... I see? A group of Mr.
... is trying to blend in with
...ings.

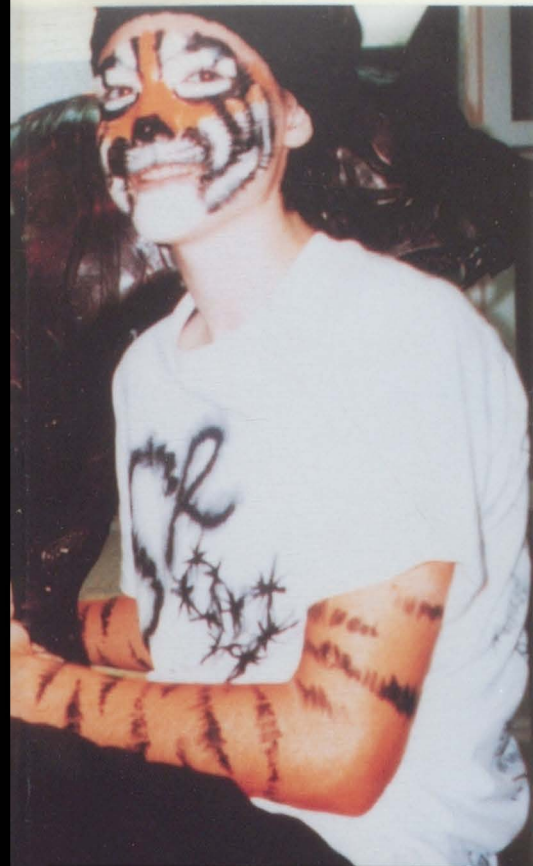

!!! Jennifer Jerkins is
...a. Pippi Longstocking!!!

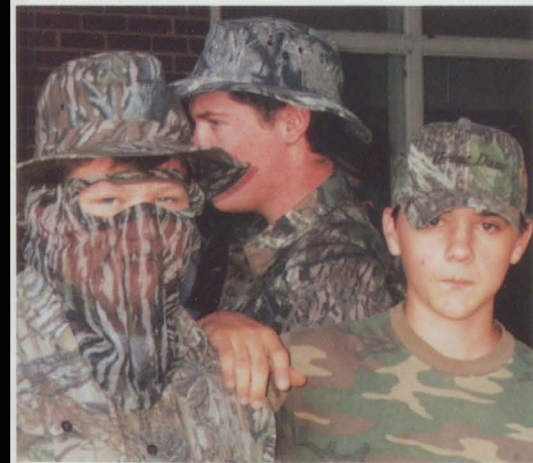

Smile!!! Latoya Baker and Eartha
White take a moment to pose for the camera.

The clash of two generations... Jennifer Davidson and Kristen Middleton collide with their 80's and 60's fashions.

Pocahantas??? No, it's Natasha Van Alstine just pretending to be the Indian Princess on Disney Dress Up Day.

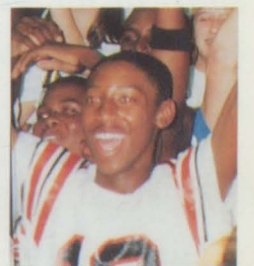

Grrr!!! Rachel Knight expresses her love for the BCHS Tigers.

Don't forget the sunblock! The senior girls participated in Homecoming Week by wearing their beachwear to school. Wow, Meredith, where did you get your swimsuit?

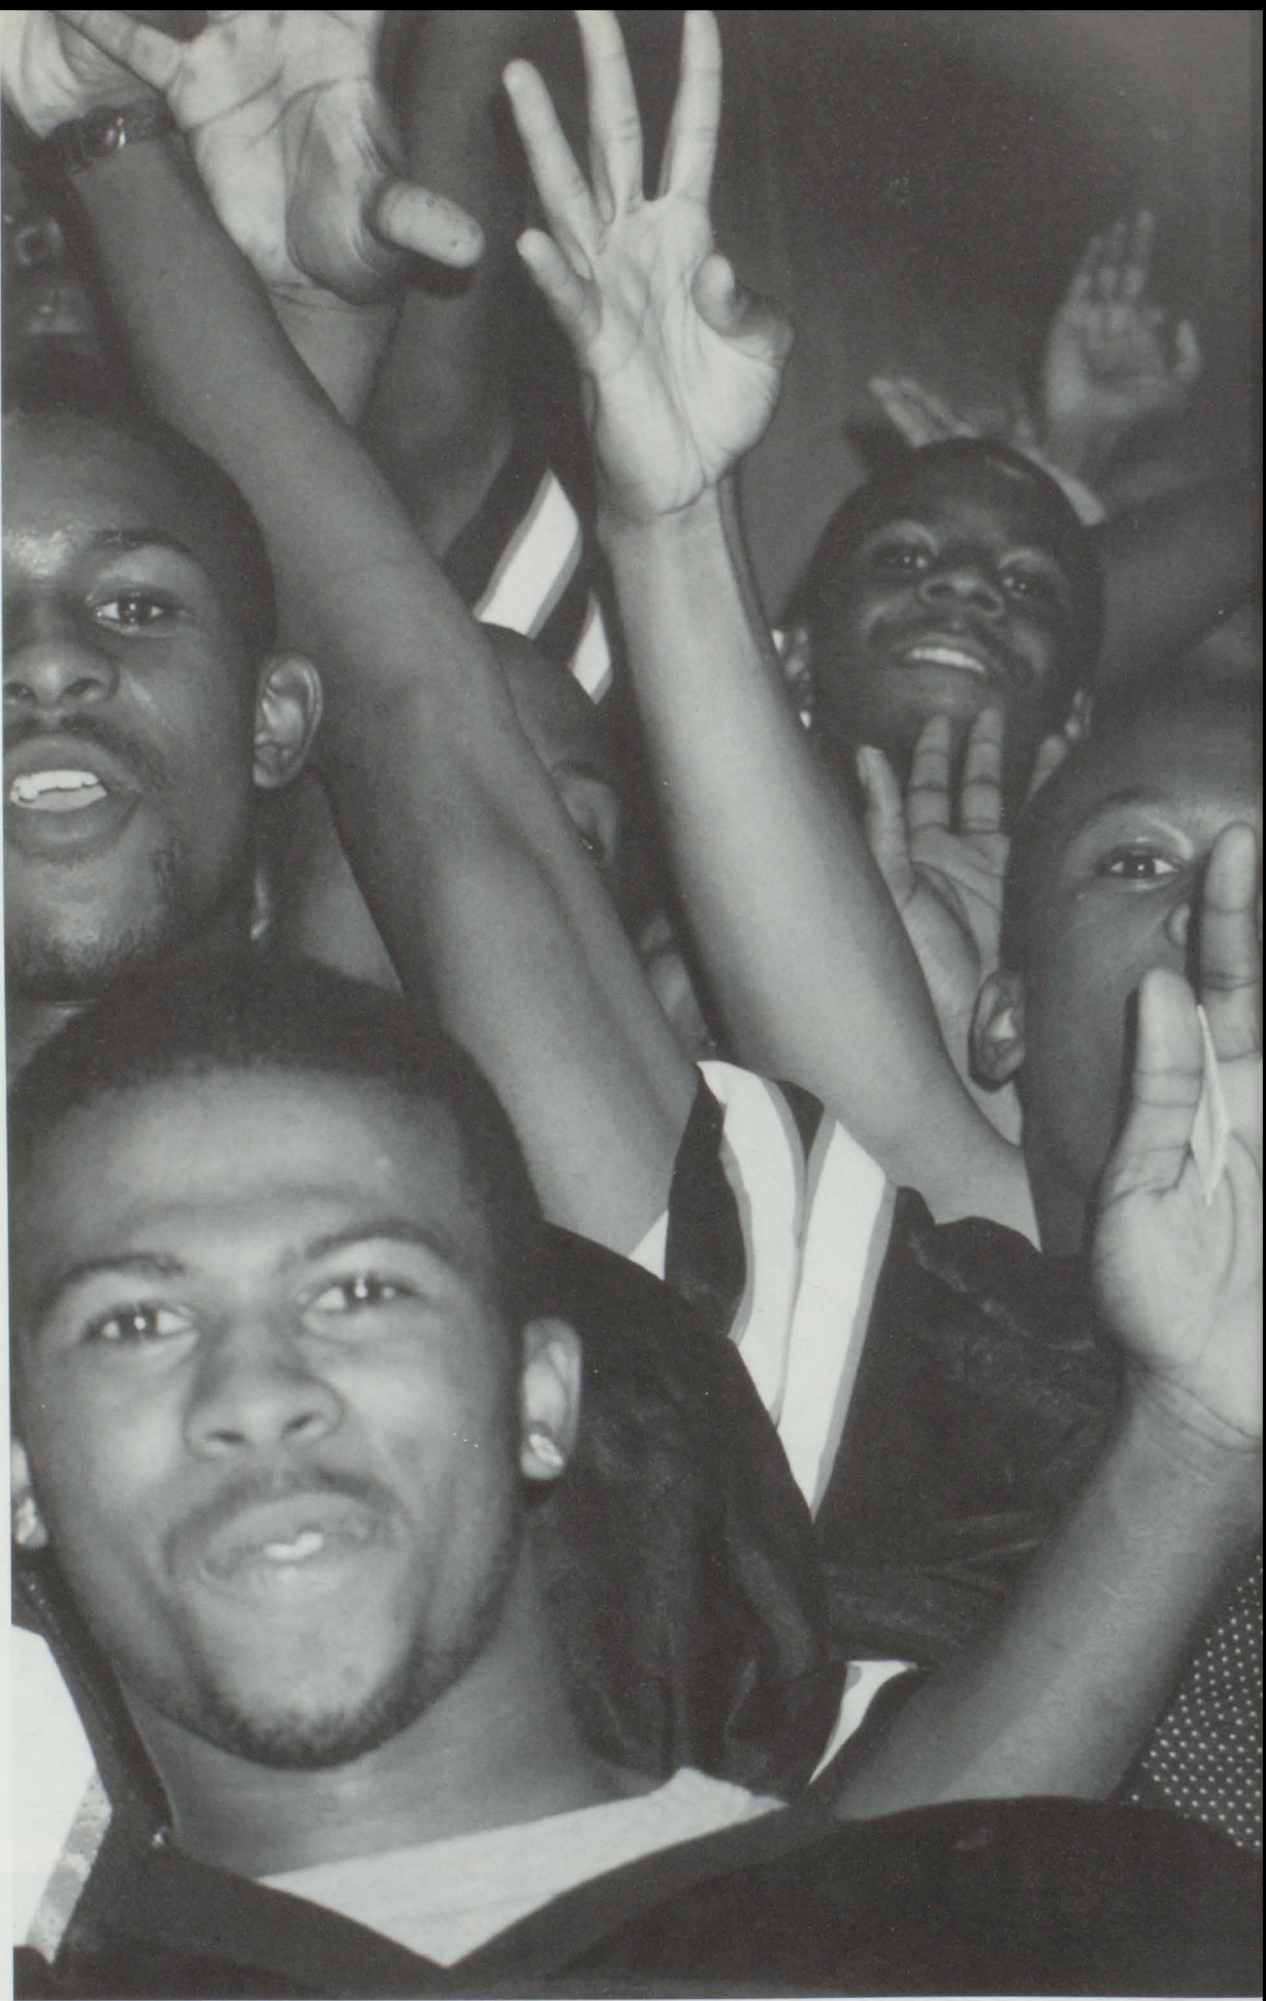

Finishing touches... Liz Folgelberg helps get the senior homecoming float ready to be judged.

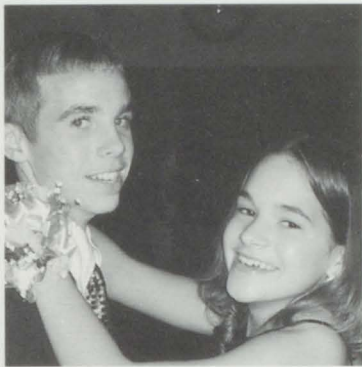

Do you have any tissue?? AnnMarie Turpen helped make the freshmen's birthday cake that tied first place with the seniors.

Fit for the Occasion... Jeni Denton and Krystal Killcreas flash back to the rockin 80's.

*Kenneth Mason,
Jason McCall,
Marcella Carter,
and Carlos
French show their school spirit at the pep rally by just

Who said school couldn't be fun?

*All work and no play can make a dull day... Mandy Parker, Jeff Owens,
Becky Scarborough, Jeremy Gandy,
Jeni Denton, and Courtney Scott all have different ideas of fun at BCHS.*

We've got spirit, yeah! We've got Student spirit, yeah! Life

Between studying, working, and participating in extracurricular activities, the students at BCHS still have time to show off their school spirit. Each student contributes his or her own style to the school activities such as: pep rallies, Homecoming Week, dances, clubs, Prom, and fashion. These are just some of the activities that make up the students' lives at BCHS.

Whew... AnnMarie Turpen, Jennifer Johnson, and Miranda Fields take a breather before the pep rally starts. It takes a lot of energy to make a good pep rally.

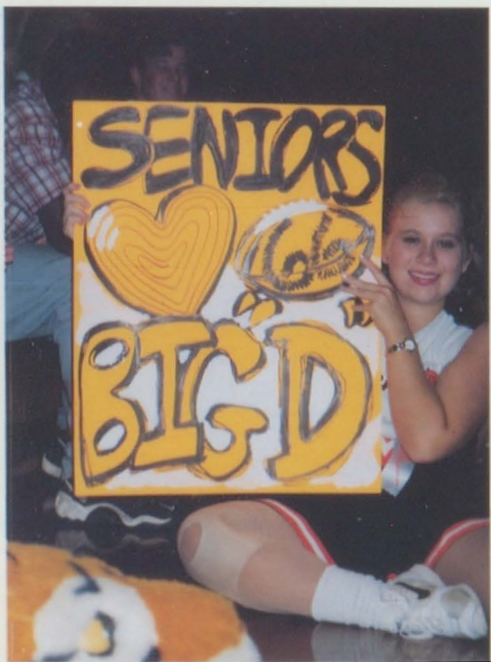

Pep Rallies

R U proud to be a Tiger! R U proud to be a Tiger!

Yeah!!! Laura Gee shows that she is happy to be a senior. Could she possibly scream any louder?

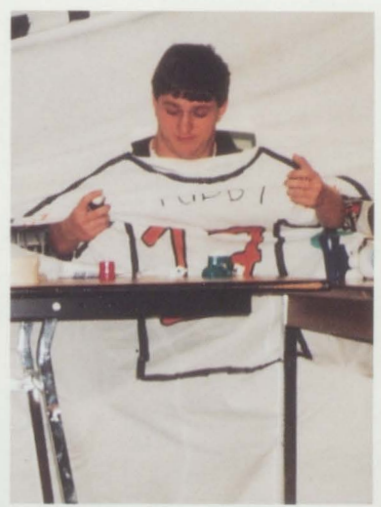

Who taught them to put on make-up? Ben Smith and Jody McMillan are showing their school pride.

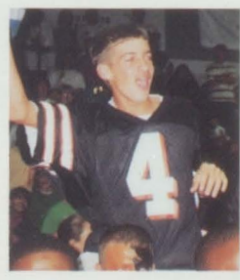

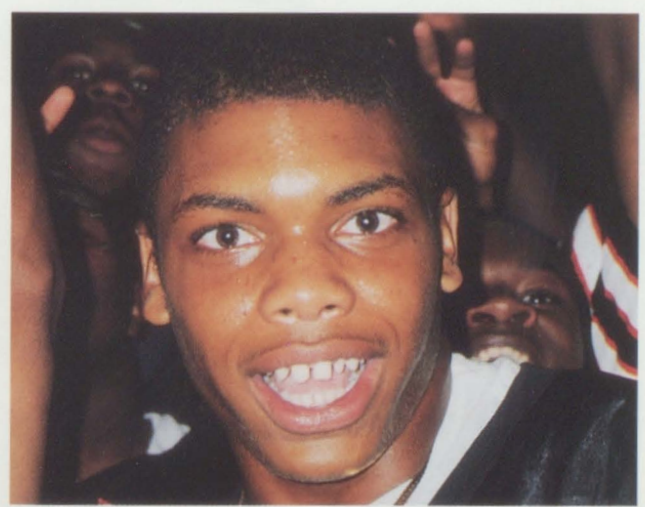

Go, Juniors!! Kelly Wenzel, Johnelle Loper, and Paige Aplin show their Tiger spirit by cheering on their class in the spirit yell.

Watch It!! Daniel Tuberville isn't too sure about this shaving thing.

Let's go, Tigers!! Johnathan Crook surely is excited about playing in the game tonight. He is proud to be a Tiger!

