It's a Tiger...No, it's

Elizabeth Bridges who shows off her Tiger Pride by trying to look Tiger-like. Charles Watson and Lafarrah Crook are either in someone's yard that has recently been rolled or in the junior hallway on Class Pride Day. Those juniors will stop at nothing to out-do the other classmen. Who knew that toilet paper would come in so handy ?

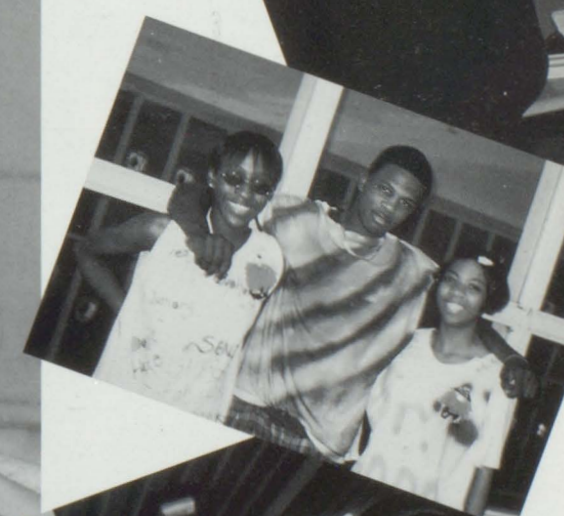

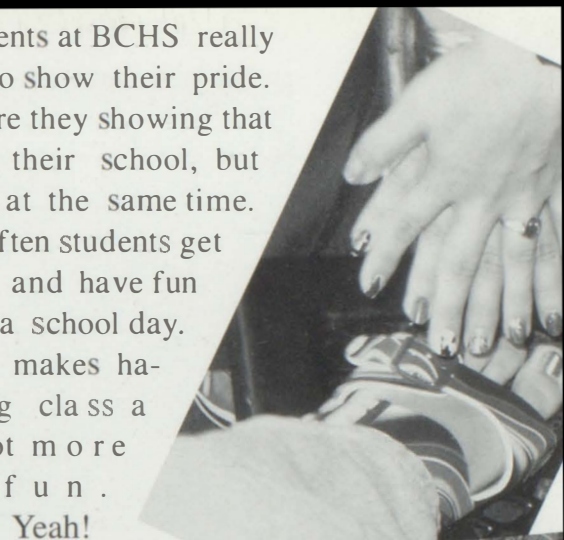

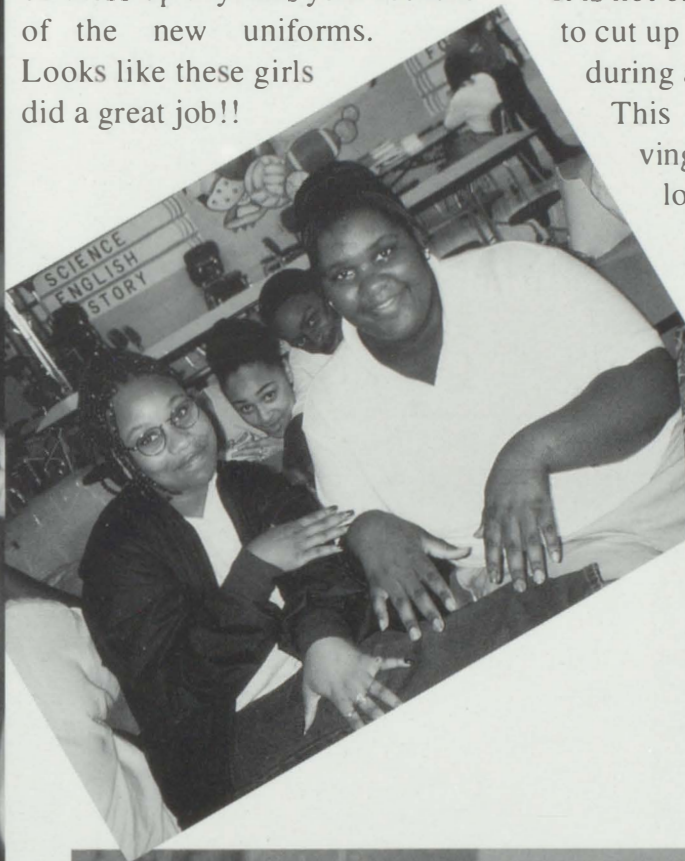

Masterpiece..Cody Day squirms a little, but she's a good sport as Lindsey Davidson displays her artwork on Cody's face.

Plethora of Polish... Stacey Taylor and Shundra Stevens flash their cute smiles to match their gorgeous nails on Crazy Nail Day. Students had to become creative on dress-up days this year because of the new uniforms. Looks like these girls did a great job!!

Some students at BCHS really go all out to show their pride. Not only are they showing that they like their school, but having fun at the same time.

It is not often students get to cut up and have fun during a school day.

This makes having class a lot more fun.
Yeah!

Backwards Day? No, it looks as if Emily Starkey looked in a mirror to put the paint on her face.

One of the most exhilarating moments in a young lady's life is when she hears her name being called out to be a member of her high school's Homecoming Court. Only a lucky few can be chosen for this traditional honor, and this year's group is one of the most special yet. Each is chosen by the popular vote of her peers which makes the honor all the more special. Overall, the young ladies are chosen because they each have sweet dispositions that win the hearts of everyone they meet.

The following students were asked to make a specific expression. After the pictures were taken, they were asked to complete a sentence explaining their expression. Can you figure out which picture matches these sentences?

