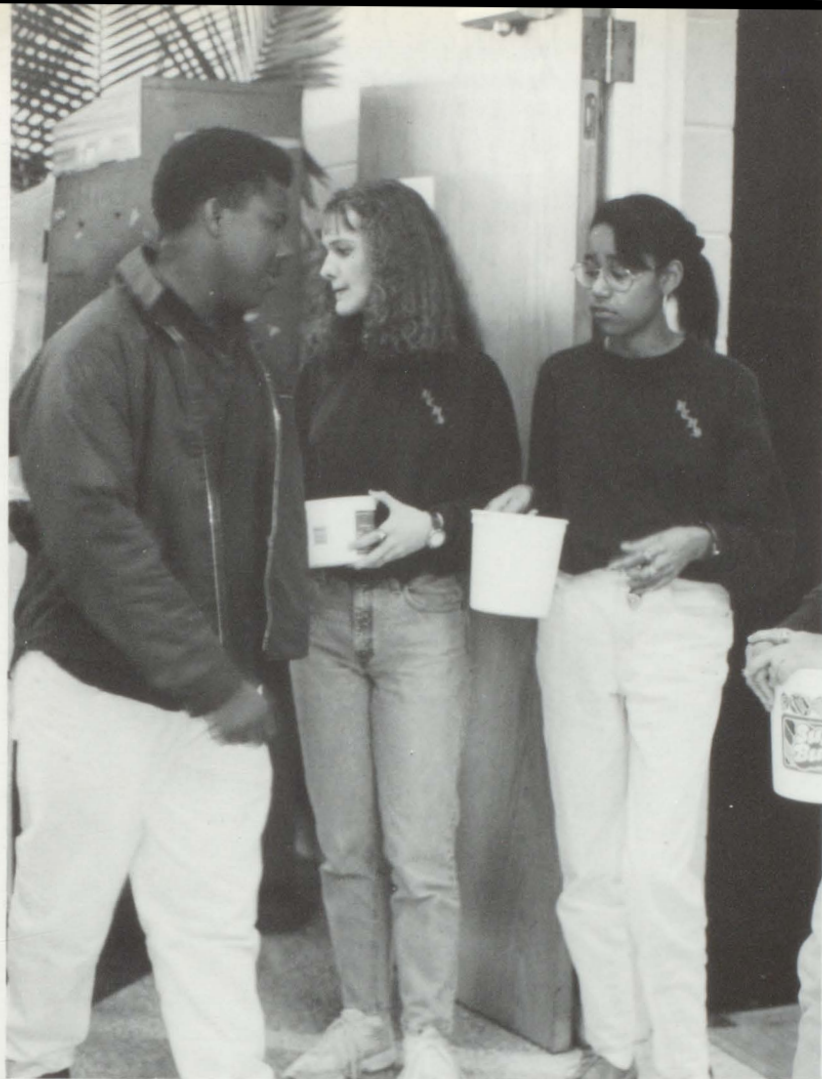

Important Meetings... Student Council meetings are the most important part of the organization. They are the main source of fun.

"As an advisor, you watch young adults take on the difficult task of leadership and you see them achieve far beyond your expectations."

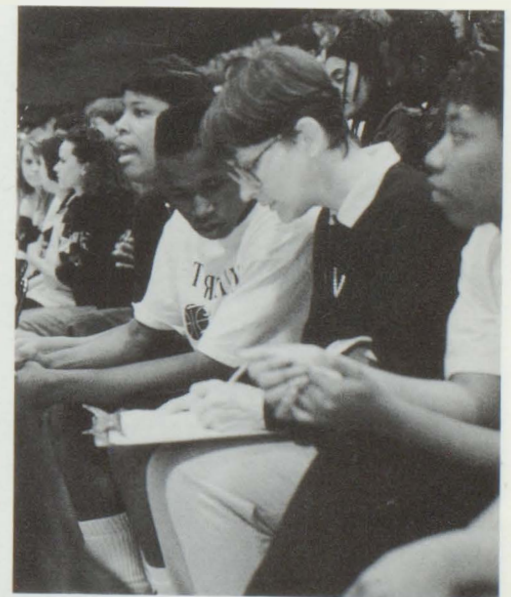

Mrs. Robinson

...Council helped sponsor Earth Day, Homecoming, Country Western Dance, Pumpkin Contest, doughnut sales and many more. The students' extra efforts helped make our school year more exciting.