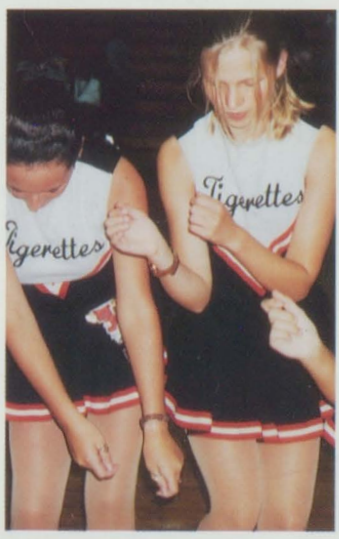

Noisy, Noisy, Noisy... Lauren Paul seems to be making her share of noise at this pep rally.

Sing it... These girls proudly sing the alma mater at the end of the pep rally.

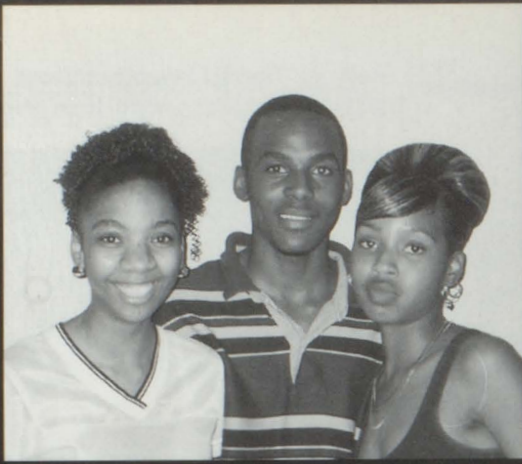

Having fun??? Danielle Vick seems to be having a blast at this pep rally or maybe she just likes school.

How long can they go??? Jessica Hasting and Caron Lynch are concentrating hard on their dancing.

Friendly Smiles... Tracey, MeMe, and Kesha smile to show their undying friendship for one another. They know that there's more to friendship than smiling prettily!!

Two of a kind... Katie Sedberry and Tiffany Stacey pull together. Why? Because friends always stick together in times of need.

What is a true friend??? To students at BCHS, the definition of a friend means a variety of things. To some, a friend is merely a person to do things with on weekends. To others, a high school friend becomes a lifelong friend. Though high school is filled with hard, tough times, it also carries along with it many great opportunities to strengthen our friendships. Trust, honesty, enthusiasm --all are qualities upon which lasting friendships are built. To be able to keep a secret, to be able to listen without judging, and to be able to share someone else's happiness without feeling envy, friendships require special care because they can last a lifetime with a little luck and a whole lot of effort!

Friends... Friends... Friends... Friends...

Friends... Friends...

Friends... Friends... Friends...
ALWAYS

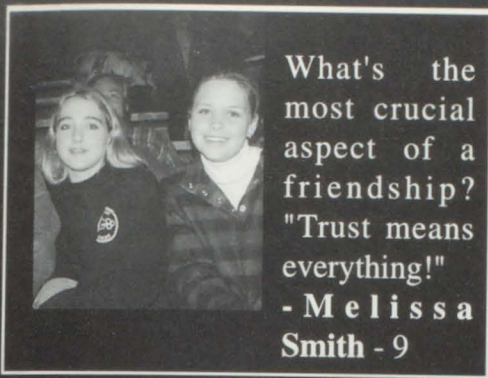

Break buddies... Sarah Lindsey and Megan Stewart get together at break every day to discuss what's going on at BCHS!

Friends Forever... Jessica Bryars knows she and Brenna Stephens will always and forever be friends.

Close Friends... Kathryn Hollingsworth, Nicole Mackinnon, and Alicia Brunson are sure their friendship will last long after Graduation.

What's the most crucial aspect of a friendship?
 "Trust means everything!"
 - Melissa Smith - 9

Leaders of the pack... Zeno Green, Darren Killings, Gary French, Carlos French, John Snowden, Sean Steans, Kenny Mason, and Michael Snowden represent the 504...

Those eyes... Amanda Guess and Carrie Bryars both have warm, friendly eyes.

Friends- People you can depend on... Christy Mims, Jamin Collins, Leandra Crook and Traci Lamar always know they can depend on each other.

Time's almost up... Dana Richerson and Tabatha Johnson know they need to make the best of their senior year.

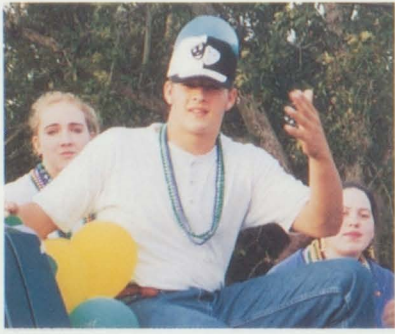

Best of friends!!! Kym Valverde and Quinette Sanders are best friends both in and out of school. They're in band together here at BCHS, but both agree there's a lot more to their friendship than being in band together!

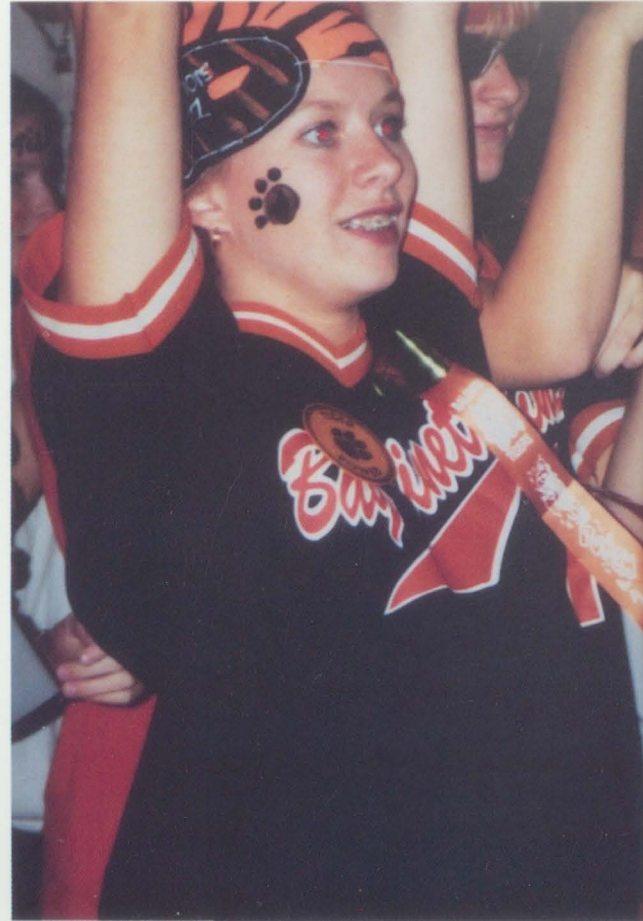

That's what friends are for... Julie Wimberley and Tiffany Vinson share their difficulties being freshmen with each other.

Les Bon Temps...John Mark Byrne and Asher Linam seem to be having a great time riding on the French Club Float. Like the French saying states, "Let the Good Times Roll!"

It's Party Time! It's Party Time! It's Party Time! It's Party Time!

Homecoming Week

It's Party Time! It's Party Time!

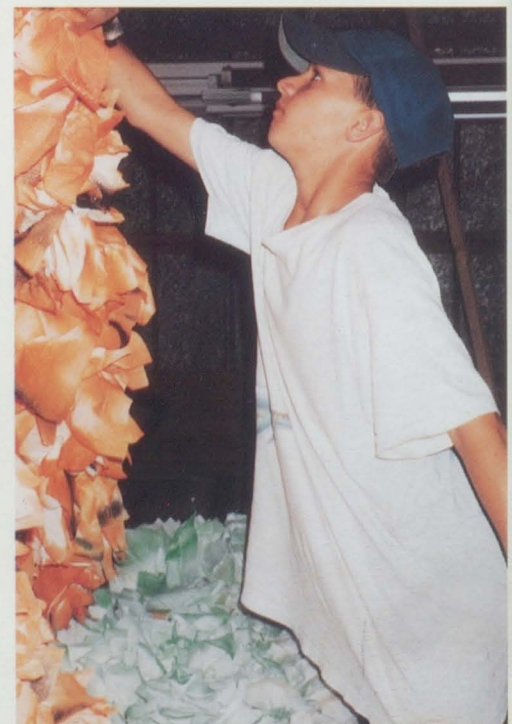

Turtle Power.. Jennifer & Nicole learn about mortal combat.

Seen' Spots... Jennifer Davidson, Miranda Daniel, Lacey Creppel, and Jennifer Bush sport their spots during Homecoming Week's Cartoon Day.

The Bold and the Beautiful... Lacey Boyington and Marie Blackburn strut their stuff at the Homecoming Dance. These girls obviously know how to have fun.

Fluff and Stuff... Chris Linder has the art of stuffing tissue down to an art. The Freshman threw a birthday party on their float.

DECA Rocks... Dana Owens, Heather Bush, Kelli Wenzel, and Kasey Rolin wave to the crowd on their Rockin' Truck during the annual Homecoming Parade.

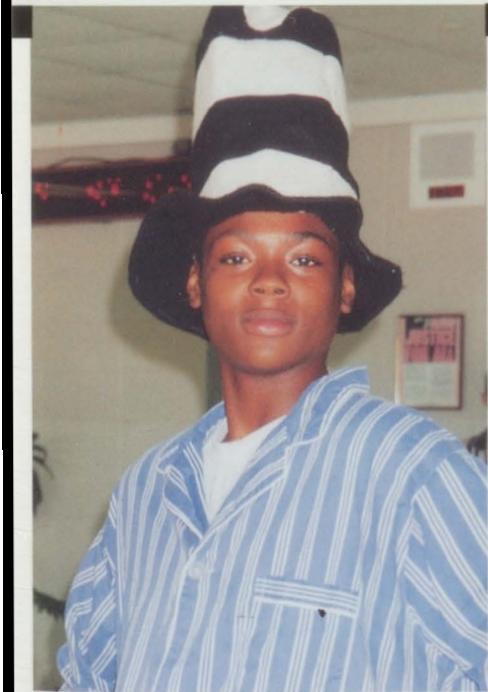

Be afraid, be very afraid... The Rebels better watch out for Garth Turpen. Nobody messes with this senior's candy even though it is supposed to be thrown to the crowd.

Pretty as a picture... Joanna Rabon makes her grand entrance to the annual Homecoming Dance. She and her date are excited about dancing the night away. The nerves and preparations are put away because the party is about to begin.

Cat in the Hat??? Jeremy Gandy shows his school spirit by dressing in pajamas and a crazy hat. Is he possibly supposed to be Dr. Seuss?

G.I. Joe... Sean Steans flaunts his pearly whites as he chills at break.

The Powerhouse Trio... What a group of warriors! Allison Tillery, Mandy Parker, and Nicole Bryars take a break from saving the world to rest.

The Invisible Men and Women... Clint Irby, Heather Tolbert, and Daniel Welch are virtually invisible.

The 1998 Homecoming Court features six very active seniors. Of the six, two are basketball players, three are cheerleaders, and one is a soccer player. Every one of the girls is very active in her school and community. Each girl must maintain a 2.5 grade point average.

Bridget Boykin is escorted on the field by her proud father, Dwight Boykin.

Poppin up...Jennifer Johnson & the freshmen pop as they do their Mary Poppins skit that won 1st place in the tableau.

Smile! William Tyler and Alexis Palmer have their picture taken to remember the fun they had at the Mardi Gras Ball.

On January 22, 1999, the Balcoala Staff hosted the first Annual Balcoala Bal de Mardi Gras at the Civic Center in Bay Minette. The dance was a great success thanks to all of the students who participated. The Ball began after the grudge basketball game between our Tigers and the Daphne Trojans (The boys and the girls won!) Music was provided by Dusty Harris from The Crown in Mobile. The freshmen made a mark for themselves by winning first place in the Tableau.

Hold Every thing...
 Courtney Grimes, Tara Weekly, and Stephanie Lores take time out to share some senior memories at the Ball.

'Festive Fun... The King, Chris Phillipy, and The Queen, Sara-Kathryn Green, enjoy their spotlight on the dance floor.

Gettin Jiggy- Sean Steans, Tabitha Cole, and Carlos French get down on the dance floor at the Mardi Gras Ball.

Cuttin' a Rug- Stewart Hollingsworth was not alone when he stayed till the end of the dance because he was having so much fun.

Royalty... The Senior Class voted Chris Phillipy and Sara-Kathryn Green King and Queen of the Mardi Gras Ball.

Best Eyes... Bridget Rider dances with her date Jeremiah Weekley, winner of the Senior Standout Awards "Best Eyes"

During Homecoming the French Club helped support the Tigers by decorating a Homecoming truck with un peu d'esprit francais.

Working together works!

Josh Scott, the Student Council, Katie Averitt, Krystal Killcreas, and Claude Boutwell are just a few students who work long after school is over to represent and help make BCHS the best.

We are involved, yeah!

Students at BCHS not only have homework, tests, jobs, and social lives, but some are also very active in the school's organizations. Clubs at BCHS play an important role in setting off each student's own personal identity. Without fundraisers, dances, carnation sales, and both academic and athletic competitions, what would life be like at BCHS?

The end-of-the-year banquet was a bit subdued this year. Ms. Conway and Mr. Duck both retired, leaving us in the hands of a new cafeteria manager and a new principal. We know: Nothing ever stays the same; change is inevitable. Yeah, yeah, yeah... What else could happen? Ms. Scott had that answer. She left us, and for what reason? Have you ever heard of such a thing? Her husband transferred to a new job in Plant City, Florida, AND SHE LEFT WITH HIM??? Ms. Powell got married and left us also. And what's this? Coach Cobb left to follow HIS wife to a new job??? And Just what WAS Mr. Williams thinking of when he transferred to the vocational school? Athletic programs stole Coach Koziol from under our noses- Can you imagine changing school to be a head coach somewhere else??? And, finally , we lost Coach Blanchard to Daphne High. Daphne students will now have to tow that line!!! In all, our losses were tremendous this year. As we have said- The faculty banquet was a bit subdued this year. The one high point of the banquet was that we discovered Elvis Presley to be alive and well in Bay Minette. We know this to be true because he came to our banquet to say goodbye to Ms. Scott! We'll survive, but we never forget our friends

N.H.S.

Reaching The World Thru N.H.S.

The National Honor Society was one of the busiest organizations on campus this year. The carnation and candy gram sales were both very successful fundraisers; this money goes toward scholarships. At convention, the scrapbook took second place, much to the relief of committee members who worked extremely hard to finish it on time. The purpose of NHS is to encourage academic achievement, to develop character, service, and leadership. To live up to these expectations, members must work very hard. Student Learning to live Democratically

Student Council is a club designed to promote democratic living through effective student participation in school affairs. To cooperate with administration and faculty, to create among the students an understanding between faculty and students, to promote a high standard of scholarship, to promote school spirit through pride in the reputation of the school, and an individual responsibility, to enact and enforce regulations which will reflect credit to our school, and to do nothing which does not have the approval and sanction of the faculty and administration of our school---all are goals of this organization.

John Cox served as the 1998-99 Student Council President.

What was your favorite thing about being Key Club President? "Being in a leadership position such as president was a great learning experience."
Sara K. Green

Key Club Motto: I pledge on my honor to uphold the objectives of Key Club International; to build my home, school, and community; to serve my nation and God; to combat all forces which tend to undermine the institutions.

The Key Club is a service club; students are chosen to be members because they are leaders. Key Club members are involved in a variety of projects each year; these projects range from stadium clean-ups to collecting toys for needy children. They do anything and everything to help make BCHS and our world better places.

Students are chosen for membership when they are freshmen. Leaders of their class then, they usually continue to be the leaders as seniors later. After all, it's the Key Club way. Born leaders!

Work of art... Stephanie White and Jennifer Hinote display their colorful and tasty cinnamon rolls for the camera. It's a good thing; had they waited a minute longer they would have been gone.

ACADEMICS

We are all learning, yeah!!!

At BCCHS there are many challenging courses for all the students to pick from that best fit their personalities. From math, science, history, and English to expressing their feelings through art, becoming different people in drama, or being trained and taught discipline and loyalty through R.O.T.C., there is something for everyone! In the end, all of the facts and techniques that we learn at BCCHS will pay off in our futures.

Under Control... Antonio Crook, Zeno Green, and Cleophus French seem to have this experiment under control.

Science in different ways... Science is shown in different ways. Shane Hadley does his fishy experiment in 3D, while Chandra January does a more scaled experiment.

The hardest thing I teach in geometry is geometric mean. - Ms. Still

The worst thing about this year is the new computers!!- Ms. Scott

Math is essential for my future in accounting!