I am most annoyed when someone constantly taps on my shoulder and they don't need anything.

I am the most shy when Julie Lyles makes fun of my hair. She always makes fun of my hair and I get shy when she does that.

I get the most bored when I'm not talking on my cell phone. Julie Lyles & Kelly Hargett always make fun of me because I live for my cell phone.

I think the most when I'm alone and no one is around to distract me.

I am the most suave when I'm outside working up a sweat with my shovel in the garden.

I am confused the most when I'm awake.

I am the most self-confident when I'm under a lot of pressure and I'm being pushed by the people that mean the most to me.

I am the most scared when I'm leaving a party and I get stopped in a road block (because I've usually done something wrong).

This is the way we come to school...

So early in the morning....

Allan Scarbrough, Tarnesha Hooks, Kevin Brook, Bridgett Hicks, Travis McCryndle, and Mary San model correct uniform choices. Eloy Sanchez is the rebel in the crowd (colored collar).

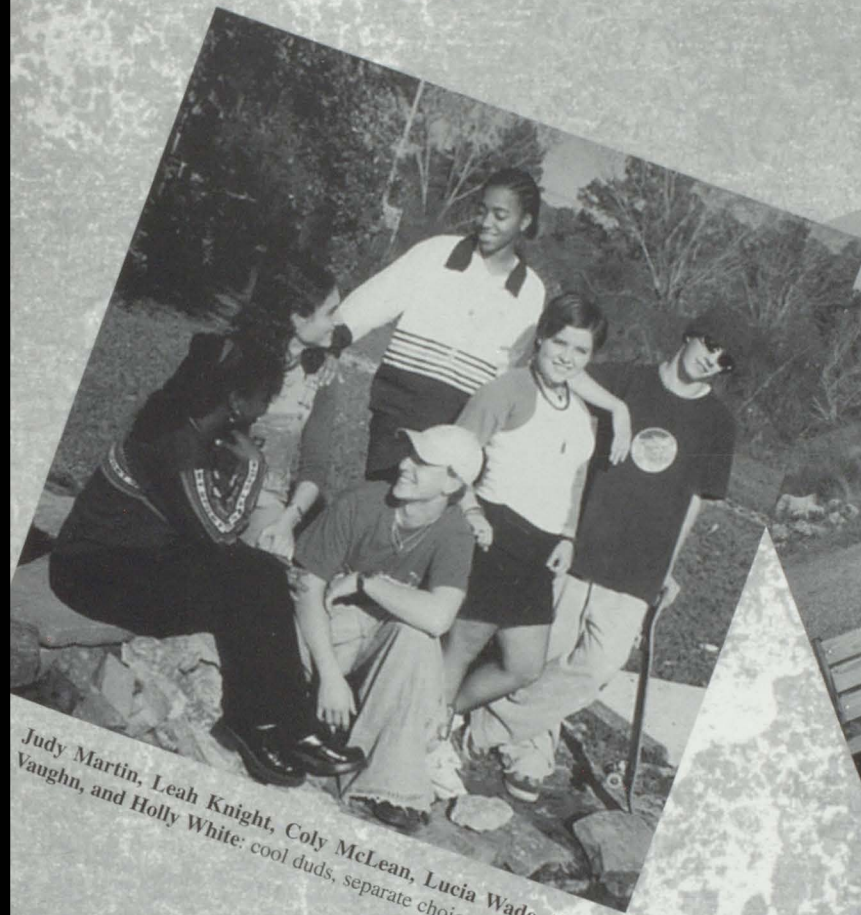

Abel Salazar, Bridgett Crook, Sara Lindsey, Toby Killcrease, Tamesha Ho ton, and Zach Anderson look clean, neat, and groomed in their khaki!!!