Fun, Fun, Fun... Susan Langham and Ashley Robertson look a little bored taking up tickets. They'd much rather be having fun in the assembly.

Student Faculty Vollyball... Mrs. Brogden advises Robert Brown on the next play. Go Students!

Auburn, Alabama... Grey Griffith, Chris Clark, Kim Williams, Sara Allstadt, Heather Emmons, Brandis Griffin, and Artazio McDole strut their Auburn-Alabama threads.

The Annual Staff

was a group of dedicated students working together to produce our yearbook.

They worked diligently all year to get the scoop on everything from volleyball to Prom.

It's That Time of Year Again...Cathy Hicks, Misty Morries, Erika Chancery, April Prewett, Mary Louise Wills, and Elizabeth Still diligently work to find students' names on the list of purchased yearbooks.

"Annual staff is a fun, but difficult, task. It's fun because we're really into what's happening on campus, difficult because of the deadline demands. It's worth it though."

Mrs. Pat Hudson

"Mark representatives from each grade level are the success of this program. These students have some type of work to do everyday. This program depends on them. Since we have had GREAT success, we must have GREAT hard-working students."

Mrs. Wanda Bulman

The Mark Committee members were put together to run the Mark program. In the Mark program, the students selected were dedicated individuals who can motivate their activities. All events are organized and run by the students with a lot of help from the chairperson Cathy Hicks.

Congratulations!..Mark member, Julie Howell, honors the contestants of the Mr. Balcoala contest. Congratulations Demetrius Williams!

VOCATIONAL

For thirty-five years our school system was blessed with the influence of Mr. Hardy. He served as a Teacher, Counselor, Asst. Principal and Voc. School Director. In each position he touched lives with his knowledge, his concern, and his love. All of us who knew him and all who knew of him know what a vacancy his death has caused. We miss him and his ready smile. He often said, 'Trust in the Lord and you can't go wrong.' Mr. Hardy did trust his Lord.

This is the Mr. Hardy who greeted us everyday.

Business Education

The Business Leaders of Tomorrow

Business education is a class designed to prepare students for a career in the business world. Students learn techniques in all areas of business from computer technology to basic communication skills. Many of the students in this department participate in the co-op program during which they spend part of each day working in business and industry in the Baldwin County area.

The chapter members of Future Business Leaders of America have supported the state project "Team Up With Business." The members were involved in such areas as collecting food for the needy at Christmas and working closely with the local circuit court. They attended the District III meeting held at Satsuma High School. At that meeting Diane Parker received a third place in business calculations, and Barbara Thompson received a first place in word processing.

How Many Spaces??? Rhonda Milstead has computer techniques that will make her successful in the business world.

VARSITY CHEERLEADING

CHEERS & POMS

What it takes to keep up the spirit

"Gimme an I"...The cheerleaders try many methods to keep spirits up.

Get a leg up...Katy Harper and the Varsity Cheerleaders lead the student body in one of the more popular cheers, "Tigers got the Fever." Crowd participation is the key to success in a pep rally.

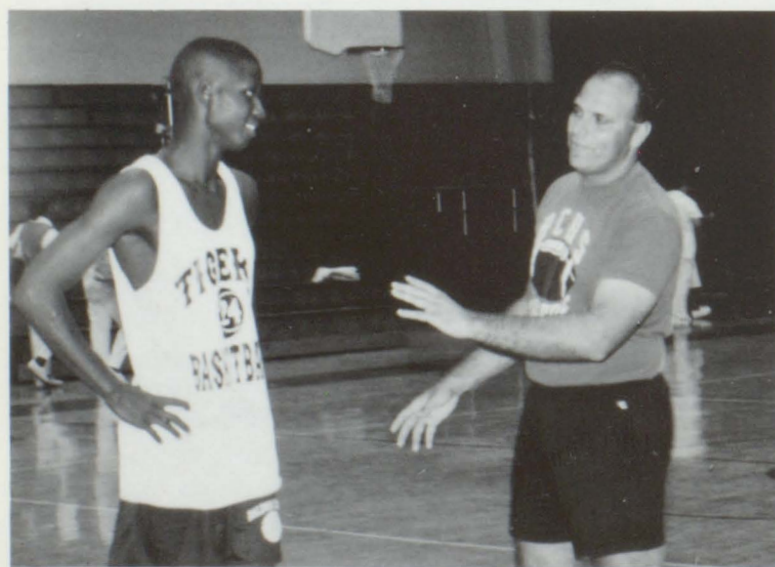

Pound the Pirates...Misti Doggett and Macy Nelson work diligently on the run through. Cheerleading is not just jumping around.