Adding it up! Adding it up! Mathematics

Arithmetic..Math is a difficult subject for some, but it is necessary in everyday life. BCHS offers a variety of math classes ranging from accounting to pre-calculus. Students at BCHS are now required to have at least four math credits before graduating. The School Board knows how important math is for every student's future.

Counting it up...The math teachers at BCHS work hard to ensure that their students fully understand the principles of mathematics and to instill in them the importance of using math in their everyday lives. All students will use what they have learned in their math classes for the rest of their lives.

Science

Learning something new everyday.

The science classes have accomplished many objectives during the '98-'99 school year. The main activities this year were the outdoor learning center and arboretum. Mrs. Reeves' and Ms. Fagan's science classes planted trees and maintained the pond. These two classes have also been involved with the Coastal Cleanup and the GLOBE. Along with these activities the students were involved with the AWS Weather System and completed several technology projects. Not only did they work on technology projects, but they did endangered species projects. These students learned the importance of protecting our environment, and they gained many important skills on how to interact with our universe.

Is earth science a challenging course? Brenton Dorough thinks so!

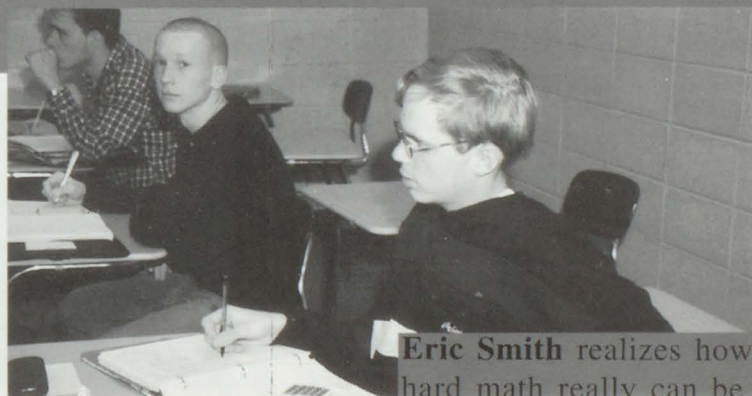

Mary Shariat thinks Mrs. Hayes' stories were the highlights of Prin. of Tech.

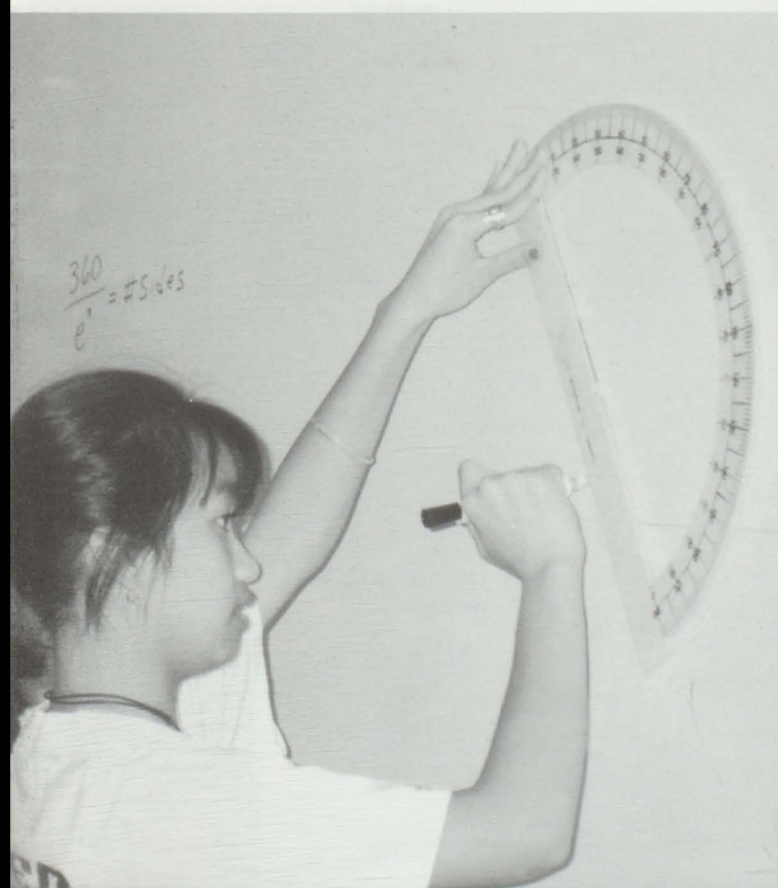

Mario Mims takes a break behind the newly planted tree.

Two minds or one...Christina Lyons seems to believe that Brian Johnson knows absolutely nothing on this experiment.

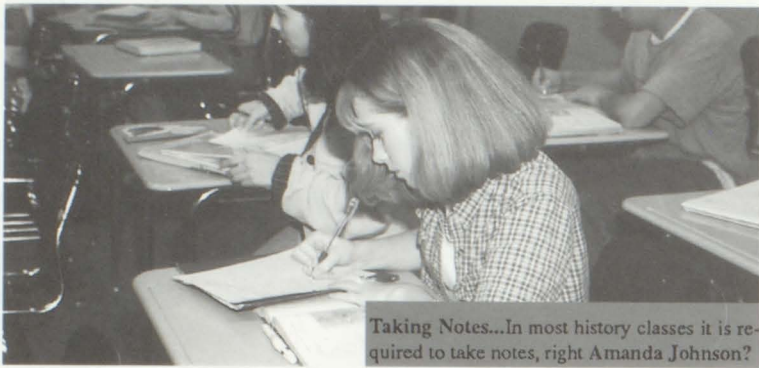

Eric Smith realizes how hard math really can be.

Helping Out... Mary San helps Ms. Still out by putting a homework problem on the board.

Taking Notes...In most history classes it is required to take notes, right Amanda Johnson?

Listening and Learning...I wonder if Katina Killings is actually paying attention in Coach Cobb's class. Eric Viborg decorates the hall with his interpretation of life in the 90's.

Educator

It is a requirement for students at Baldwin County High School to take a Business Education course, better known as Keyboarding. This course teaches students how the working world is in our society of technology. It is essential for students to learn this concept so that they may have prosperous futures. The typewriters are becoming scarce at Baldwin County High School, because computers are becoming a more efficient way of producing anything from everyday homework to difficult research papers. Today at Baldwin County High School all teachers have a computer in their room. The bottom line is that most jobs involve the use of computers; therefore, students learn the principle of keyboarding in the ninth grade.

A Blast from the Past... A Blast from the Social
Past... A Blast from the Past... A Blast from Studies

Students here at Baldwin County High School are required to take a variety of social studies classes from the time of enrollment until graduation. During their 4 years, students will be immersed in Civil War battles, World War II strategies, and recent problems in Kosovo. They will color maps and locate state capitals, and they will report on current events, which they locate in local newspapers.

They will read small print on Mr. Blackmon's board, and they will be mesmerized by Mr. Stewart's war stories. Ms. Robinson and Mr. Beam will teach them to take notes - or else - and Ms. Brogden will teach them the importance of order in our world! Coaches Cobb, Harrelson, and Koziol will catch their interest early on. Social studies is a really important class for many reasons.

Did you learn anything new about Consumer Economics? Yes, I learned about checking and savings accounts.
Charlie Stewart 10th

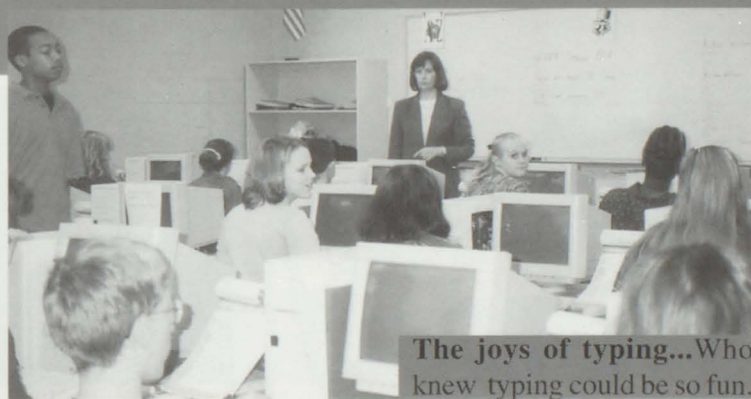

Why do you think history class is important? If we did not study history, we would not know who we are and we would make the same mistakes.
Aaron White 10th

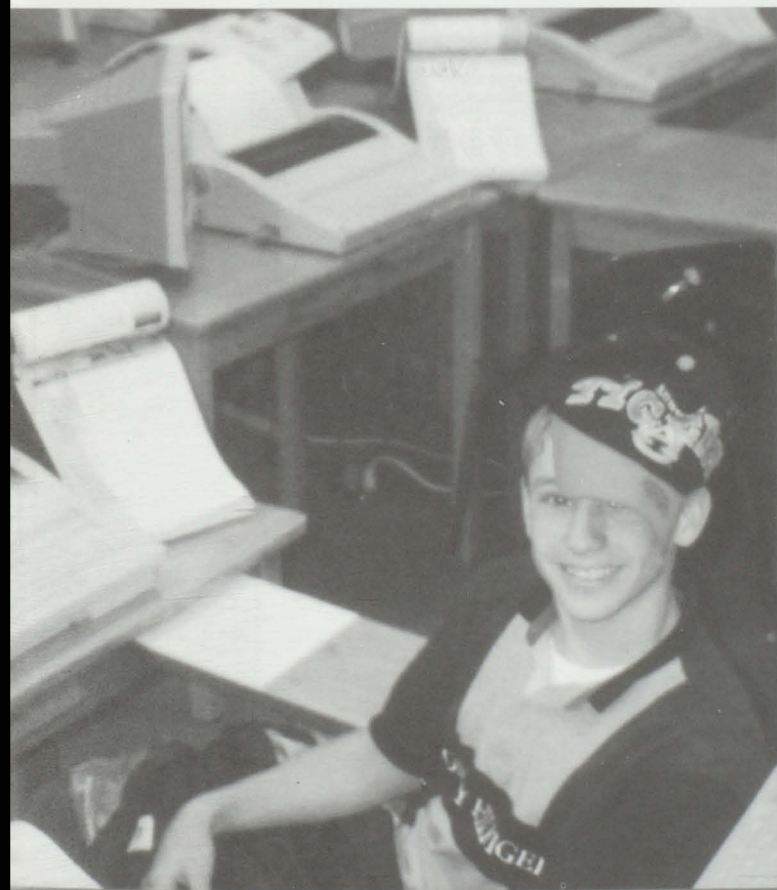

Has Mrs. Robinson lived up to her reputation of being the most feared teacher? Yep, she will make you write notes till your hand falls off. Her class is easy but boring.
Chris Mikul 12th

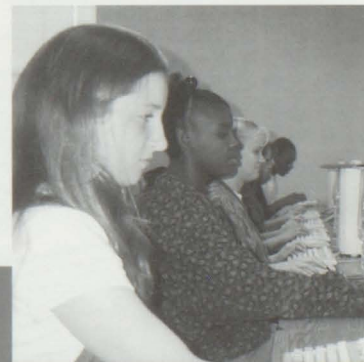

Keeping up with the news...Cassandra Smith seems to be looking for a current event for Mr. Stewart's class.

The joys of typing...Who knew typing could be so fun.

Concentrating is the key...Kinzie Dudgeon, Ashley Crook, and Chad Bryant concentrate hard on hitting the right keys.

Storyteller... Mr Willis's OC class looks on as he reads to the pre-schoolers.

Actor in the presence... Eric Stewart has fun acting out the story being told (top). J.R Holly helps Chuck Kernells find information for his term paper.

Bonjour... French is taught by Catherine Land. Madame Land teaches her students how to speak, read, write, and interpret the French language. Madame Land makes her classes fun by teaching her students French songs and occasionally a French dance. She also allows her students to cook and sample French food.

Ms. Stovall, the Spanish teacher, makes her classes enjoyable by allowing her students to celebrate various Spanish holidays such as Dia de los Muertos and Cinco de Mayo. During these celebrations, the Spanish classes enjoy Spanish cuisine and play Spanish games. Spanish classes also learn about people who live in Spanish speaking countries.

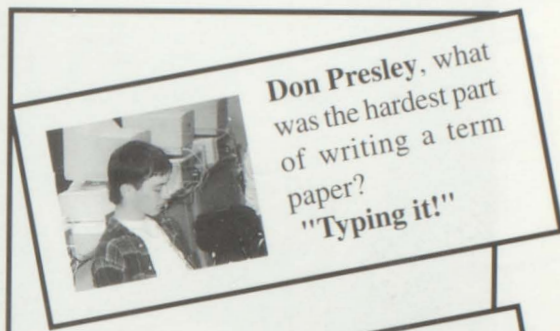

English/OC

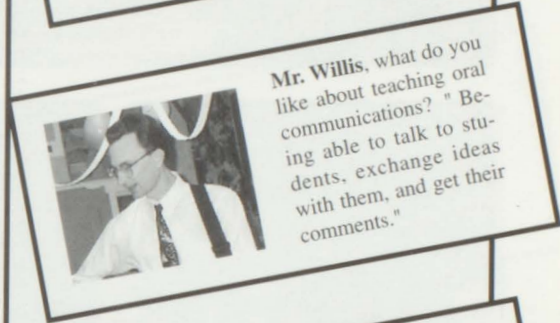

Say It! Read It! Write It! Say It! Read It! Write It!

All students in Baldwin County schools must take four English classes in order to graduate. Besides the regular English classes, however, there are also many electives offered such as The Novel, Tech English, and Creative Writing. Students find themselves immersed in American literature and British literature, in poetry and drama, and in short stories. Shakespeare, Chaucer, Hemingway, and Bronte are just a few of the authors that open the imaginations of the students. And don't forget grammar!

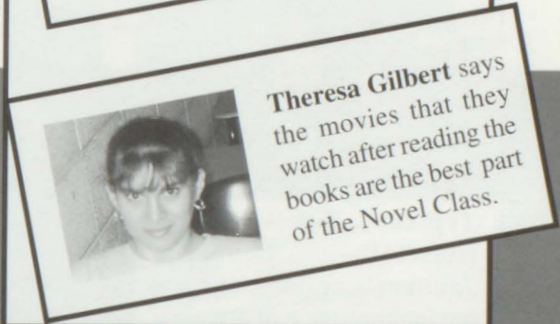

Oral Communications is taught by Ms. Cox and Mr. Willis. OC was once a required course, but now it is only an elective. It is popular because both teachers make the class as much fun as possible. In OC students learn to talk in front of people, they learn how to respect music, and they gain confidence in a way no other class can help them!

Don Presley, what was the hardest part of writing a term paper?
"Typing it!"

Mr. Willis, what do you like about teaching oral communications? "Being able to talk to students, exchange ideas with them, and get their comments."

Theresa Gilbert says the movies that they watch after reading the books are the best part of the Novel Class.

Read, Write, Read... Nichole Long has no trouble whatsoever finishing her term paper.

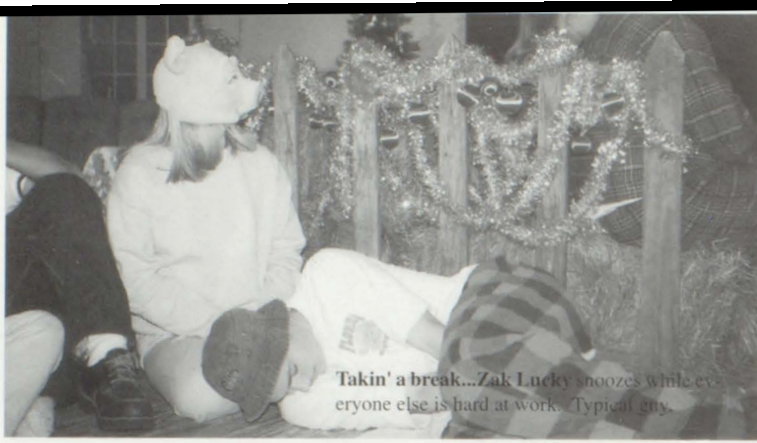

Smile... Jonathan Jones will do anything to add a little fun to Spanish.

TJ Pruitt, Tony Peska, Chris Hastings, Alicia Anglin, Ricki Gilliland, and Kim Cushion

Lokeesha January's costume reflects her interpretation of just what a chicken looks like. Mr. Turpen's class realizes how much work this play will take!

Dana Richerson, who, in your opinion, had the most acting talent in the class?
 Paul Davis, because he could turn himself into any character he wanted to.

Nash Harris, what did you like most about taking drama?
 My favorite part of drama was when we performed our play for the entire school.

Jamin Valverde, is acting as easy as it looks?
 It is not that simple. It is more complex than it appears because of the language and body movement.