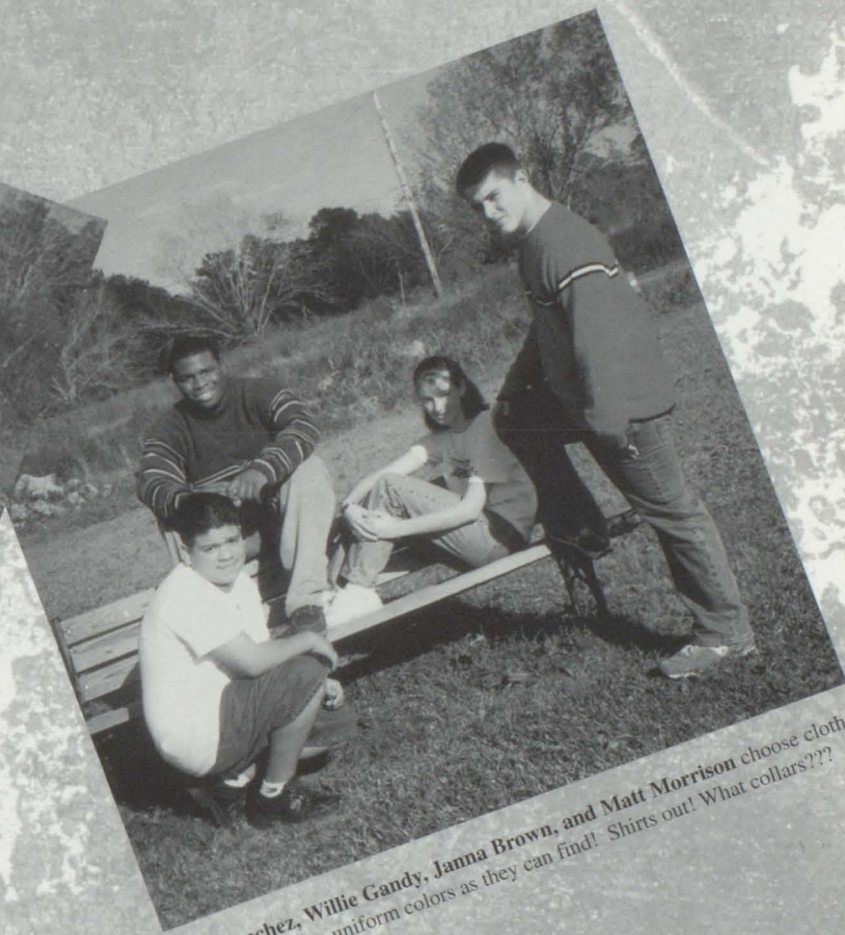

Teachers and students went round and round this year on the subject of uniforms. "Tuck your shirt in, son," could be heard in every hall. Students lined the walls waiting to see Coach Ford about uniform violations. Tennis shoes that were "majority white" became tennis shoes with a tad of white somewhere. Belts? HA! It became a game. Shirts with collars? Students hoped nobody would notice. Sometimes, nobody did. Then came the colorful t-shirts UNDER the white collared shirts. They said, "Why not???" For once, the answer was simply "BECAUSE..." Score? Students 0 & School Board - 1 big win. And don't the kids look grand???

While the students must comply with uniform regulations while they are at school, they may dress as they please when they get home! Guys now balk when they have to dress up in khakis since khakis signify school wear. High school students still love their cargo jeans, their pull-over sweaters, t-shirts; Tommy Hilfiger is still very popular, as are strappy sandals and clunky shoes. Anything that won't fly at school is probably popular at home these days!

Judy Martin, Leah Knight, Coly McLean, Lucia Wade, Robert Vaughn, and Holly White: cool duds, separate choices, individuality!

Jose Sanchez, Willie Gandy, Janna Brown, and Matt Morrison choose clothes as far away from uniform colors as they can find! Shirts out! What collars???

This is the way we dress for fun...

2nd Annual Bal de Mardi Gras

The Balcoala Staff came up with the idea of having a Mardi Gras Ball two years ago, and it became an instant success among students at BCHS. Because students elect a king and a queen, class favorites, and senior standouts, there's more going on than dancing! Each class also participates in the tableau with a pantomime sequence and a banner made by the students. Mardi Gras is a festive holiday, and our students know how to have a good time! Everybody's looking forward to next year's ball because this year's was so much fun!!!!

Present those banners!!! The Senior Class proudly presents their banner - "Grease." Students are given the material, and they must execute their own ideas to make the banner beautiful, ornate, and noisy. After all, Mardi Gras is all those things!!!

Queen Haley... Haley Horn leads the procession honoring Bal de Mardi Gras king, Bobby Baggett, and Haley herself. Seniors elect the king and queen.

YMCA .... Jennifer Davidson and Miranda Daniel sure know the moves for this old favorite. Students were still clamoring around the DJ at 12:00, a testament to how much fun they were having.

And the winners are... Each class elects three girls and three boys as Class Favorites. Those six are the best-liked kids in their grade!!!

"Annie"... The juniors chose "Annie" for their tableau performance. These kids haven't cleaned this much in their whole lives!!!!

"Greased Lightning".... Brent Jones (or should we say Danny) struts his stuff with the rest of the T-bird gang!

Unlike Prom, all students from all grades may attend the Homecoming Dance. It is usually held on campus in the cafeteria immediately following the Homecoming Football Game. A DJ spins CD's until midnight, and students dance until they are exhausted. Rappers got their chance to take center stage this year as the DJ handed over the microphone to Daniel Fleming, Chris Hastings, and Ray Roberts. Daniel and Chris were great; Ray played bashful...

Christmas Spirit... In an attempt to bolster school spirit, Student Council sponsors door competitions among classes. Mrs. Koepp's students KNOW their door will win!!! After all, take a look at Santa's helpers!

Looking Good... Jenny Stewart sports a silly-looking hat, but even then, she looks good. Overseeing ticket sales is just one of her many jobs during the year.

Madame Land makes learning fun. For instance, each year she goes out of her way to make the picnic a super picnic. In class, students learn to make crepes in the food lab as another "tasty" way to learn. Having guest speakers, watching French movies, and playing games are other ways students learn the language. Learning does not have to be boring. Madame Land proves this.

Science is a very important subject here at Baldwin County High School. There are many fields of science available, so there is bound to be something exciting happening. Mr. Hartner's physics and chemistry students are entertained by equations and formulas. Mrs. Denmark's human anatomy and physiology students enjoy stuffing dummies and identifying their muscles. Mrs. Reeves' earth science class designs glasses that give students the vision of a fish. Mrs. Fagan's marine biology students enjoy dissecting sharks and many other animals of the sea. The C.P. and the regular students get to construct and eat edible cells. The physical science students have to have their heads on right to learn the elements. The environmental students study our ecosystem. Mr. Hand's agriculture class enjoys spending time outside by the garden. No matter where one goes, science is everywhere!

SCIENTIFIC REASONING, EVALUATION, RESEARCH, DISSECTION, COMPOUND, OBSERVATION, EQUATIONS, ELEMENTS.....

I can't see... Mrs. Reeves' earth science students are wearing their blue glasses in preparation to play red fish

Although math courses have remained basically standard in past years, the courses have made some important changes. According to Ms. Cassady and Ms. Meggs, math teachers are now basing much of the lower level math courses on the new exit exam. According to Ms. Cassady, "Some students need another year before they are ready to process and learn the algebra skills to pass this exam." Although this transition has affected the math curriculum, Ms. Meggs believes that if the students believe in their potential and work to achieve their goals, they will definitely be successful. Ms. Still knows that we use geometry skills in our everyday lives and stresses this concept in her classes.