"Have a coke"...Heather Bengtson, Julie Walton, Rachel Foster, Katy Harper, and Amy Hayes distribute cokes during break. The Coke company donated the drinks to support the promotion to keep the school clean.

DRIBBLES & DUNKS

What it takes to score

Game Time...The team gets together for a group huddle before the start of their game. This helps all the players keep their spirits high.

Giving some pointers...Coach Weaver gives Trevino Grace some helpful pointers on some plays of the game.

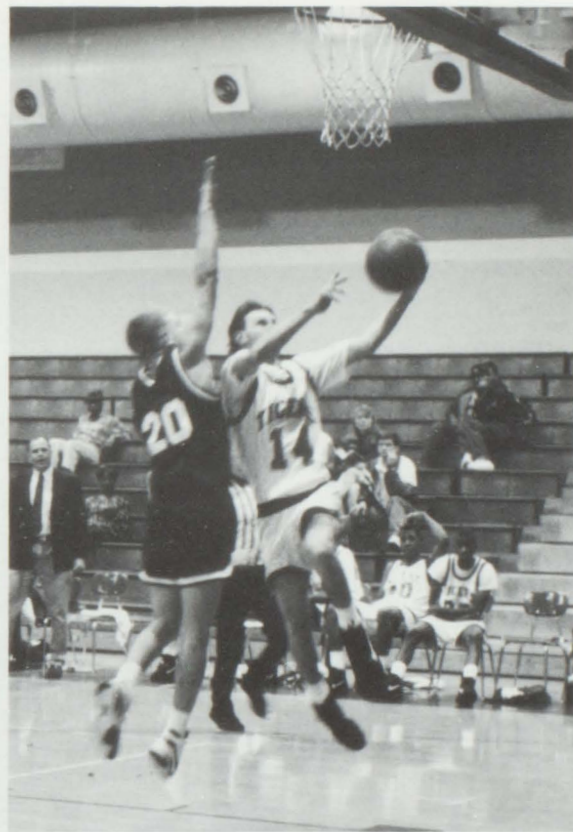

Run for it...Damon Nivens and Deunte' Love run down the court to make a goal.

Free Throw...Clay Williams goes for a great shot as teammate Ren Moore watches on in hopes of scoring more points.

Slam it...Josh McCullough proves his basketball ability by doing this left hand lay-up.