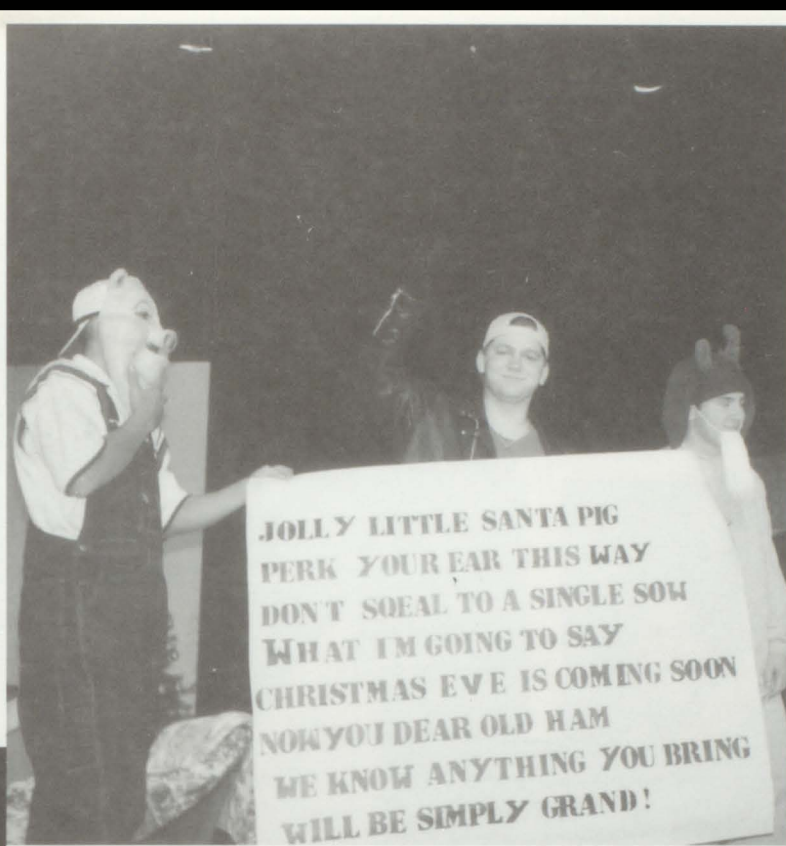

Drama

ee ü ee ü oo ee ü ee ü oo ee

Drama Class is a really popular class here at BCHS. Most of the students choose the class because Mr. Turpen makes it fun. Besides learning to stand confidently in front of an audience, students learn to imitate sounds, sing as a group, and dance. They find out really soon that being shy won't work in this class. Mr. Turpen won't allow it!!!! Ideal conditions would allow both drama classes to perform stage productions. First term students did perform "The Santa Pig," a children's musical about barnyard animals and their Christmas celebration. Second term students didn't get to perform on stage, but they did get plenty of experience in creative role playing. Imagine making an A in a class AND having fun it it! Don't miss this one!!!!

Again??? Mr. Turpen's drama students found the key to perfection to be in repetition, repetition, repetition.

Jamin Valverde, Paul Davis, Dana Richerson, and Tabatha Johnson have their "moos" and "clucks" in tune.

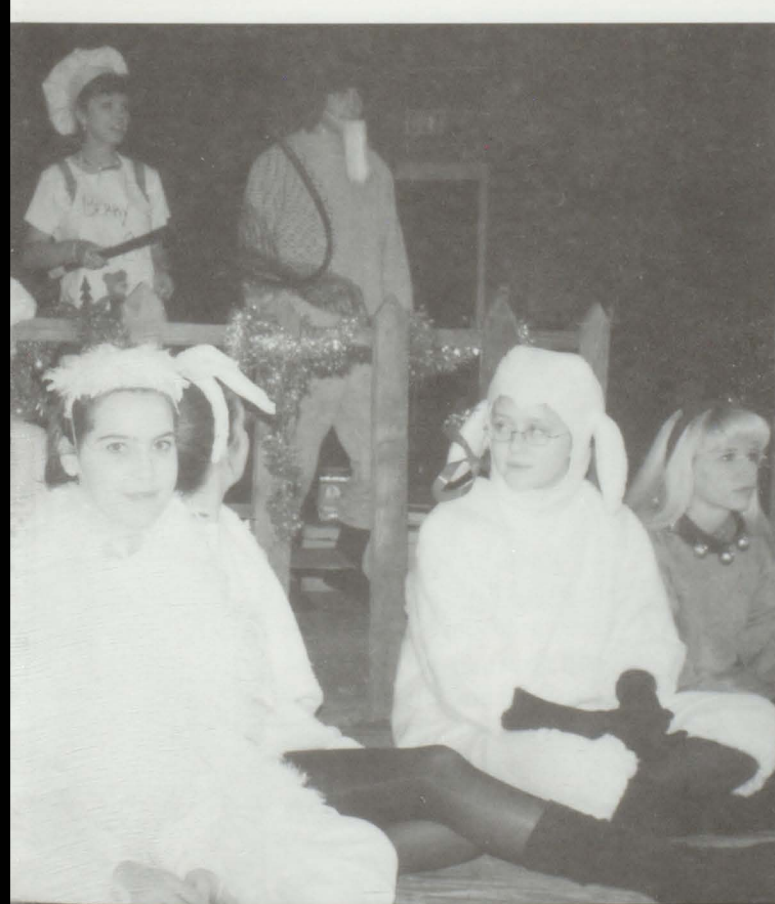

Tabatha Johnson, what activity took the most nerve in this class?
Singing in front of everyone at play practice because we had to sound like animals-not people.

Clint Irby, what was the most difficult aspect of performing a successful play?
Getting together and deciding which play we're going to do.

Dana Penna, who do you think interpreted his/her character best in the play? Why?
Paul Davis, because when he acted, he made it look real and was really into it.

And??? Carolyn Gambrel, Cassie Smith, and Jody Boyington enjoy a little down time on the set.

And a cluck cluck here...

And then...Amber Corley reads "The Night Before Christmas" to Paul Davis who listens intently. Diana Sellers and Jennifer Reid round out the cast of the barnyard critters.

Finishing off the tree.... Miranda Daniel decorates a Christmas tree during Survey of the Arts class.

Katie Averitt, what was the most enjoyable part of art?
 -"Definitely the Mardi Gras milk jug masks!"

Jessica Kersh, what was an embarrassing moment for you in art? "When we were fingerpainting and I put my hands in my back pockets and got paint on my butt!"

Liz Fogelberg, what was the "funnest" project you did this year in art? -"I think I liked the milk jug Mardi Gras masks the most!"

Art

Discover the world around you.

The Art Department did lots of interesting things this year. Everyone drew portraits. Some carved pumpkins, drew in the halls, drew pictures without looking at their papers, learned perspective, painted in tempera, learned to critique a work of art, took a field trip to the U.S. Sports Academy to see its art collection, drew their feelings, painted camouflage in the R.O.T.C. classroom, drew still lifes, drew upside down pictures, mixed 30 colors of paint from just 3 colors....and that was just Art I!

Art II painted in acrylic, learned Chinese brush paintings, did portraits in Russian Sauce, shaded sports drawings by using 6 trillion dots, made 3 foot collages, made huge sculptures out of foam, won state awards for their Disabled Veterans posters, kept a sketchbook, drew full human drawings in 2 minutes, and changed how they will look at art for the rest of their lives. And let's not forget our super student teachers, Mr. Herring and Miss Deavers. The art room is an exciting place to discover the world around.

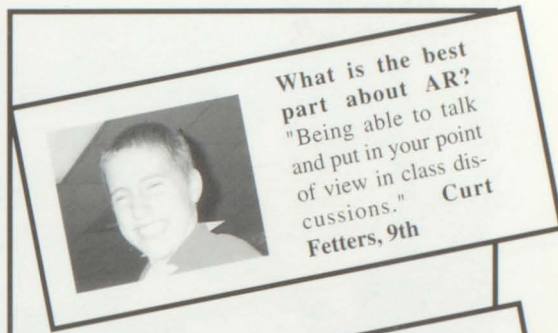

Gifted and Talented. Gifted and Talented.

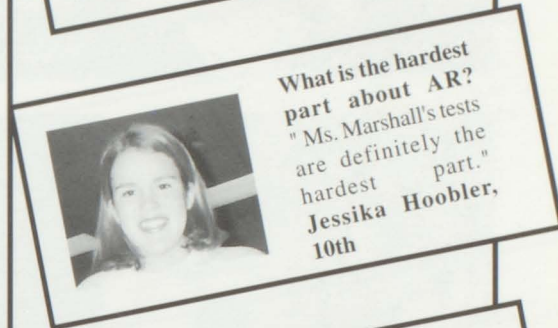

AR

The AR program is a unique opportunity for students to express their talents in an exemplary manner. The AR program at Baldwin County High School worked on several projects during the '98-'99 school year. Each of the classes worked on a Southern Community web page that included the Bay Minette Public Library.

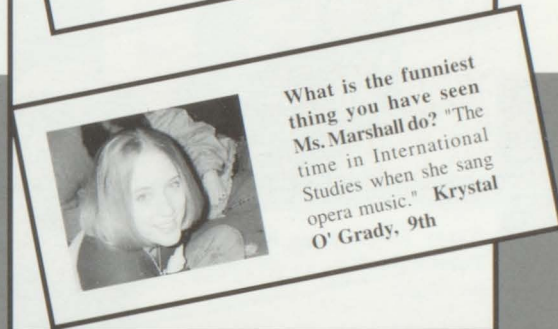

The AR program also put out the annual literary magazine, Written Visions. The annual magazine includes poetry and art work submitted by students at B.C.H.S. Another example of AR's involvement is Model U.N. Students involved in this program roleplay certain countries, debate, and make resolutions on world issues. These are a few of the programs AR is involved in.

What is the best part about AR?
"Being able to talk and put in your point of view in class discussions." Curt Fetters, 9th

What is the hardest part about AR?
"Ms. Marshall's tests are definitely the hardest part." Jessika Hoobler, 10th

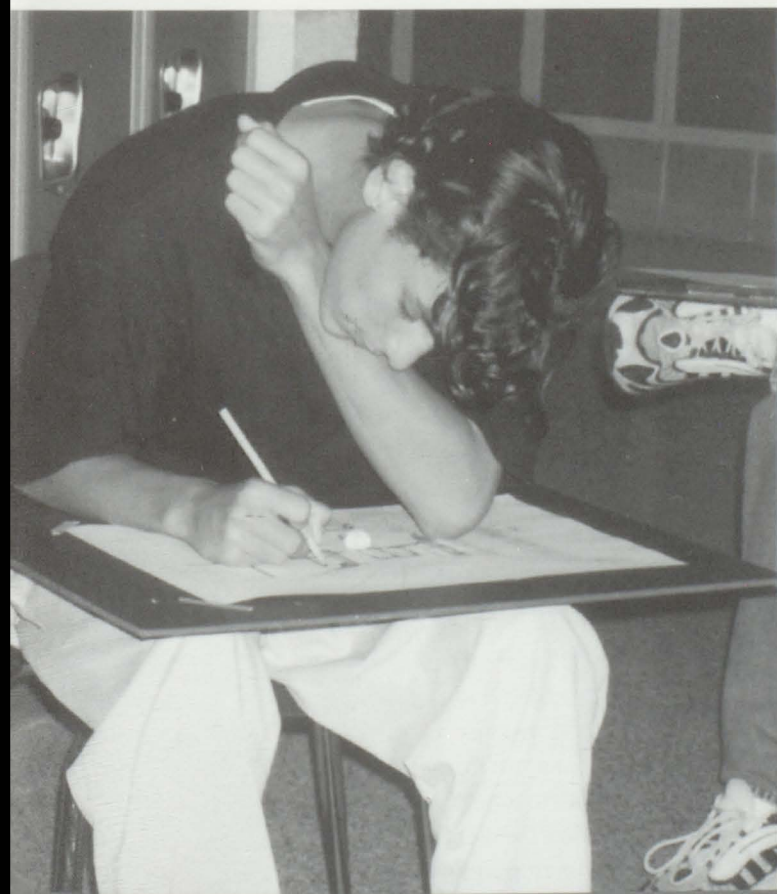

What is the funniest thing you have seen Ms. Marshall do?
"The time in International Studies when she sang opera music." Krystal O'Grady, 9th

Acting like Caesar.... Braden Cox, J.D. Drinkard, and Kami Branum act out a part of Julius Caesar.

Natasha Lawson & Tiffany Roberson sit outside to work in different surroundings.

Tom Shavers, hard at work in the hallway outside the art room, looks as if he's drawing a picture of the school!

Elvis???...Not only does Darin Thompson weld, but he has a knack for art too.

Ricky Duck erases and concentrates on his artwork.

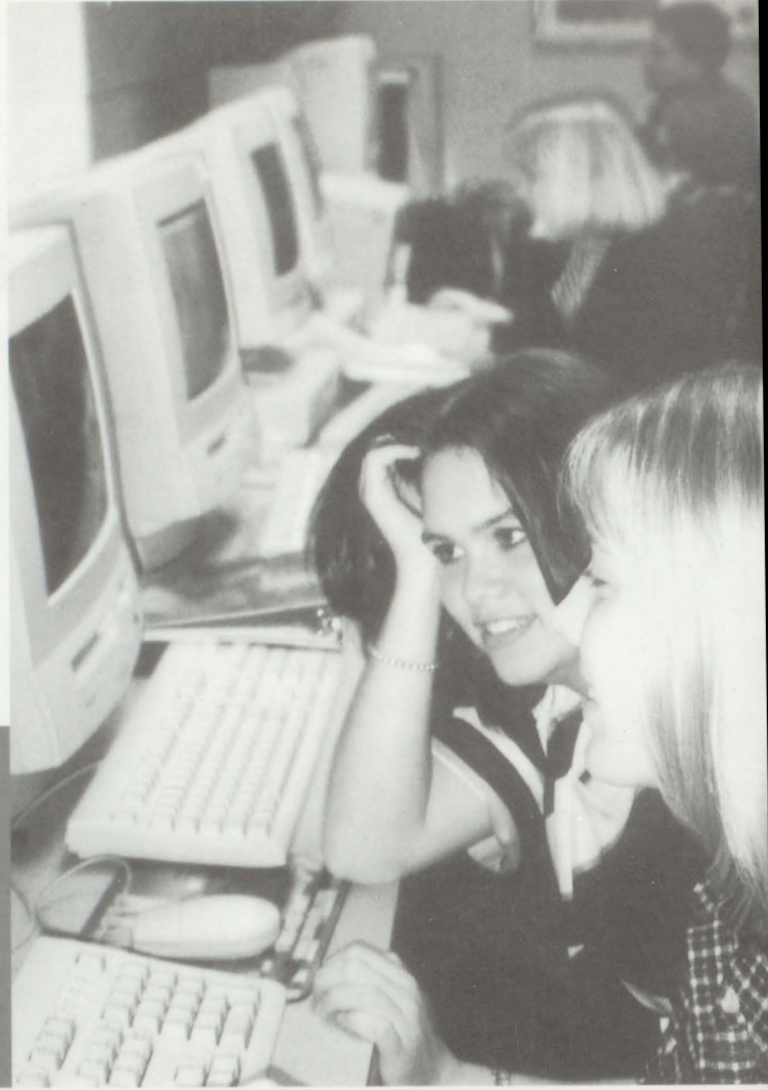

Kelly Godbey, Laura Gee, and Krystal Killcreas couldn't even stop to pose.

Kasey Rolin, Amie Roberts, and Jamie Roberts are too busy to pose for the camera.

Even with help of computers. Sean Steans still seems to prefer thinking for himself... or maybe he's just thinking about a date for this weekend!

"My biggest pet peeve in class is when students come in chewing gum!!"
-Coach Ford

"The funniest thing that happened in weight-training this year is when Daniel Tuberville was chasing Brandon Kernells on his birthday with a belt."
-Josh Johnson

"The hardest excercises in weight training are definitely hack-squats!!"
-Bethaney Sherman

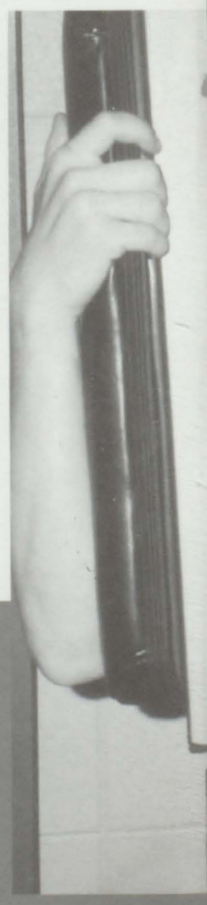

P.E./Weight Training

Gettin' Buff! Gettin' Buff! Gettin' Buff!