Looks real; guess what? It is....Gabe Willis cringes in amazement at these real pig's lungs. They feel like styrofoam.

Ohhh.... So that is how they do it. Tabatha Cole demonstrates one of the many dissections taking place in Ms. Fagan's class.

Check out those biceps... Mrs. Denmark's human anatomy class colors the muscles of the body as a hands-on practice session.

What is your favorite math course? Biology.

THE REVOLUTION, CIVIL WAR, GEOGRAPHY, MARTIN LUTHER KING, VOTING, LEGISLATURE, STATE CAPITALS, WWI, WWII, VIETNAM, APOLLO SPACE MISSION, GOLD RUSH, 1776, FREEDOM.....

History is a very rewarding course as students learn the "who's" and "what's" and "why's" that have influenced the human race for centuries. They take four units of history ranging from geography and map skills to U.S. and world histories. Unwittingly, students gain an appreciation of their heritages through these classes, and at the same time, they hone their note-taking skills, a plus for college later on!

Mr. Blackmon discusses his strategies for teaching history to students in the following interview: "Basically, I feel that history is a subject that, whether one approaches it in a chronological or topical manner, must be taught in similar ways by all teachers. I tend to focus a lot on social ideas and trends, particularly the ones that cause the most change, both current and past, attempting to couple the topics of yesterday with the times of today."
Mr. Alan Blackmon

Hmm....These Section Reviews seem to have Caron Lynch's attention. Work now, play later...

Very Creative....Lauren Geddie, Timothy Pruitt, and Arthur Johnson seem very proud as they show off their beautifully decorated fans from Ms. Robinson's government class.

What was your most memorable social studies class? Mrs. Robinson's AP Government because she used her sense of humor to teach.

-Alfred Ingram

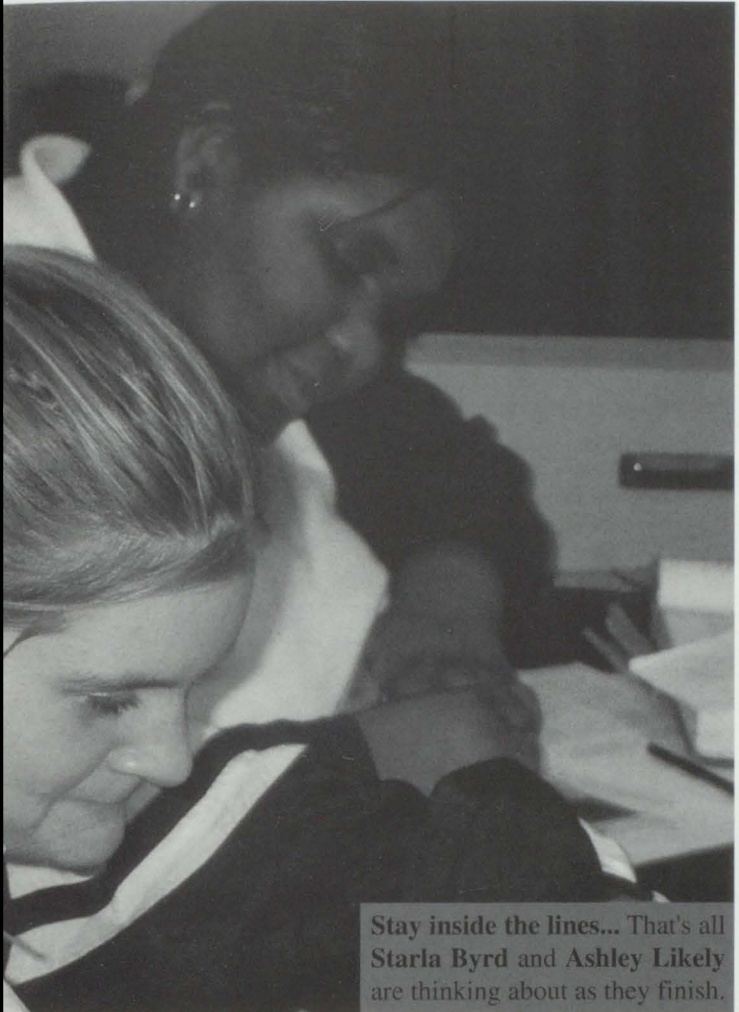

What was the hardest thing you had to do in Mrs. Brogden's class?

Taking her tests was probably the most difficult part of the class.

-Ashley Smith

TYPING, RESUMES, BUSINESS ETIQUETTE, ACCOUNTS PAYABLE, DEBITS, TABS, MARGINS, BUSINESS LETTERS, SPACING, SALUTATIONS, GRAMMAR, PROOFREADING . . . . .

Stay inside the lines... That's all Starla Byrd and Ashley Likely are thinking about as they finish.