Tosses & Throws

What it takes to make two

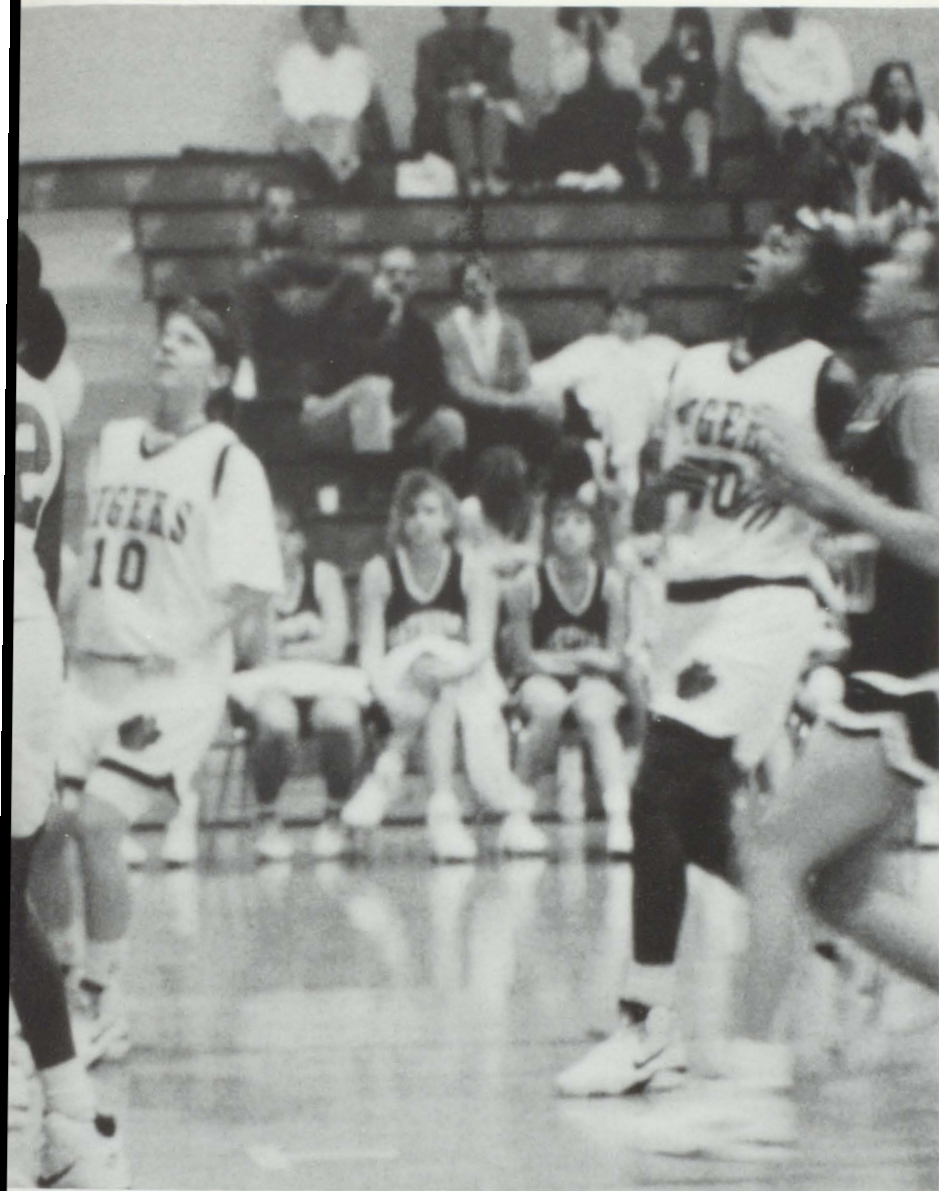

Stealing the Ball...Terris Tolbert gets the ball from the other team to try to make a goal. Hustling in the game led to a great victory.

Tigers for Two...Tameka Hooks watches the ball and gets prepared to make a rebound for Selene Gandy.

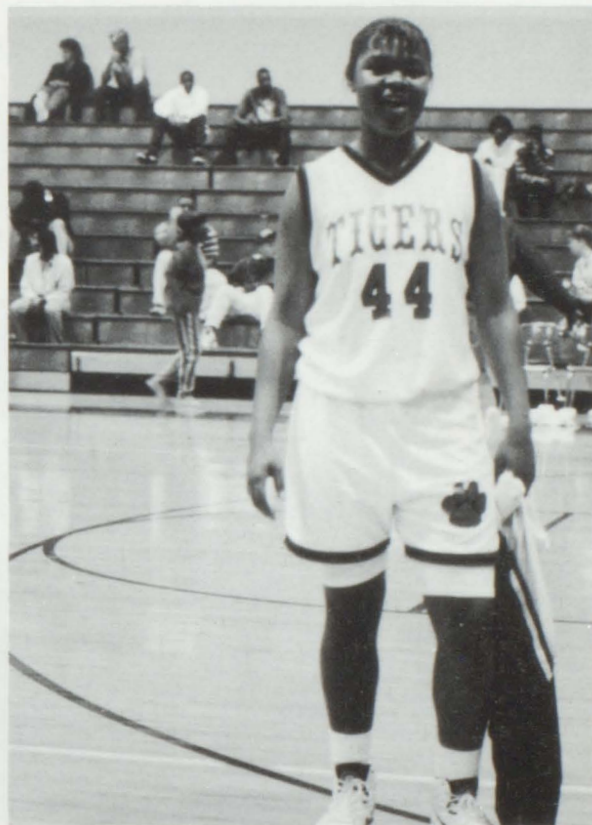

Practicing makes Perfect...Tishia Couch knows that to be such a great player you have to do a lot of one thing, that's practicing.

Making some points... Felicia Stewart, Tishia Couch, Terris Tolbert, and Melissa Anderson watch the ball to see if it is going to make it or not. They ended the season by beating Satsuma.

On the Sidelines... Selene Gandy takes time to take a picture after one of their victorious games. Selene is a great player and has proved it this year by her performances on the court.

