The best of tiger rags

Oh Nooo-We wouldn't commit a fashion faux pas! Tyrone Thompson, Chance White, Amanda Riddle, Jessie Stewart, Julia Allen, and Jason Price are showing us the fashion spectrum of baseball caps, grunge, professional team jerseys, jeans, boots, and button downs.

Boys, boots and buckles.... Tommy (T-3) Horn, Jarrod Jones, and Vince Marshall stopped ropin' just long enough to show us their favorite rodeo wear.

Looking Great! Cheryl Smith, Erin Tillery, and Amy Branum prove that you've gotta have these clothes to be any body in the fashion world.

What up? Just because Carlos English, O.J. Williams, and Travis Jenkins' pants are droopin, it doesn't mean their fashion sense is falling behind. We just hope their pants don't sag too low.

Time will tell... Mandy Harbison and Charlotte Roley are sporting the timeless fashion of denim. Girls you definitely don't need a fashion workshop.

Glad we caught Nicole Middleton in her metallic wear before she fell. Sometimes yearbook work can be hazardous to one's health. Nicole slipped and tore the ligaments in her knee while posing. Boy, what some people will do to be in the fashion spread.

"Fast as fast can be, you'll never catch me." ...
 Sophomore Powder-Puff star Amanda Morris races around the end avoiding Susan Thompson as the sophomores defeat the freshmen.

Orange and Black ... Joe Hill, Brandon Weekley, and Tommy Horn help Brian Wiggins show his true colors during the male cheerleader contest.

"We will rock you." ...
David Rhames, Luke Nelson, Jeremy Phillips, Wes Boyett, Parimal Mehta, and Cordell Campbell try in vain to stay together in order to impress the judges.

"Danielle" Stevens struts her stuff in the male homecoming contest. "She" is escorted by Leilani Williams.

What was the best thing to you about being in the Beauty Makeover Contest?

"It gave the rest of the school a break from class and a good laugh."

Rachael Caldwell, 12

Was the Beauty Makeover worth the time, and did you enjoy it?

"The Beauty Makeover could have been better if we would have had more time to straighten out all of the 'rough edges.' All in all, it was worth seeing how things worked out."

Jodi Peacock, 12

"What is it that you think Oral Communications is about?"

"Oral Communications is a class where one of two things can happen—relationships among students can either be weakened or strengthened. I am proud to say that the O.C. class of 1995 has experienced the latter. Oral Communications is not just about speeches, group projects, or stage production: It's about dedication and leadership, and more importantly, friendship and respect for one another. Our experiences in this class will definitely be unforgettable. O.C. students: 'I love you! You will always have a special place in my heart. .'"

in service

Sigma Delta Phi is a sorority for young women in which its member selected on the basis of academic excellence, character, leadership, and the desire to perform services for our school and community. A few of our special projects this year involved putting together fruit baskets for our local nursing home during the holiday season and sponsoring a Walk-A-Thon in which all donations were given to our school library and computer lab.

As first year sponsors, we have enjoyed working with some of BCHS's finest students.

In Memory of Natasha Weekley

*She was more loved than she could ever know.
 They took her life which they could not admit.
 Throughout the years together we would grow
 And all the laughs we never can forget.
 She was quite skillful with her saxophone
 She played her instrument for band five years.
 We loved her and we wish she could have known.
 And when she died we shed a lot of tears.
 And when we saw her car we were distressed
 That such a thing could happen to a friend.
 The loss was great and our hearts were hard pressed.
 And we were all with her until the end.
 It was a tragic way for her to die.
 We wish we could have all told her goodbye.*

Going out with a ROAR!

Lights, Camera, ACTION!....

Action News 10's own Deiah Foster is pictured with BCHS's own Tiz Thompson and Carlos Dees anchoring the first ever Senior Show!

And the Winner is... Robbie Strom reeled in the big winner with the help of Mr. Robertson at the first Buddy Bass Tournament.

Hang Ten... Chris Blackburn clowns around on a boogie board at the beach. Summer comes early down South.

Put some muscle in it! Matt Byrd, Kim Williams, Joe Hill, Tosha Smith, and Mendy White face the Senior team in the tug - of- war.

How unfortunate.... John Wiggins frets over backing into Brian Scarbrough's truck. Luckily the long arm of the law was there to take control!

Volume 73 of the Balcoala was published by the Annual Staff and printed by Herff Jones in Montgomery, Alabama. 500 copies were printed in 160 pound bordeaux paper.

The cover was 100 % black. "It's a Jungle In There" is in peach and emerald green silkscreen

Randy Claybrook was our Herff Jones' Rep.

Mrs Hudson, when looking back on our high school years, memories of you and the annual staff will fill our minds. Because of the friendships that were made, the stressful assignments were worth the time spent and also worth the frazzled nerves experienced by everyone in this tiny, little room. We thank you for everything you have done for us and for being the special person you are.

Pie In Your Face: Josh Hobach is an example of the wild & crazy people & events that took place during this school year. "It's A Jungle In There" is the title that is fitting. Students, teachers & events were full of the mischief and mishaps. It truly is a jungle at Baldwin County High, but the safari is worth it!

WALKABOUT

Jeff Allen makes sure the senior sponsors saw that we was properly dressed. They just said wear a tie; they didn't say in or out.

The senior class listens as Leanna Bell gives the treasurer's report. It was the twenty-seven cents left to Mrs. Hudson for fig newtons that was most appreciated. The balance of senior monies was given to the school to purchase an etched tiger for the library entrance.