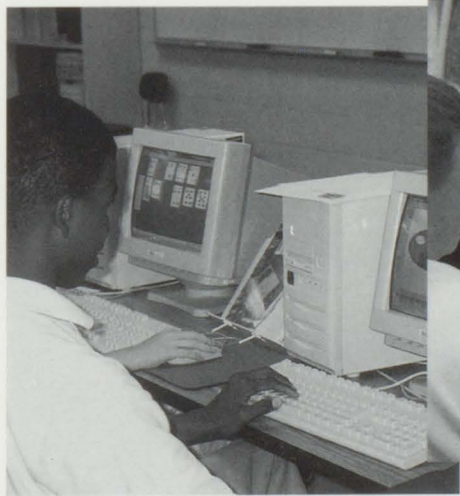

In today's hustle-bustle world, students must be armed with technological skills their parents never even dreamed about. Gone are the bulky typewriters --- replaced almost entirely by computers. Just about every profession today involves a degree of computer skills, and business education classes are here to help prepare students for these challenges. Speed and accuracy? There's a lot more to it these days!

Mrs. Kern, a business education teacher was recently asked what she feels to be the most important aspect of her classes: "I think the most important aspect of my classes is the interaction that I have with my students. It is a wonderful experience to see them gain knowledge and maturity. I enjoy my association with students as they become my children."

Mrs. Irma Kern

Busy, Busy....Billy Sprinkle works very hard to finish his worksheet before the end of class.

What did you learn in typing class?
I learned to type without looking at my hands. That helped my typing speed.
-Joni Thompson

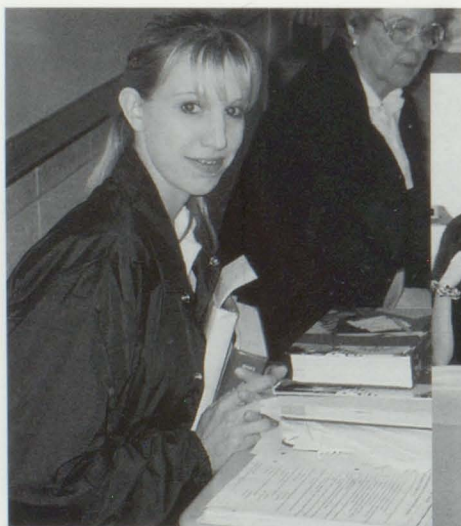

Did you enjoy learning how to type?
Yes. I learned a lot and had fun at the same time. One can't do that in most classes!
-Marquita Lynch

SHAKESPEARE, CHAUCER, HEMINGWAY, MILTON, POE, TWIN, HARTE, BRONTE, SEXTON, SHAKESPEARE, CHAUCER, HEMINGWAY.....

English is a required academic class at BCHS. There is a little something for everyone in these classes ranging from Mrs. Howard's book reports to Mrs. Clemmons' Jane Eyre projects to Mrs. Bulman's Lord of the Flies book discussions to Miss Hankins' grammar drills. Students have numerous opportunities to shine in these classes. Mr. Willis and Mrs. Cox are always ready with interesting assignments in OC, and Mr. Turpen is always ready with HIS viewpoint on any English topic. The upper-classmen have Mrs. Hudson's term paper projects to look forward to and Mrs. Koepf's quotes to learn. Mrs. Caldwell's essays and Mrs. Bradley's notes round out a great department.

Kristin Welborn looks very enthusiastic. Who would believe that English could be this fun!!

Look at me... Apparently Brenna Stephens has had no trouble captivating Brian Stewart, AnnMarieTurpen and Kelly Hargett!

What aspect of your classes is the most fulfilling? I love to hear my students say the first 16 lines of the Canterbury Tales in Middle English dialect. -Ms. Bulman

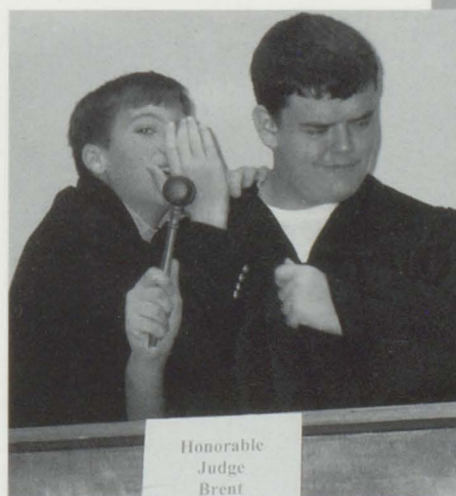

Of all the classes you've taught, what has been your favorite level and class? 12th grade O.C. and my Drama classes -Ms. Hudson

Macbeth, Macbeth, Macbeth... Deloris Johnson, after reading this play word for word, finds answering study questions an easy task. After all Shakespeare's not that difficult, is it???

Down time... Marcus Williams and Erik Vilborg welcome a little bit of free time after working hard (?) for 90 minutes.

The Honorable Judge Brent presiding... Randy Ford pleads before the judge. What crime has he committed? Who knows...

Vroom, Vroom... Jay Patel and Julie Wimberley ride in style in their cardboard taxi. Did they have taxis in Jane Eyre's time??

What is your favorite project to assign to your 10th grade C.P. English class? My favorite project to assign is their Jane Eyre presentation - Ms. Clemmons

What is the hardest grammatical concept to teach to your students? 9th graders have difficulties with pronoun cases and active and passive voices. -Ms. Howard

DEGAS, PICASSO, MONET, MICHELANGELO, VAN GOGH, HOPPER, HUNTER, DA VINCI, RENOIR, DEGAS, PICASSO, MONET.....