Physical education and weight training are two very important aspects of a student's health. With all of the hustle and bustle of student life, one could easily forget to get the exercise needed to stay healthy. In these classes, students obtain a regular schedule of exercise accompanied with fun and discipline.

In p.e., students are able to get fit while playing games and having fun. In weight-training, athletes are able to get more physically prepared for their sport so that they can protect themselves from being injured. Overall, p.e. and weight-training are two classes that are overlooked for their importance, yet they are key elements in student life.

Computer/ T.V. Production

Clickin' around... Clickin' around... Clickin' around...

Computers are not only used for work. Those students lucky enough to have taken a computer class understand that computers can also provide fun and games. Students in this class may get some time to play, but there is still work to be done. Even with the workload, computer still seems to be a highly chosen elective. Students here at BCHS don't seem to mind a little hard work to get to the fun stuff.

Taking pictures, videotaping, and interviewing; these are only a few of the things students take part in while in television production. This is clearly one of the most popular electives at BCHS. Some students even get to enjoy watching their work on Tiger T.V. Television production is and will probably always be a favorite!

"The worst thing about computer is the book work and tests!"
Latoya Baker, 12

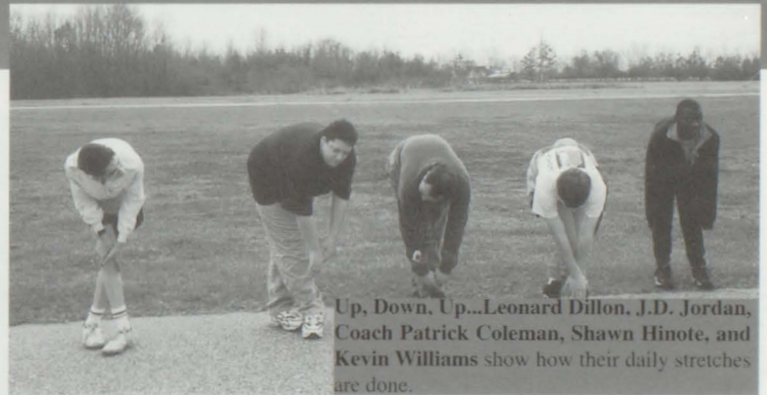

"The most fun thing about computer this year was beating all of those weirdos and wimps at computer fair!"
Braden Cox
Shawn Bartley, 11

"The most fun I've had in television production is when I had to get clips from BCHS in action; then I had to add music to the clips."
Travis Clopton, 12

Braden Cox and Sara Tanner look as if they are trying to have fun while working at the same time.

Up, Down, Up... Leonard Dillon, J.D. Jordan, Coach Patrick Coleman, Shawn Hinote, and Kevin Williams show how their daily stretches are done.

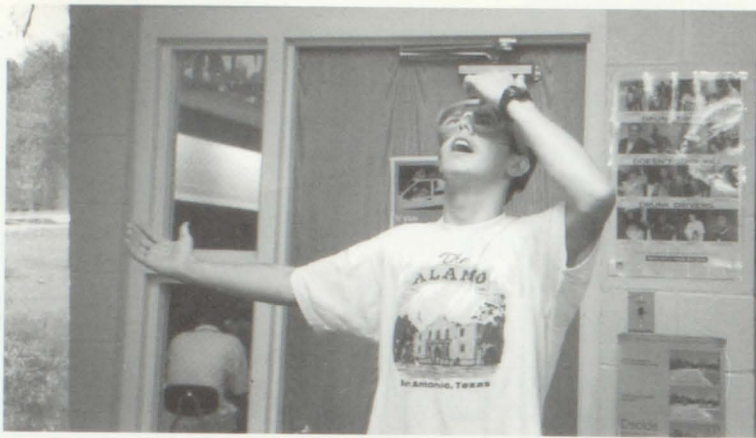

Pump it up... Jamin Valverde flashes a cute smile while working hard to pump up those pees.

Run, Chad, Run!!! Chad Bryant shows off his great soccer skills by dribbling the ball down field.

Work That Body!!! Tim Carroll shows how truly buff he is by pumping some serious iron in weight-training.

Drunk Driving Zone!!! Whoops! This driver displays how a high blood-alcohol level can cause even the most cautious driver to make some bad decisions. It's a good thing those cones weren't small children or a brick wall! Maybe next time he'll think before he drinks and drives.

Don't fall, now... John Lambert reckons with the Fatal Vision Goggles.

"The most interesting thing that I've learned in this class is no matter what someone does, there is always a psychological reason behind it"

Lokeesha January, 12

What do you think would make health a more interesting class? It would be more interesting if the class had more activities to do.

Shunterria Caldwell 10th

"I think this class is very interesting. You learn about your own brain and self and the reasons behind them."

Lori Straughan, 12

Mind & Body Mind & Body Mind

Health & Psychology

& Body Mind & Body Mind &

Psychology is a class that students here at Baldwin County High School take to find out answers to questions about personalities and the reasons behind them. From this class a student learns not only why people act the way they do, but also how our bodies work according to these actions. This class answers more questions than it asks.

Like psychology, health is a major class students take to learn more about the way their body works and how to take care of themselves. Along with functions, the students learn CPR and the Heimleche. These skills, along with other valuable studies on the effects of alcohol and drugs, enable these students to take a more realistic look at life so they can grow into healthy adults.

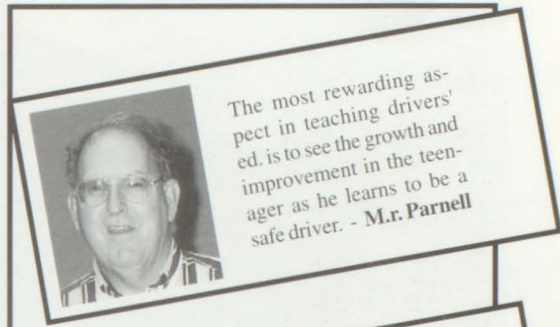

Drivers' Ed

Buckle Up! Buckle Up! Buckle Up!

Drivers' education is a very important class. Filled with more than just driving, it is also filled with life lessons. The teachers try to instill in their students the importance of being introduced to driving; it can be a nerve-racking experience. Students start off in the simulators (which are no easy feat) and work their way through Fatal Vision Goggles, Boating Safety, and finally on into the real world of driving. Either Coach Hill or Mr. Parnell accompanies the students to the car and sets them off on some of their first driving experiences. Although at first scary for some and exciting for others, when students finish drivers' ed., they should all have accomplished the skills they need to be safe drivers.

The most rewarding aspect in teaching drivers' ed. is to see the growth and improvement in the teenager as he learns to be a safe driver. - M.R. Parnell

The scariest thing that happened is almost gettin' hit by a transfer truck!
- Robert Vaughn

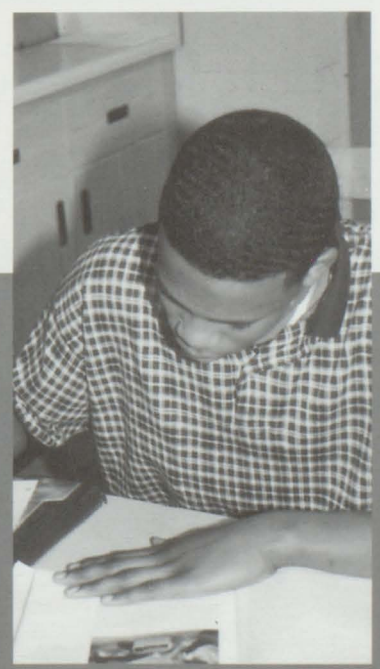

The most valuable lesson I learned in drivers' ed. is not to ride with Teresa Bryars!!!
- Emily Irby

Chin Up!!! Angel Hiatt is learning a technique that could save someone's life. CPR.

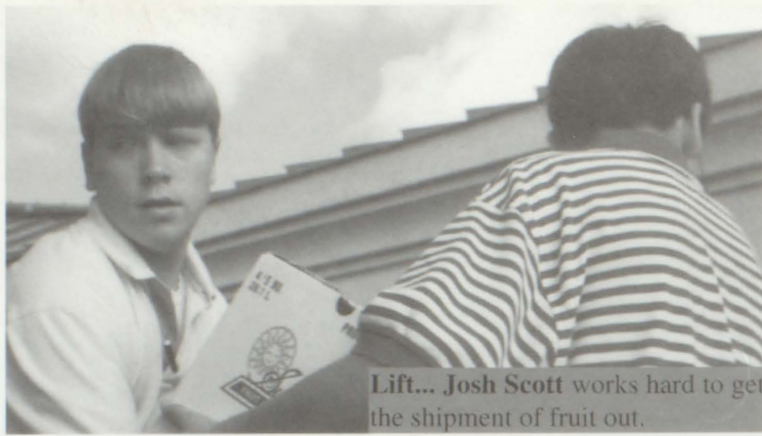

Studying Psychology??? Beth Owens reads about current psychological happenings in the everyday news.

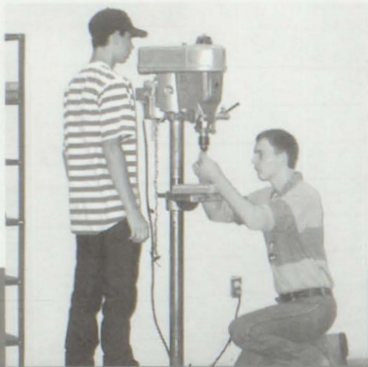

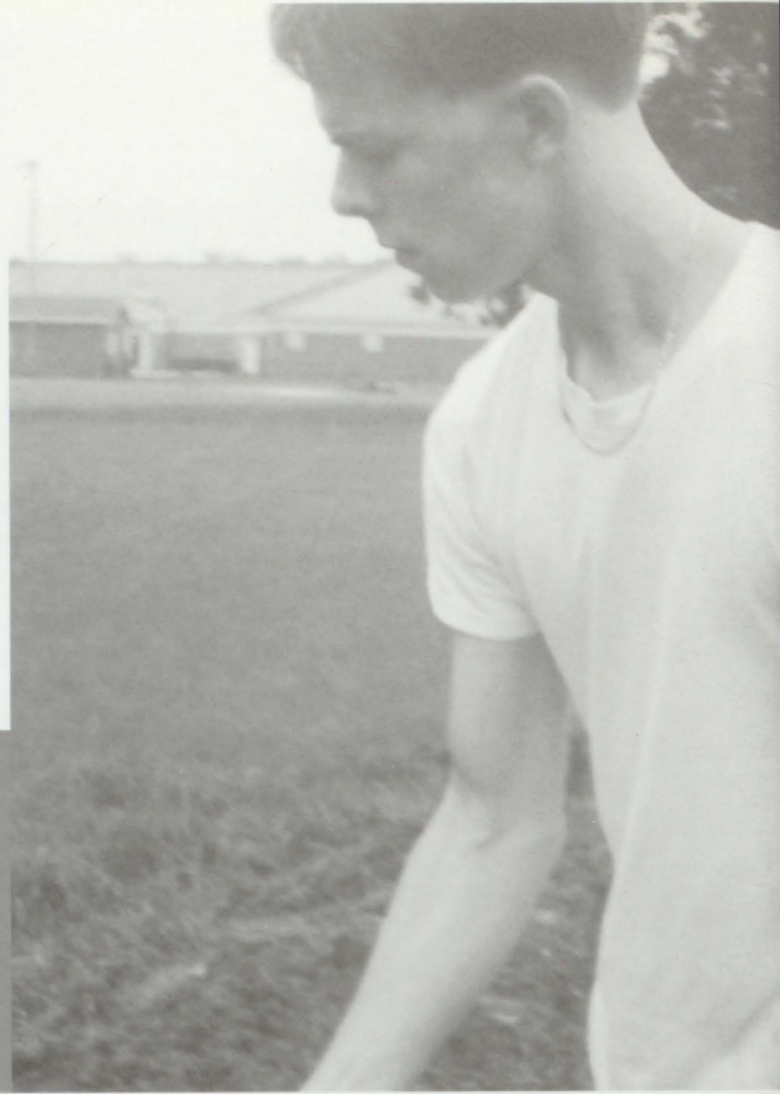

Workin' Hard??? Timothy Prewitt acts as if he is doing his psychology homework. but the truth of whether or not he really is is questionable.

Marcy Hadley is working for that "A" in health.

What did you learn in this class that will be helpful in the future?

"I learned how to cook."

Starla Byrd, 11

Jamie Mitchell believes home ec will teach her many things she can use in the future.

What was the funniest thing that happened in your home ec class?"

Watching Jeremiah Weekley cook!"

Nicole Bryars, 12

Home Ec

pins and needles pins and needles

Many students here at Baldwin County High School love to take home economics. This elective offers a variety of interesting concepts which these students can continue to use in the future. Ms. Carpenter and Ms. Sims instill economical concepts such as cooking and parenting into their classes so that their students will recognize the responsibilities of being adults. Not only is this class rewarding, but it is also fun. Students are able to interact with one another and receive some hands-on experience with things that they normally would not be able to do. Between cooking and sewing, the students go beyond normal abilities to gain a higher understanding of what it means to be adults.

Fruit for sale. Fruit for sale. Fruit for sale.

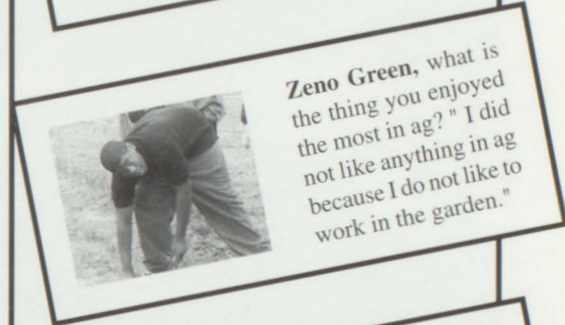

Ag

The philosophy of the Agritechnology Department at Baldwin Co. High School is for providing students with a broad spectrum of challenges and opportunities. This is accomplished by teaching each student a skill or providing him or her with knowledge that will allow him or her to become a productive citizen in the work force. Some of the activities of Ag classes include the annual fall and spring gardens in which the produce is sold to students and teachers at BCBS.

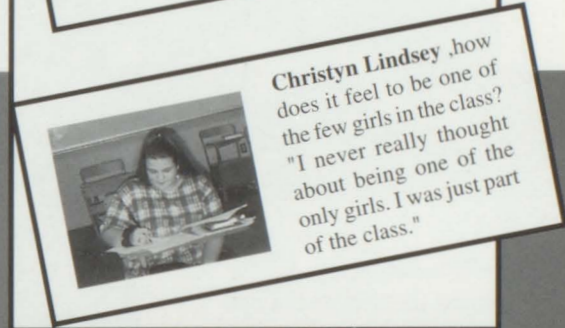

Hoeing around...Jeremiah Weekley works hard to aerate the ground for maxium plant growth.

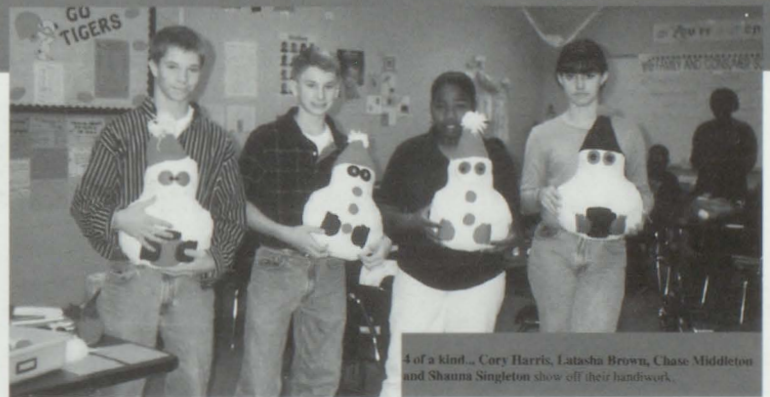

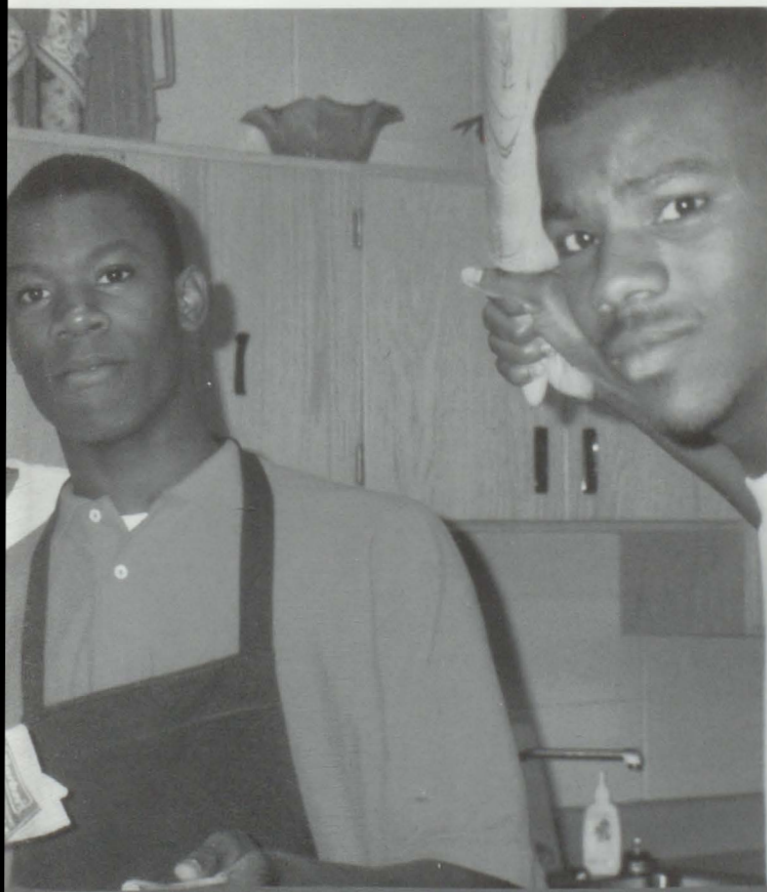

Chris Strom, what did you enjoy the most about Ag? "Working with Mr. Williams in the garden."