What was your favorite event of your freshman year?

"My favorite event was the Sigma Delta Phi Sweetheart Dance because it was not real fancy and I got to see my friends. There were fast songs and slow ones, too, so you could dance with that special person or a close friend."

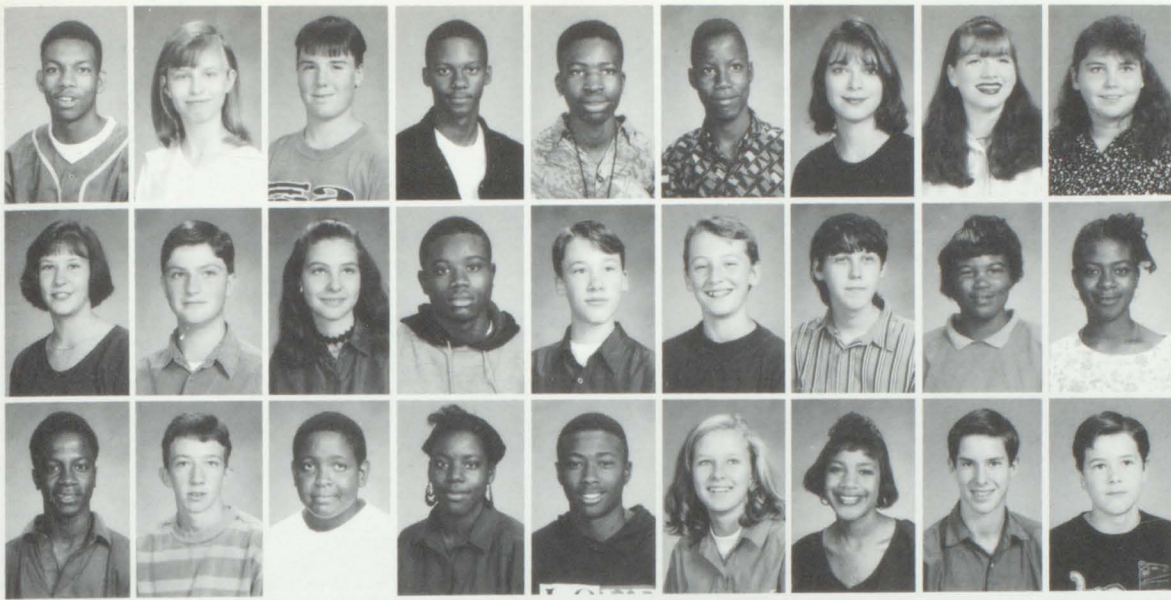

James Mantlo

What was your favorite subject? Why? Who was your favorite teacher? Why?

Endulging: Erika Hussar and Cindy Harcey sample some exotic foods during their world history class. This year the world history classes celebrated Christmas around the world.

Splurging: Ashley Robertson, Pam Mims, and Kendrell Ezell drool over their desserts. Many enjoyed the sweet extravaganza.

Hanging Out: Sophomores, Pete Sellers and Blake Hadley, show freshman, Josh Caldwell, how to hang out and have a good time. It's not very hard to catch on.

Between Classes: Starla Blackburn gets ready for her next class. She looks puzzled about what books she must get.

Talent: Jeremy Redman performs for our school in the Mr. Balcoala contest. He has a wonderful ear for music.

Sophomore Spirit

Lock it Up: Lockers hold more than just books according to Cheryl Smith. Many students keep all of their belongings in their locker.

Snack Time: Joey Norris shows his enthusiasm in home economics. He doesn't want a piece of the brownie, he wants the whole thing.

School Spirit: The sophomores show their spirit while competing with the rest of the school for the Spirit Award. What's the score of the contest?

Getting Tough: Dawn Anderson gets ready to make a pass during the Powder Puff Football Game. The sophomores are touchdown bound.

Cramming: Emily Lindsey catches up on some of her school work at lunch. Some students don't like to have any homework.

HEEEY! Barbie Rider and Tammy Davis cheer on the Junior class during a pep rally. This was an exciting moment during the football season.

Showing his Stuff: Tareance James shows his video camera equipment before the morning announcements. The morning announcements are presented by the Student Council President.

Finger Lickin' Good: Patty Hadley, Jeremy Canaan, Emily White, and the rest of the crew enjoy their lunch break eating and finishing up their homework.