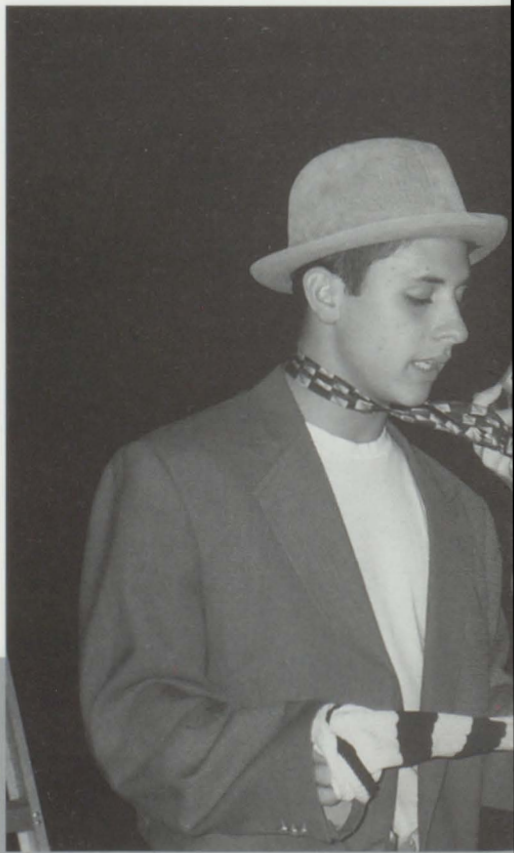

From painting still lifes to creating metal sculptures, art students can be assured of one thing: Mrs. Johnt is here to bring out even the slightest talents her students have. More than one student has admitted that he didn't think he had any art skills but that Mrs. Johnt had found some and fine-tuned them into something he could be proud of. Students are taught to appreciate all art forms in this class. Classmates learn to accept criticism; they begin to "see" art in their everyday experiences. Give a student a camera, and he begins to look "over, under, and in between" to discover new angles for ordinary subjects. Place a calligraphy pen in a student's hand, and watch him create letters people would pay him to draw. It's no surprise then to discover that Mrs. Johnt is the Alabama State Secondary Art Teacher of the Year this year!

Just another day on the farm...
Travis Wilson and Natasha Lawson sit on a bale of hay to create individual masterpieces!!!

Mix and Match... Perry DeFee mixes paints to find the perfect color for his painting. Perry is one student who has beautifully developed his talent as a budding artist.

What will you remember most about Art II class?
That Mrs. Johnt always seemed to like my style.
- Starla Byrd

Which medium do you like best to work with?
I find them all interesting.

GUYS AND DOLLS, WEST SIDE STORY, CATS, PHANTOM OF THE OPERA, HAMLET, OUR TOWN.....

Drama class is one of the most popular classes at BCHS. More students want to take this class than there are spaces for them! Take Mr. Turpen's humorous attitude and multiply it by his desire to give students the confidence to stand in front of others, and we see a teacher who enjoys being here. Drama students start to learn about acting by role playing. They learn to leave their inhibitions and their insecurities at the door; when they later perform on stage, they exhibit new confidence, and some even learn they have talent they never dreamed they had!!! Can work and fun be combined into a successful learning experience? You be the one to decide! Check THIS class out!!!

Almost done... DeShauntel Lewis breathes in fresh air from atop a bale of hay. Creating is easy outside!!!

Finishing touches... Jennifer Davidson adds last minute touches to Arthur Johnson's costume before the performance. Gotta be perfect!!!

Almost ready... Angela Harrelson put on her reindeer costume before going on stage. No stage fright for this gal!!!

Santa's little helpers... Sarae Lambert, Chasity Byrd, and Raleigh LaPlant put plenty of time and effort into the '99 Christmas play.

What part did you play in the Christmas play? I was a news reporter!!!

-Haylee Gordon

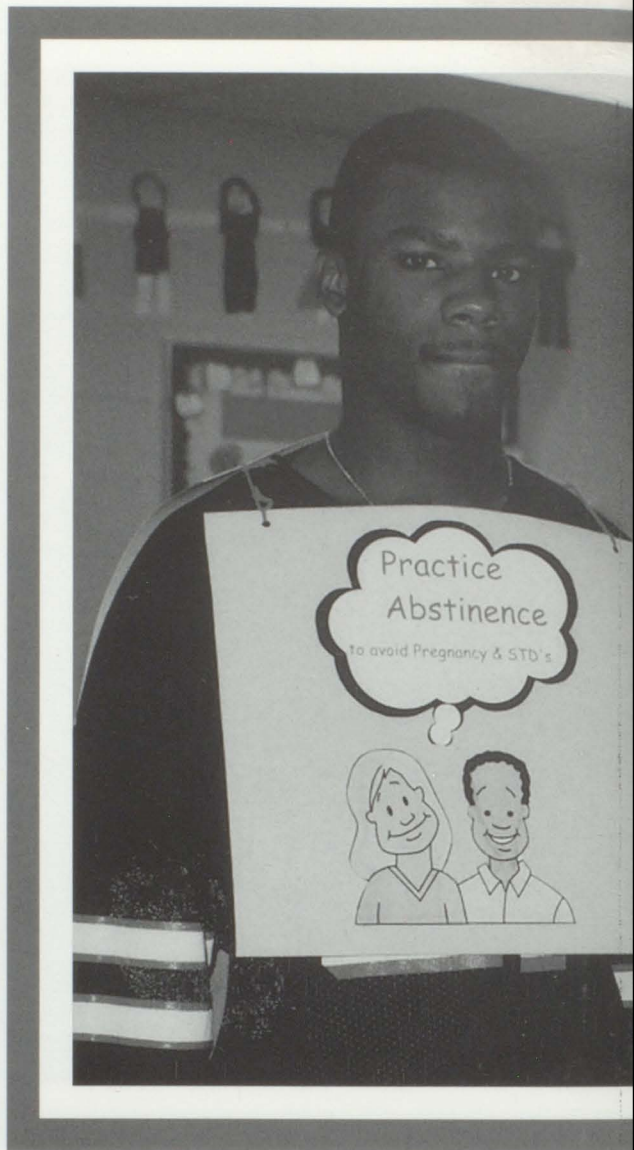

Just how much do you enjoy teaching drama? Hey, I could do this all day every day!