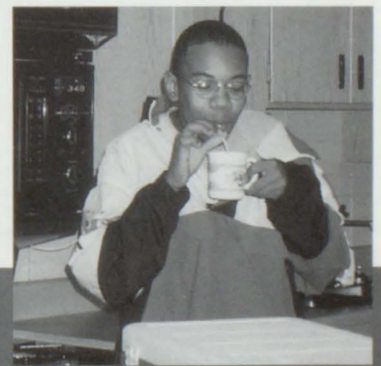

Zeno Green, what is the thing you enjoyed the most in ag? "I did not like anything in ag because I do not like to work in the garden."

Christyn Lindsey ,how does it feel to be one of the few girls in the class? "I never really thought about being one of the only girls. I was just part of the class."

4 of a kind... Cory Harris, Latasha Brown, Chase Middleton and Shauna Singleton show off their handwork.

Hot, Hot, Hot... Emmett Whittle sips his steamy hot drink. Students love home ec., because not only do they learn, but they get to have fun while they do it.

Martha Stewarts??? Marchella Carter , Lorenzo Taylor ,and Labarryon Anderson show their excellent cooking skills.

The BCHS Choirs include the Concert Choir, the Women's Choir, and the Varsity Singers. All of these groups performed in the Fall Concert, Holiday Concert, and "In the Mood: A Swing Show." In addition, all three choirs made superior ratings in all categories at Festival Competitions.

The choirs also participated in several community events. They helped pick up trash on Community Clean-Up Day, as well as performing at nursing homes. The Varsity Singers and Women's Choir performed at Christmas Festival.

ROTC

Reaching High! Reaching High!

ROTC has a major mission to accomplish. The mission is to build better and more productive citizens for America. The class teaches Aerospace Science, First Aid & Survival, and Leadership. There are times in the class that are not so intense. ROTC can be a very laid back class where students speak their minds about political issues as well as economical issues and everyday issues. These are times where students can let down their hair and get to know the other students outside of class where they have time for marching, or walking, or playing various games such as kick ball and flickbee. ROTC can be a lifelong commitment or just a passing interest. It is a class students are guaranteed to have fun in while they are learning!

Working as a Team.. Clint Cole and Jonathan Crook march regularly to maintain discipline and teamwork.

Please Rise for the Presentation of Colors!!! Pam Taylor presents the colors during on of BCHS's pep rallies.

Sports

We're the best, yeah! We're the best, yeah!

Baldwin County High School's athletes had one of their most successful seasons in 1999. The Varsity Football Team began the winning year by becoming the runners up in the Area Championship. The Volleyball Team members also proved themselves by being the runners up in the Area Championship. 1999 became the first year that the Cross Country Team had two complete teams entered into the State Meet in Troy, and the Freshman Football Team became the County Champs.

The Varsity Girls' Basketball Team made their way into the Final Four and also were the Area Champs. The Varsity Baseball Team made it to first round play-offs, and the Softball Team became the runners up in the Area Championship. And last, but not least, the Varsity Girls' Soccer Team mixed grace and strength to climb their way to the Final Four.

Overall, the athletic program at B.C.H.S. has reached new heights this year and is sure to get only better with the years to come. The women and men alike have proven that sports are also a form of art; behind every stride of a foot, swing of a bat, or dunk of a basket lies the heart of a true athlete willing to give his or her all for the game. The Baldwin County Tigers are the best of the best.

When we play, we play for keeps!

Lucy Wade, Kenny Mason, Kelly Godbey, Chiccarra Mims, and Ellery Boykin all believe that hard work and determination are the keys to being one's best.

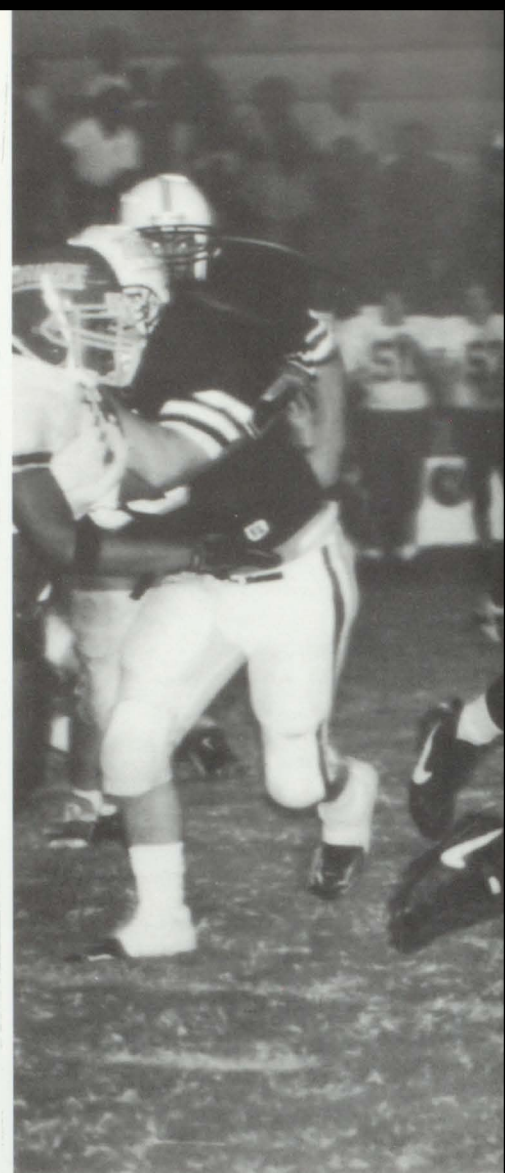

Football

VARSITY

The Tigers had an extremely successful season this year. The players played together to create a team with no limits. Wide receiver Fred Watson was probably the most important player according to fellow teammates; however, he was reinforced by the defensive skills of LaBarryon Anderson, the speed of Sean Steans, and the powerful kick of Arthur Johnson, who scored the most points of the season. All of these players, along with the rest of the Tiger team, create a powerhouse football team that will only get better with time.

Can't Catch Me... Sean Steans runs his heart out, trying to get one of the many touchdowns he made this season.

What was your first thought when you were kissed at the pep rally by your mom?

"Who in the world is kissing me!!"

-Anthony Mix

What gets you all psyched up before the game?

"The Tigers' Marching Band!"

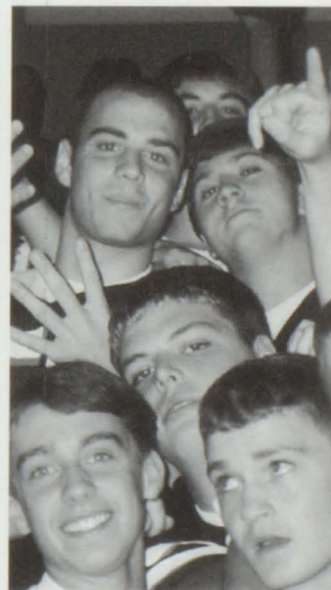

-Jamie Lyles - 12

Pile Up!!! Shun Brown and Darren Killings pile onto a Fairhope team member. This season was full of stomping the competition. The guys showed off their great athletic abilities by playing an awesome defensive line. It all showed off in the end when they went to playoffs!!

Stopped for a loss... Johnathan Crook assists on a big defensive play. Defensive players need to be big and bad. Johnathan is both! His football experience made a difference on our Tigers' team this year!

Fancy foot work... As Kenny Mason scopes out the situation, he plans his next escape. The key to an awesome offensive player is quick, defining footwork. If it were not for Kenny, what would we do!

All 4 one... Our Tigers truly show their pride and loyalty at the pep rally!

Cheerleading

VARSITY

The Varsity Cheerleaders are a vital part of our athletics here at BCBS. They can do it all. They jump, cheer, tumble, and then they do it again. Their spirit seems to be never-ending. Not only do they represent our school well on the field, but also at competition. This summer at the UCA camp in Auburn, they placed in several competitions. They won the title Camp Champs, received 2nd place in chant, and 1st in cheer. And still there is work to be done. They still have pep rallies, fundraisers, and the demanding practices.

Look at that! Lacey Rhames, India Nelson, and Kristen Middleton gaze intently at the action on the field. Or maybe they're just looking at the guys.

Concentrate!!! Kristen Middleton looks like she's concentrating hard. All those band dances can be confusing.!

What is the worst part of cheerleading?

"Having to get to school early on Fridays to sell spirit ribbons!!!"

Chasity Byrd, 11

"I will miss the friendships I've made and the pep rallies!"

-Renee Robertson

As the Senior Captain, what are the things that you will miss most about cheerleading at BCBS?

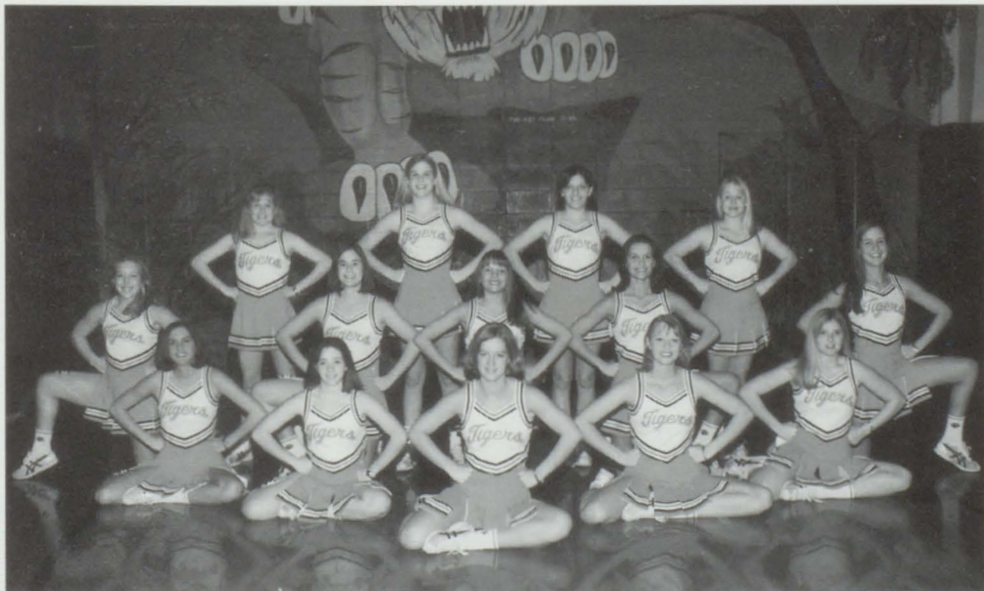

The Varsity Senior Members take time to pose for one last picture. Brooke Stephens, Kelly Bass; co-captain, Renee' Robertson; captain, Ellen Taylor, and co-captain, Kiley Kolb.

All smiles... Jennifer Davidson, Chasity Byrd, and Ellen Taylor show those pearly whites. Apparently, they can still find things to smile about while they're practicing. Hard work doesn't even take their spirit away.

The 1998-99 Varsity Cheerleaders: Renee' Robertson, Kelly Bass, Ellen Taylor, Kiley Kolb, Brooke Stephens, Jennifer Davidson, Chasity Byrd, Katie Loper, Meredith Rhodes, Lacey Rhames, India Nelson, Kristen Middleton, Elizabeth Vick, and Jessica Davison.

What??? Allison Tillery doesn't look too happy. Maybe the suit is making her a little hot.

Girls' Basketball

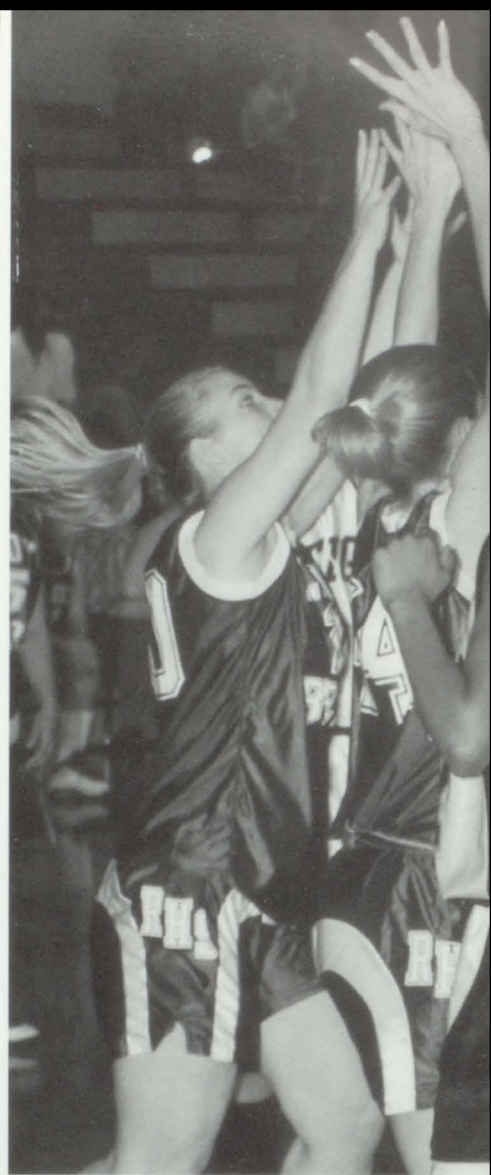

VARSITY

The Lady Tigers are a team made up of a talented group of girls along with a great coach. The team consists of young ladies that are each skilled in their own way. There are ball-handlers, shooters, defenders, and rebounders. Lauren Paul and Angel McCryndle are the ones that get the offense going. Leighann Baker, Wynter Crook, and April Brown are best at rebounding when the team needs it most. Amber Bush and Kelly Hargett can shoot the ball well around the perimeter. Bridget Boykin's and Raquel Steven's job is to play defense like they know how. Eartha White and LaToya Baker are all-round players. These two young ladies can handle the ball, rebound, shoot, and play defense very well. These young ladies did not just grow as a well-constructed team overnight. They were coached by Metta Roberts, who was a talented player herself in high school. She also provides a mother figure for the girls. This is why she was named Coach of the Year for the 98-99 season. The Lady Tigers finished the year 27-5 and won the Area, County, and Regional Championship; they also made an appearance at the Final Four.

Cross

CROSS COUNTRY

Although originally designed to condition athletes for other sports, Cross Country has made its way to become a sport itself. Cross Country requires stamina, strength, speed, and discipline, which can be achieved only through daily training. This year's Cross Country Team acquired these skills through the training of Col. Hank Niedergeses, who was also a runner throughout high school and college. The girls' and boys' teams alike had very prominent seasons finishing well in every race.

Girls: 3rd- Fairhope Meet
 Boys: 3rd- Fairhope Meet
 Girls: 2nd-Biloxi Invitational
 (Kelly G. 1st; Jeni D. 4th)
 Girls: 4th-County Meet
 Boys: 4th- County Meet

* All attended State Competition in Troy.

"This cross country season was a year of firsts at BCHS...first time the ladies ran the 5K, first time for new uniforms, first time to host the county meet, and first time a complete team went to the State Championship. Hopefully, next year we will see more firsts in competition." - Col. Hank Niedergeses

My best memories of C.C. are being with the team after the meets. We are all very close.

VARSTIX

Baseball... Coach Jerry Wright always wanted to be a baseball coach, and he has reached his goal. He has been a teacher and a coach at Baldwin County for ten years. "I have been fortunate to have many, many good players, and the two hundredth and three hundredth wins are just a testament to them," said Coach Wright. The three hundredth win was this season. This year was a good year for Coach Wright and the Tiger baseball players. The final record for the boys was 23-13 in the '99 baseball season.