Rings & Things

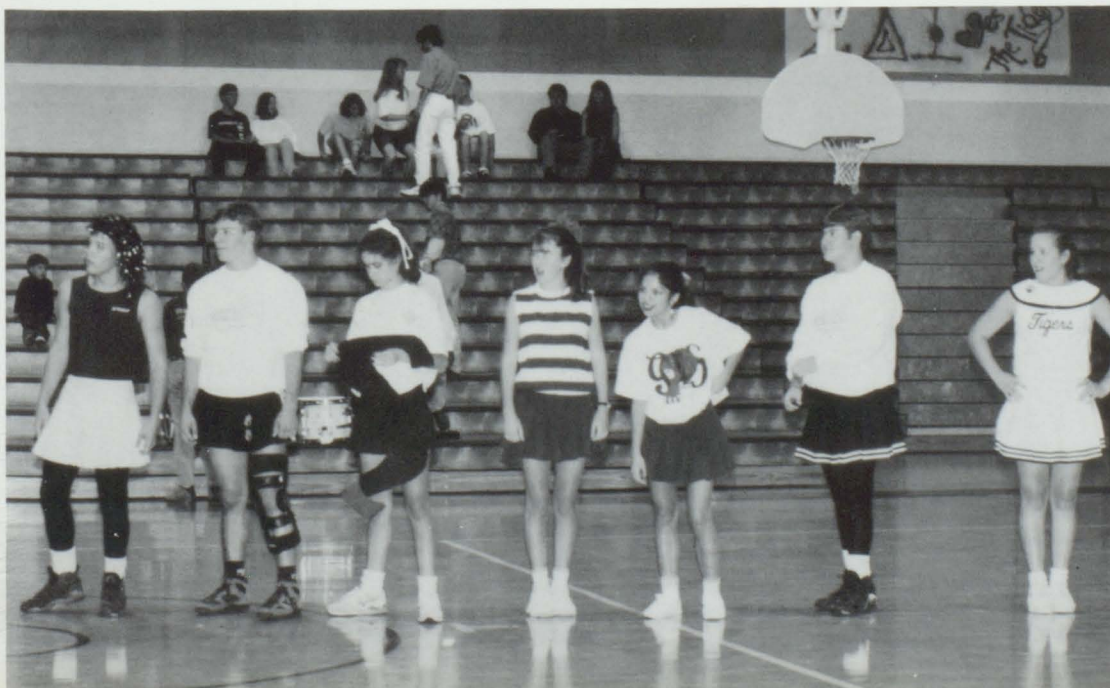

Showing who's best...Melissa Baggett and Shelia Presley show spirit. The more unique ideas you have to show spirit, the better chance you have of your class winning the spirit yell.

The turning of the Ring...Jennifer Prosser and Amy Little share their exciting moment. This is a big event during your Junior year and calls for 1,995 revolutions.

Proving their point...Trevino Grace and Robert Brown say Juniors are the best by printing it on a balloon to use for a pep rally. You can show your spirit in many ways and this was one of them.

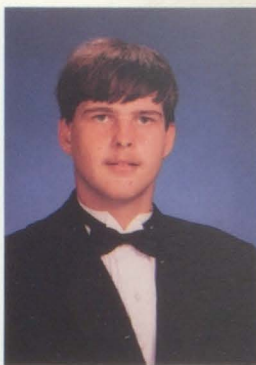

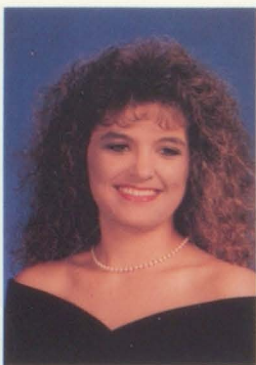

Oh Gosh who goes next...Tiz Thompson seems a little confused on who goes next. She's wondering if its Alicia Stewart to talk or Jimmie-Ann Hoobler to sing the Alma Mater for the Junior Class Ring Ceremony

Who are we?...Jamie Hileman, Rikki Doggett, Jodi Sullivan, Jimmie-Ann Hoobler, Amy Branum, Jeremy Canaan, and Francis Hinkley do the junior skit for Pep Fest. Just what are they doing?

Congratulations, April on a job well done. We're very proud of you. Set your goals as high in the future as you have in the past. God bless you.. We love you.

Daddy, Mama, Jeff, Jason, Kyle, Amy & Blake

We are proud of you.