Home Economics is a class that many students take because it's fun. However, there's more to it. From foods and nutrition to child care, from designing house plans to sewing, this class has it all!!! Students may take this class thinking that all they have to do is cook, but when they leave, they are well-informed about life itself. Mrs. Carpenter and Mrs. Sims are patient, caring, and ready to teach those students who want to know more about living in today's world! Part of the allure of this class is that it is almost completely hands-on learning. Students learn to cross stitch, they learn how to care for infants and toddlers, and they learn proper etiquette - all while they're having fun!!! Is there a better class to take???

Slowly and Patiently... Stephanie Paul takes her time to do a good job on her cross stitching project in Mrs. Sims' class.

Master chefs... Shane Hadley and Jonathan Jones don't joke around when it comes to cooking their food.

Do you think your students enjoy cooking in the class? Yes! It's why they take the class!
Mrs. Carpenter

Would you rather be the cook or the clean up man? I would rather clean up any day. Yeah, right!!!

Mr. Hand took over ag. duties for Mr. Williams when Mr. Williams took a position at NBCT. In doing so, he brought fresh ideas to the program. Students in this class learn right off that they WILL work up a sweat because landscape technology is a class that takes place outside. Lucky students get to see daylight, a break from their windowless classrooms and monotonous lectures. This is a class that teaches students to be self-sufficient. They learn how to plant and harvest corn, greens, and other vegetables. They learn how to trim bushes correctly and how to plant and care for lawns they will have one day. Ag is one of BCHS's best-kept secrets!!!

Practicing abstinence is only one thing Lorenzo Taylor and Onree McWilliams are taught in parenting.

Field Trip!!! Mr. Hand takes several students to the Alma Bryant High Aqua Program.

Hard workin'...Mr. Hand and his ag students designed and built the signs used on the field for the 99-00 Homecoming Court.

Future Farmers??? Ag students sure know how to grow some fine looking crops.

What did you learn in ag? That there was more to this class than I thought.

Didn't you always want to know how the daily shows and movies on TV are produced? Well, some students at BCHS are especially interested in TV-production and they are learning some new details about the production and the equipment they work with every day. The TV production students' knowledge is displayed every day on the awesome morning announcements on Tiger TV. Who said Bay Minette isn't high-tech!!!

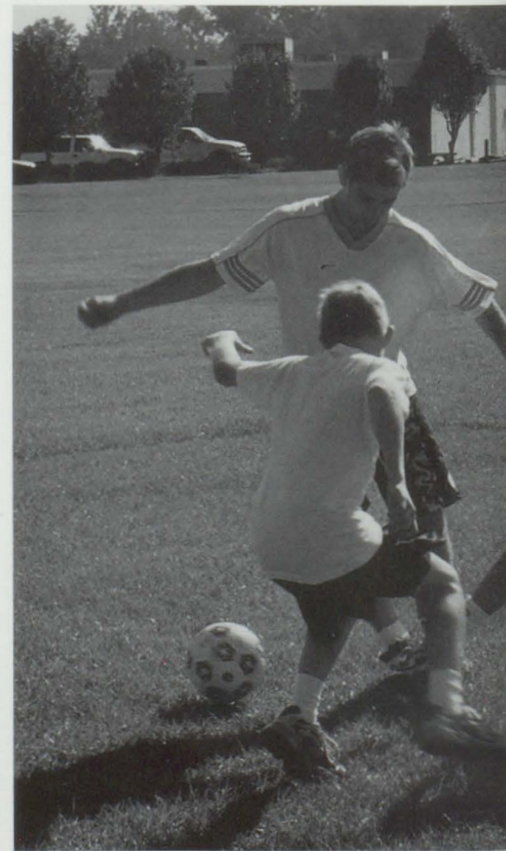

"I love this course because I'm quite free in what I want to do but still learn a lot of things." This is Lucy Wade's answer to why she enjoys Mrs. Wilson's computer class. And really, in a world where internet and other computer knowledge become more and more important every day, this class helps students to build strong foundations for their future studies and jobs!!!

Look at this...Sara Tanner and Dustin Draime discuss one of the many details needed to make TV-production a success.

Gettin' with the program...??? Obie Killcreas looks as if he is understanding this computer stuff fairly well. It really isn't as hard as it looks! Just ask Obie!!!

What do you enjoy the most in your computer class?
Kenny Johnson: Being free, e-mailing my friends whenever I want to, and listening to music

What was the funniest thing you have taped in this TV-class?
Casey White: Videotaping Stewart Hollingsworth coming out of the GIRLS' bathroom!

Workin' Hard, or Hardly Workin'??? Wilton Miller doesn't seem to be straining his brain too much as he sits in computer and listens to music. You can't fool us, Wilton!!!

Chemistry, math, English, economics...the normal schedule of a student at Baldwin County High School. Isn't P.E., in such a day full of "brainwork," the perfect break???

It certainly is, and besides getting fresh air and going out of the classroom, students get to have fun while they become fit. When athletes participate in any sport, weight training is absolutely the best thing they can do to get stronger. It is designed to build muscles and protect them from injury, not to mention that it makes their bodies look great. In many sports weight-training could make the difference between a winning and a losing season, and we only have winners at BCHS, don't we!!!!!!