Girls' Softball

VARSITY

The Girls' Varsity Softball Team had a very exciting season this year. They began the year playing with all their hearts and didn't stop until the last game was played. With the proficient coaching of Metta Roberts, the ladies were able to sharpen their playing skills and defeat the opponent the majority of the time. A combination of great pitching, excellent fielding, and awesome batting enable the ladies to make it all the way to sectionals where they stole 2nd place!!! Overall, the girls worked their way up to the top. Go, Lady Tigers!!!

Playing Hard... Casey Warfield is not going to let anyone take control of the ball away from him.

The 1998-1999 J.V. Boys' Soccer Team was a young team consisting mostly of freshman. The team played the most games ever played in one season by a J.V. team. These boys worked hard to improve last year's 0-9 record. Coach Harrelson was assisted this year by Mike Dincu from Romania.

AUXILIARY

Front: Heather Steele, Jenny Stewart
Middle: Kelley Coats, Emily Wood, Jessica Hastings, Christy Johnson, Brianna Fowler
Back: Emily Wiseman, Carolyn Gambrel, Caron Lynch, Theresa Gilbert, Jamie Smith

The Tigerettes are no strangers to hard work. Starting with UDA Camp, the girls continue through field season--they practice-- they practice--and they practice some more -- enough to bring home superior ratings!!!!

Concentrate... Kelley Coats will tell anyone that streamer routines are simple to watch but difficult to learn.

The Color Guard began its season with almost a whole new squad, but with the help of the four captains, they had a successful year. They competed at the Heart of Dixie Camp and at many other competitions. Congratulations, Guard!!!

Swing it, Baby... Shiloh Gross knows that timing means everything in this routine!

As our short time in high school slips by quickly, and the world around us changes in a blink of an eye, we see ourselves and our fellow classmates change and develop new styles, fashions, and personalities that divide us into unique individuals. With these images implanted in our memories, we will always remember the people and our peers, and time won't change that ever!

We're the ones!

Wendy Martin, Jason McCall, Kim Pierce, Sherry Schoppert, Gemma Fardon, Debra Waldrop, Tim Pruitt, Renotta Evans, Antoine Morrison, Eartha White, Michael Snowden, Alton Pettaway, David Weaver, Brad Merchant, Earlon Adams, Nick Griffin, Michael Clayton are just a few unique individuals at BCHS.

1999 Special Olympics

The Special Olympics were held April 21, 1999. BCHS students participated in a variety of events and games including long jump, track, softball toss, and other challenging games. These games instill self-confidence, sportsmanship, and teamwork into all those students who participate in the Special Olympics.

"The best aspect of the Special Olympics is the benefits our students receive from participating in the events."

Ms. Boyington

"My favorite event of the day was the long jump into the sand."

Leonard Dillon

"My favorite event was the softball toss because we got to see how far the ball would go."

Freshmen

We've only just begun

The Freshman Class is a class of inquisitive young minds who are slowly seeking knowledge. They are the "first" Freshmen Class to win first place in the Homecoming float competition in a "long" time. This is a "great" unified accomplishment on their part! They also performed wonderfully in their tableau at the Mardi Gras Ball. This class is full of energy and ready for new things each day.

Julie Lyles
President

Julie is involved in Key Club. She was a maid on the Homecoming Court, and she was also nominated a Class Favorite at the Balcoala Ball de Mardi Gras. Julie cheers on the J.V. Cheerleading Squad.

Mrs. Howard,
What is one of the most unique qualities of the Freshman Class? This year's class is motivated (unlike past classes) and quite spirited. I have really enjoyed teaching this year's class. They have been very cooperative.

Lost??? Jessica Bryars seems to be a little frustrated when she can't find the right class.

What was your impression of the first day of high school?

April Brown: It was scary!!!

Virginia Stephens: At first it was intimidating, but it really wasn't that bad.

Starla Joiner: I was scared and I didn't know where to go. I really didn't know anyone.

Justin Means: That I was in the last four years of my life before I move on into the big world.

Blaine Smith: Everything was new. It was like starting all over but at a higher level and kind kind of scary.

Sophomores

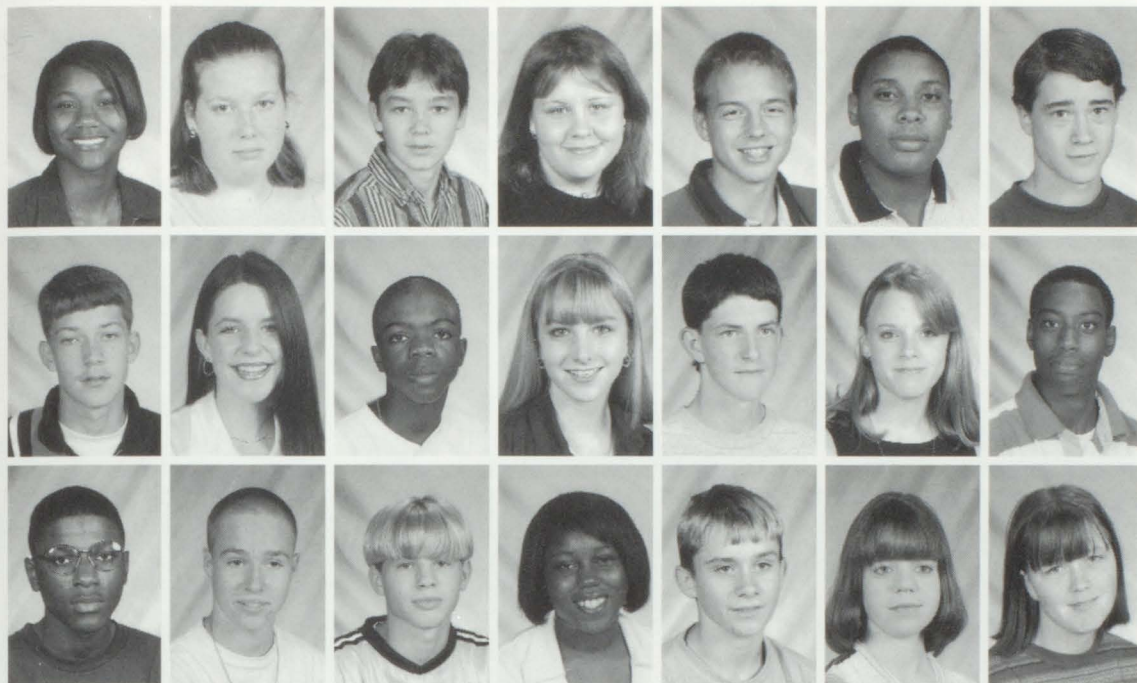

Movin' on up

This year when school started, the sophomores stepped onto campus with a reassuring feeling of familiarity with their surroundings. They are no longer new and in awe of the every-day occurrences in high school life; instead they are right in the heart of them. This class acquired new confidence, recognized their responsibilities, and rose to meet new challenges.

What are some interesting highlights of the Sophomore Class? The majority of the Sophomore Class exhibited a sheer unabandoned joy while participating in the pep rallies. THAT was exhilarating.

All Stuck Up...
Eric Stewart isn't too surprised at his speech assignment in Mr. Willis' class

What is the hardest obstacle that you had to overcome this year?

Breton Wade: Mr. Blackmon's world history class

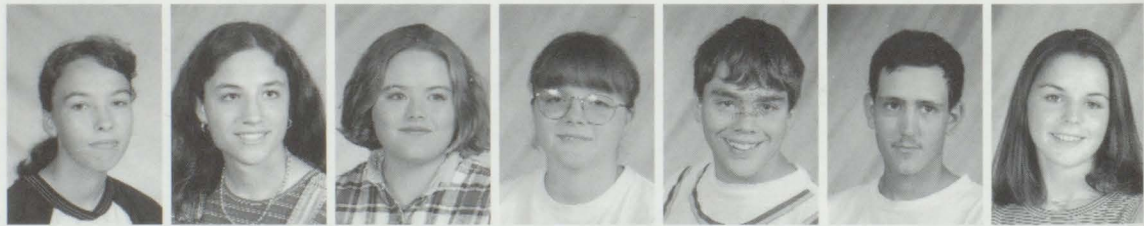

Ayanna Bennett: Overcoming the fear of speaking in front of my peers has been one of the obstacles I have overcome this year.

Raven Smith: I think my hardest thing to overcome this year was Mrs. Clemmons' college prep English 10 class.

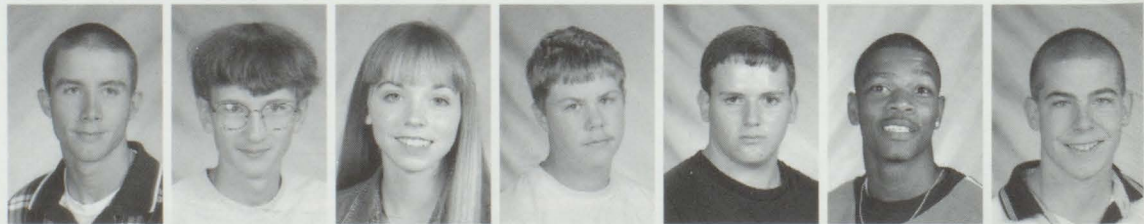

Randy McCall: Whenever a teacher did something that I felt was racist even though she did not make any racial remarks.

Jacquelynn Willie: Juggling soccer and Mrs. Clemmons' CP English class.

Juniors

Almost there

The Junior Class was one of the more involved and spirited classes of the school year. The students in the class share a strong bond which in turn makes every time they come together a complete success. Every pep rally, dress-up day, and class performance was full of excitement, creativity, and all-out fun. The memories of painting faces and cars, making posters for pep rallies, and practicing for the skit at the Mardi Gras Ball will last a lifetime. Overall, the students of the Junior Class made this a year to remember.

Ms. McMillan,
What was the biggest accomplishment of the Junior Class? I need another question!!

Sleepy??? After a hard day of competition, David Owen takes a small break.

Where will your future lead?

Dustin Branum: Right now I'm just wanting to graduate, but one day I'm hoping to make the Pro Rodeo Circuit.

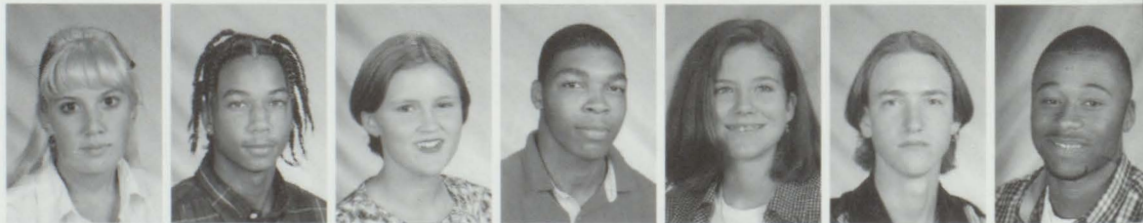

Angela Harrelson: I'll go to college and train to be a Ferrier and start my own horse farm.

Timothy Pruitt: My future will lead me far beyond my imagination. I hope that I will get a degree in computer engineering. I also hope that I will be successful in Drag Racing. Well, I hope that everyone has a future, but no matter how far I go, I'll never forget Benjamin Long.

Heather Tolbert: I am planning to go to college and major in graphic design.

Yolanda Butler: I plan to go to college and become a pediatrician because I love kids!

Togetherness??? Paul Davis and Tabatha Johnson show their family togetherness as brother and sister in the drama production of The Legend of Santa Pig. Many of the seniors participated in making this play a huge success.

Seniors

We rule, yeah! We rule, yeah!

What does the next year have in store for the seniors of '99? Here at Baldwin County High School, students are not only facing the uncertainties of the year 2000, but also their futures. As graduation closes in, the class of 1999 begins to pace itself. Is college in the future? Marriage? Who knows.... No matter what the following century may hold, everyone understands that the best is always saved for last. We ARE the best because we ARE the last!

The Best of Times!

Jean Routon, Eartha White, Chacarra Stevens, Latoya Baker, Alicia McCall, Justin Bishop, Melissa Grimard, Luke Hendrix, and Jamie Lyles are all making every minute count at BCHS.

Prom

Dancin' the night away...

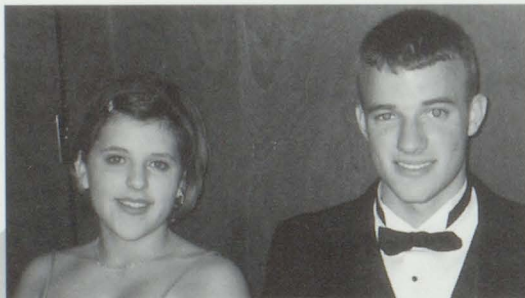

Tasty... Mrs. McMillan, Ms. Bulman, and Mr. Beam try out the delicacies at Prom. Anna Bracken and John Adams show off their great dance moves.

Fun, Fun, Fun... Jaye Robertson, Jenny Stewart, and Quinette Sanders show how much fun Prom night is for all students. Your ride to and from Prom is important. Gary French and Stacy Stevens are riding in style in this fine car.

W h e w . . . Jacqueline Hinote and Dustin Branum take a breather from dancing. You have to keep up your strength to dance all night.

S m i l e . . . Honnea Vines and Willie Cloudas pose for a quick picture. Antonio Cooks and his date strut their way down leadout.

Careful... Brett Morrow helps Courtney Scott down the stairs during leadout. Jeremiah Weekly and Bridgett Rider pose for a picture before the fun-filled night begins.

Dancin' the night away... The students at B.C.H.S. party the night away at one of the most important events of the year.

Senior Week We're all that and more!!! We're all that and more!!! We're all that and more!!!

Howdy Maam...Gary French shows proper "cowboy" etiquette while escorting Anna Lee and Pam Taylor.

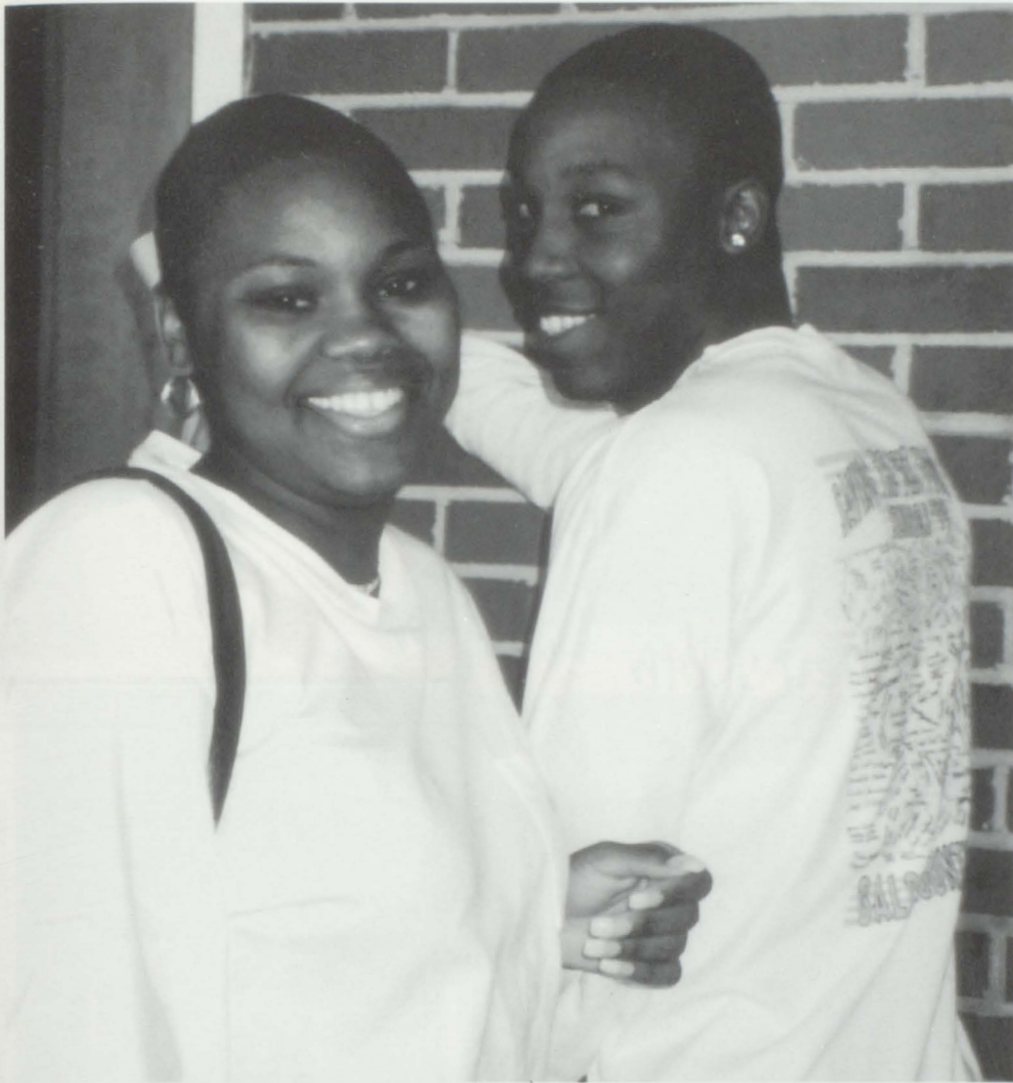

It was worth the wait... There are several advantages of being a senior. Not only do you get free pizza during Senior Week...you also get to leave school early.