Love,

Nan, Gramps, Hope, Johnny, Bess, and the Bryant Family

To my mother,

My senior year has been a good year for me with one exception - your absence. You would have had more fun with me this year than I've had. You always put Kyle and me before anything and loved us unconditionally. I just regret not realizing that until you were gone. You have been and always will be with me in my heart. I know I have an angel on my shoulder. I Love You Mama!

Bobby Thomaston,

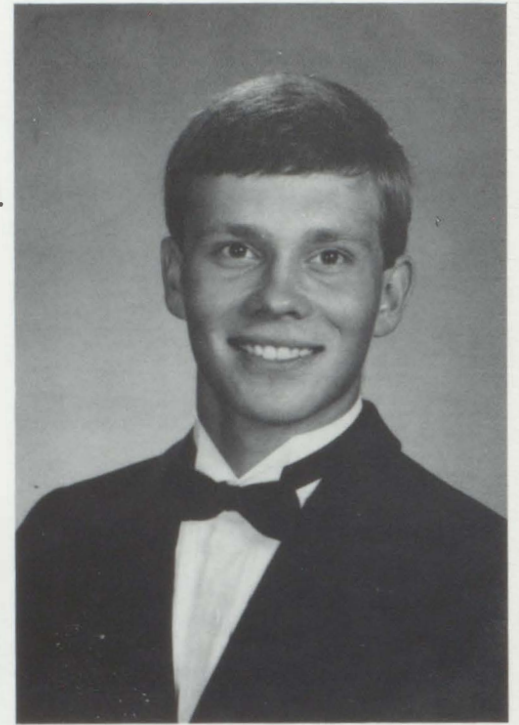

Since you were born
We've revelled in your glow,
Seen your light,
Been touched by your warmth.

Now we step back
As you continue to grow,
We are filled with pride,
Delighted with whom you've become.

Ahead adventure awaits!
Remember wherever you go,
See with an open heart,

*Mr.
Miss
B.C.H.S.*

Mr. Tony Martin and Miss Dillon Mitchell were chosen by their fellow seniors to be Mr. and Miss B.C.H.S.

Dillon, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Mitchell, was very active as well. She was a member of varsity volleyball, receiving All County, and varsity tennis. She was secretary of NHS, a Key Club Favorite, a Delta Belle Ambassador and an annual staffer. Dillon was also elected Prom Queen and received numerous Who's Who awards.

Tony, the son of Ms. Emily Martin, participated in many events which included varsity baseball, All County his senior year, varsity football, O.C.; and his classmates also voted him Prom King and Mr. B.C.H.S.

Make Ups End Ups

How to End A Year

Finally!...Mrs. Hayes rejoices with Kenny Hall. Graduation is a long awaited event - for both students and teachers. June 3rd couldn't come too soon for Kenny - doesn't he look smug!

Top 13 say Goodbye...The first to enter Simmons Field on Friday Night were the scholars. Lead by Julie Howell and Lyle' Partin, this intelligent crew happily end their high school career, or could this be a "hello" to college?

Double Duty... Angie Trest, the graduate, is still Angie Trest, the band student. Marcia Helms, Donna McCleod, and Marissa Roberts share this last performance with their senior classmate.

Outta Here!!... Shaakira Robins goes out with the style she brought in. Even Yankees are happy on diploma night. Derrhonda Robins seems to want to get the paper and take off her hot robe.

Last Words

COLOPHONE, SENIOR PHOTOS

Volume 72 of the Balcoala was published by the Annual Staff and printed by Herff Jones, in Montgomery, Alabama. 500 copies were printed in 160 pound bordeaux paper.

The cover was 100% black. 180 Days blind embossed with clear prisma foil on top of Daze.

Randy Claybrook was our Herff Jones Representative. He helped us in many trouble-some times. We'd all like to say "Thank you" for all of your help. You helped to make this year a great success for us, although you almost made us miss our deadline once. (We love you, anyway.)

Mrs. Hudson, who'd have known we would become this close? For the past three years you have put up with us and helped us every way you could. Thanks for the Pat-chats, without them we probably wouldn't have made it. You've become a second mom to all of us. We're going to miss you!

Thumbs Up...Jason and Jeremy Goodman rate the year a winner. The talent show held on Thursday, March 17, brought out more than some of us were expecting. I think that's the way we can sum up '93-'94.