Like a sore thumb...Diana Cochran, Amanda Boatwright, and Amy Hilburn. like the rest of the seniors, wore their senior shirts during Senior Week.

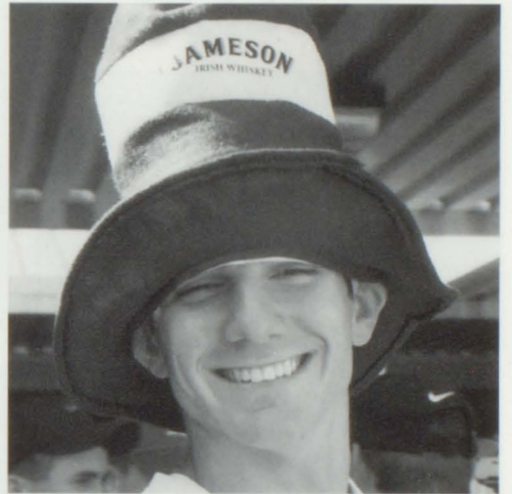

They're Grrreat!!!Amie and Jamie Roberts should be locked up in a zoo instead of celebrating Crazy Dress Up Day.

Bye, guys...On Monday, Antonio Cooks and Erica Broughton wore their senior shirts to let all the underclassmen know that this is their last year.

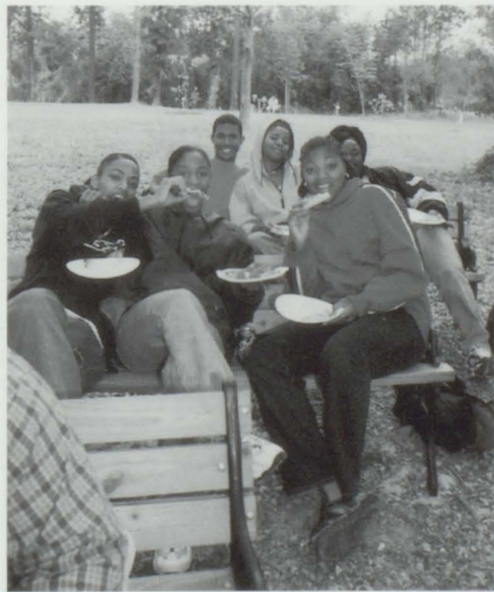

The Cat in the Hat???No, but a pretty good imitation by Jonathan Lindsey on Crazy Hat Day.

Yum, Yum!!! That pizza is good! Heather Locke enjoys a slice of free pizza on Friday during Senior Week.

Two wannabees...Sara Smith and Courtney Scott dress up as Varsity Soccer players on "S" and "T" Day.

All smiles...By the looks on Eartha White, Bridget Boykin, LaToya Baker, Kenny Smith, Leandra Crook, and Traci Lamar's faces, they are very appreciative.

Along with being vice president of her class, Rachael is a member of Key Club and NHS. She is an art editor for Written Visions, and she is a member of the Soccer Team.

*Jennifer Wilson
Secretary*

Jennifer is a member of the Key Club and NHS; she is president of the Spanish Club. Jennifer is also a member of the Varsity Soccer and Volleyball teams. Outside of school, Jennifer is a member of the Stockton Presbyterian Church.

BCHS ALMA MATER

On the southern plains of Dixie
 'Neath the sun-kissed sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater,
 As the years go by.

We work today for our tomorrow,
 Honor and prevail
Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
 Baldwin High we hail.

Cherished be our sons forever,
 Memories sweet shall throng,
Round our hearts, dear Alma Mater
 As we sing this song.

Through the years we've
 Learned to love thee,
 Ever we'll be true,
True as stars that shine above thee,
 Now we sing of you.

SENIOR BREAKFAST

Like Mother, Like Daughter... Rhonda Bryant and her mom could be sisters! They're both pretty gals!!!

Gettin' In's the Problem... Katie Philyaw finds that the wait to get in takes almost as long as eating the breakfast does!!!

Hurry, Hurry, Hurry!!! Brandy Allen, Lori Straughan, and Kelly Wilson know they'd better make memories quickly... School's almost out for them --- FOR-EVER!!!!

Leaving our Mark

Seniors Sign In Seniors Sign In Seniors Sign In Seniors Sign In

Sign those John Hancocks!!! Kasey Rolin and Kelly Bass were just a few of the seniors who returned to school to sign the sidewalk by the gazebo and the pond. The sidewalk is a gift to BCHS from the Class of 1999! Redi Mix graciously donated the cement to the seniors.

This is MY space!!! Justin Bishop, a valedictorian for this year's Senior Class, picks the "perfect" spot for his signature. Who knows? He may bring his grandchildren to this very spot to see his signature one day!!

She waited patiently... Angie Smith realizes that technique is everything. Poking holes works better than drawing lines!!

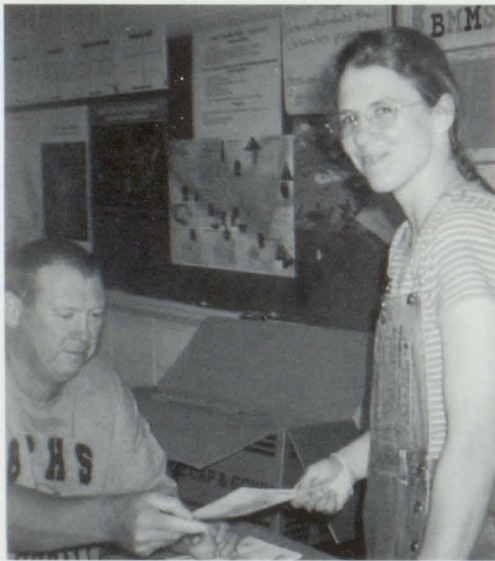

We came back... These seniors are among the handful who returned to sign their signatures. At first the cement was too soupy, so the seniors were told to leave and come back.

Different Strokes... Reginald Gaines and Shawn Smith have their own unique ideas about signing their names. 155

The K's and the W's... Kelly Wilson, Kelvin Williams and Karen Williams spent a year in Ms. Harris' senior homeroom.

Getting Ready... Jeni Denton helps a fellow classmate put on her tattoo before they walk onto the field to say good-bye to BCHS forever!!!

THE DIPLOMA!!! Honnea Vines exchanges her gown for the REAL piece of paper.

Sweatin' like pigs... The sweltering heat of graduation practice takes the "cool" out of anybody, even Sara-Kathryn Green.

Can we get on with the show... These guys wonder whether Mrs. Bulman will ever get finished with the rules, rules, and more graduation rules.

We're ready... Leandra Crook and Traci Lamar have learned everything there is to know to become great successes in life after high school.

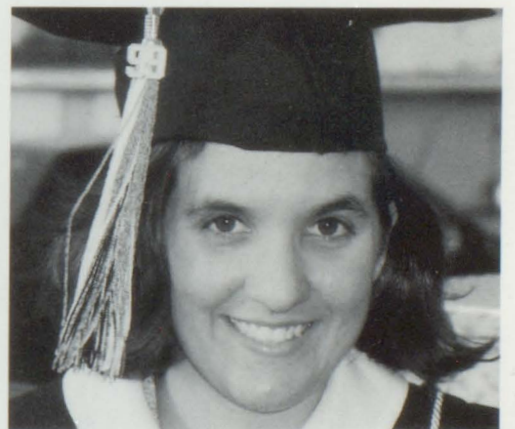

All Smiles... Justin Bishop and Amber Corly, two of the five valedictorians, have spent many hours together in some of the hardest classes BCHS has to offer.

Mary Shariat and Suzanne Hicks both share that senior look. It says, "Ahhh, we're finished!!!"

Before and After... Laura Agerton demonstrates the proper placement of the tassel before and after graduation.

Pose for the photographer... Jim Qwens has the difficult task of organizing the senior group picture.

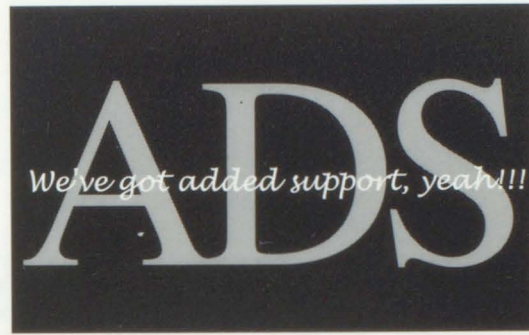

*T h a n k
you...Through the stress of school and work,
Tabitha Davis
still remains ever so polite.*

We've got support!

Lum Weaver, Crystal Allen, Charlotte Smith, A.J. Floyd, Garrin Stewart, Sonny Martin are just some of the students at BCHS who are hard working and dedicated at both the school and on the job.

A lot goes into making a BCHS yearbook such as a dedicated yearbook sponsor and staff, memorable memories, school spirit, time, and a faithful community that supports the BCHS yearbook by buying ads. It is these kind and loyal people who help preserve our our high school memories at BCHS; they'll live on forever as we go our separate ways.

The Civitan Creed

I AM CIVITAN: as old as life, as young as the rainbow, as endless as time.

MY HANDS do the work of the world and reach out in service to others.

MY EARS hear the cry of children and the call throughout the world for peace, guidance, progress and unity.

MY EYES search for others to join in the fellowship and service of Civitan.

MY MOUTH utters the call to daily duty and speaks prayers in every tongue.

MY MIND teaches me respect for law and the flag of my country.

MY HEART beats for every friend, bleeds for every injury to humanity and throbs with joy at every triumph of truth.

MY SOUL knows no fear but its own unworthiness.

MY HOPE is for a better world through Civitan.

MY MOTTO: builders of good citizenship.

MY BELIEF: do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

MY PLEDGE: to practice the Golden Rule and to build upon it a better and nobler citizenship.

TO HAVE A DAUGHTER IS TO KNOW SPECIAL JOY...

Danielle, words are so inadequate when we think about trying to describe the joy you have brought to our lives. You are indeed our "miracle" from God that made our family complete.

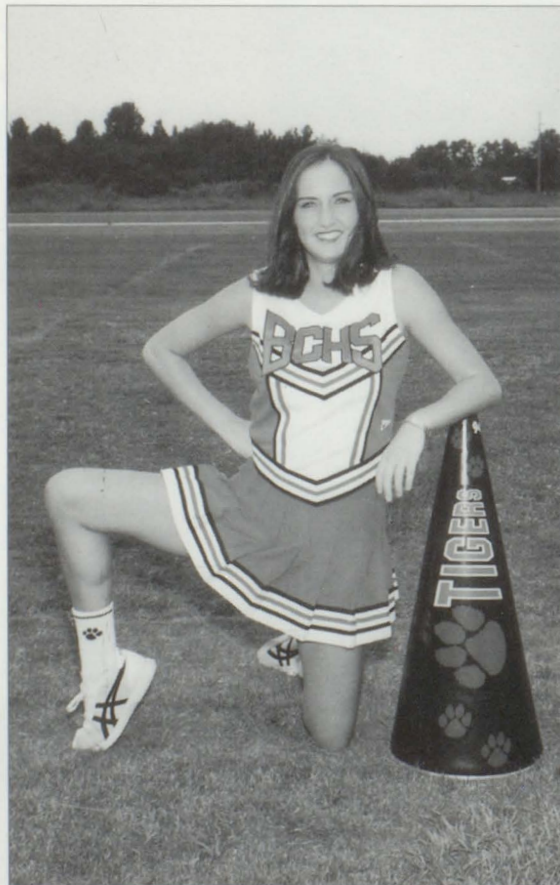

Remember always the values we have sought to instill in you. Above all, remember to seek guidance from God in all aspects of your life and to lean on the promises found in His word.

We are so proud of you and all that you have accomplished during your school years.

Keep up the good work!!!

We love you dearly!!!
Mom & Dad

Sara,

Now that you have completed this chapter of your life, we want to tell you how proud we are of you! We know that you have many more opportunities ahead of you and you will continue to achieve. We want you to be bold; to not be afraid of the unknown; to meet each new experience with joy and anticipation, but, temper your daring and sense of adventure with good judgment and consideration. Graduation -- it's just the beginning.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, and Nicholas

Jamie,

To our special little Doll. There are not enough words to tell you how proud we are of you and your accomplishments. Keep your faith in God and remain true to yourself. When you follow your heart, nothing is impossible.

Haley,

We are so proud of you. You have grown into a beautiful, independent young lady. You have high standards and morals. You’ve made wise choices and are always fair minded. With your determination, you will accomplish anything you strive for. Haley, we pray God will continue to be with you and guide you wherever life leads you.

We love you, baby,
Mom, Dad, and Amber

Kelly,

God gave me an angel. Your father and I were blessed; how could I be so lucky a person? People win the lottery every day, but I have more than money. I have you. I always wanted a child that excelled, and you have gone farther than I have ever dreamed. Always remember, be honest and true to yourself, and I know you will succeed in anything you try. We love you so very much, "Elly May."

Love, Mom, Dad, and Bubba

Among our unique class is a special group of friends. Most of us graduated from pre-school together, and twelve years later, we find ourselves graduating high school. We have lost friends whose families have moved away, but we've made new ones who have joined our small town. Our group has a unique variety of personalities which make us different from most cliques. Although many small clusters of friends comprise our entire group, we can always be found sharing tears or sharing laughs. The special memories we have made throughout our school years will always be held dear... and those memories will carry us through the challenges that may face us in the future and into the new friendships we will make. We will always remember our friends.

Turn the Pages of Life

Open the cover.
 Can you feel the air?
 Can you smell the fragrances of new life?
 Turn the page.
 Did something happen?
 A new page.
 Every page is a new day.
 This chapter-joyous.
 The next chapter-ful of frustration.
 Each page, each chapter-new feelings, new experiences.
 From the birth of page one until the end of the last chapter-a complete person.
 A life, a human soul.
 Do not make sentences short.
 Read the book entirely.
 Write a long novel.
 Take each page like words can be no more.
 Make a best seller.
 Make pages crisp and full.

Amie Roberts,

From the moment you were born, you have been special. Somehow, during all the bo-bos, ball games, horse shows and heartaches, you have kept your smile.

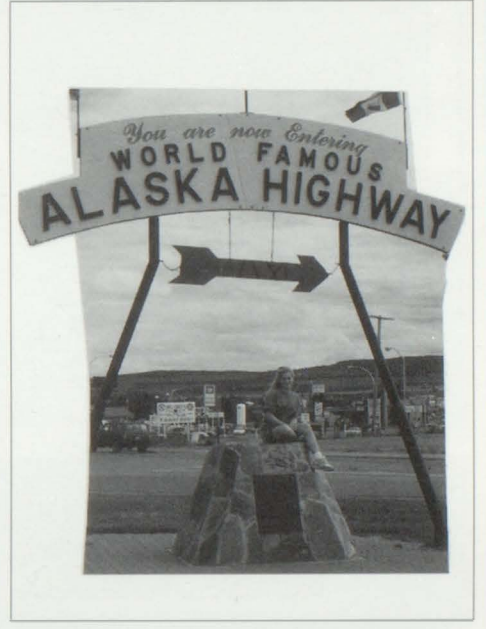

Amie and Jamie, we thank God for you!!!!!!

Jamie Roberts,

We pray you will always keep God first and seek His guidance and you will succeed in life.

We Love you very much and are very proud of you.

Good-bye and Good luck, Mr. Duck!

In July of 1983, Baldwin County High School got a new principal, Mr. Mike Duck, and BCHS knew that it would never be the same. Mr. Duck's gruff voice and rough edges camouflaged the man inside. He made BCHS a show palace - gleaming, sparkling perfection. Taking the time to know his teachers, Mr. Duck proved himself to be a good judge of character; he surrounded himself with talented teachers, which he picked from a pool of plenty. He wasn't afraid to wear a costume in a skit in front of the student body, nor was he afraid to greet them on Halloween with a mask covering his face. Mr. Duck's sense of humor and his love for BCHS helped make our school one of the best in Baldwin County. Our loss is Georgia's gain. We miss you, Mr. Duck, but we wish you happiness in your new endeavor!

We'll miss you.