No, not varsity soccer, but almost as good! Samuel Powell and his friends prove that there are lots of potential pro's in our BCHS P.E. classes.

Am I fast enough? That must be the question Ashley Morrison has in mind as he rounds the base trying to make it "home."

Yeah, you see right... Weight-training is not just for guys but more and more also for ambitious girls like Wynter Crook. Who do you think she wants to impress...???

What did you get out of P.E.?
Timothy Carroll: It was a great period with a lot of free time and lots of chances to socialize with other students!

Is maxing-out very important for you and your ego?
Bobby Baggett: Yes, because maxing-out is a competition between us guys. You know I'm trying to get "swole"!!!

Drivers' education is a great opportunity for students to learn about the road and water. Almost all the students take this class, and it is a good way for everyone to learn to drive. Drivers' education is not just a driving course; it is a chance to learn safety and responsibility for the driver and others.

Health class is a great opportunity for students to learn how to take care of themselves. Health also teaches them how to be able to take care of others in an emergency situation. Students are taught CPR techniques. In today's world, health class is indispensable.

What is this??? Charlie Stewart realizes that there is a major difference between simulators and cars.

Is it my turn yet??? Kesha Brown and Kristy Coleman are waiting for Jessica Jerkins to hurry up and finish her part of the health speech.

Did you do better in simulators or cars? The real thing, "the car".-Jessica Wilson

GIFTED, TALENTED, WRITTEN VISIONS, SOUTHERN CULTURES, INTERNATIONAL STUDIES, INDEPENDENT STUDIES, GIFTED, TALENTED, WRITTEN VISIONS ....

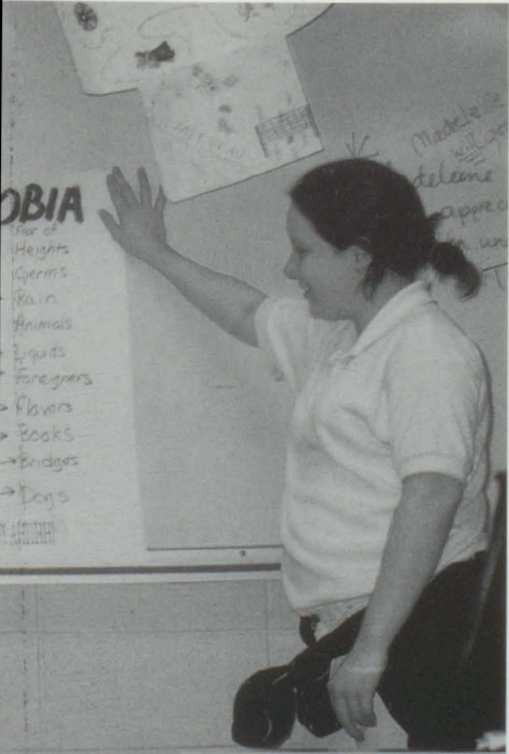

Hmmm... Looks foreign to me!!! Dr. Ed's 1st term 2nd period class is learning the different parts to a motor.

The talented and gifted program offers a variety of electives to our school. Students have unique opportunities to take creative classes and participate in activities that go beyond the regular classroom. A variety of subject areas, such as international studies and southern culture, is available.

This year students have experienced new and exciting avenues of learning. In International Studies I and II students wrote emails to high school students in Cesena, Italy, and met with them "in person" live via computer in teleconferencing.

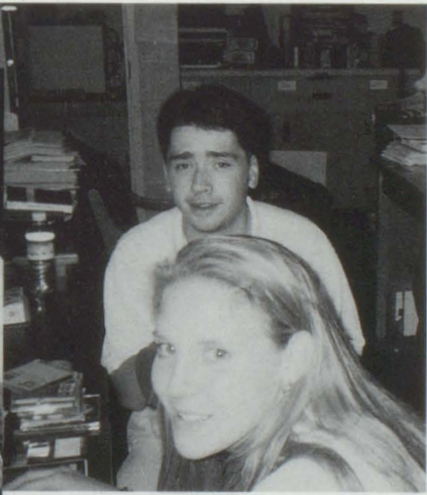

This is the first year international studies has had its own website-http://www.geocities.com/bmarshall\_gyft. The survey of the arts class produced a beautiful literary magazine, Written Visions and their first web site, <http://www.geocities.com/survey-of-art>. The southern culture class created a community web site. Students researched places in the Bay Minette area and created a site to find out about our area. It can be found at http://www.geocities.com/southern\_essence.

Arachnophobia? NO!! Meg Ryan and Bridgett Knowles show us the different kinds of phobias that they discuss in health class.

I've Been Hangin' Around.... International studies groups I & II are taking a time out from AR class to take a quick pic.

Beauty and Brains... Tara Kirchharr takes a quick picture while working hard on a Position Paper.

What was the best thing about Independent Studies? Learning to be able to rely completely on yourself without the help of others.- Linde Jones.

What is the most interesting thing you did in AR? Designing the community website for Southern Culture.- Beth Wade

The choir has had an outstanding year this year. To begin with, they were invited to Carnegie Hall to perform next Thanksgiving. Next, they participated in the Festival of Music in Atlanta. Here, they received three first place trophies and the award for best overall choir. Also, this year, Varsity Singers received the highest rating of any other ensemble at competition. The chorus hosted the first winter dance at BCHS, and last but not least, the choir performed a spring concert, "A Night at the Movies." This outstanding year is all because of the great teaching efforts of Mrs. Atkins. The kids who have been lucky enough to have her know what this means. This is probably the reason she received the Teacher of the Year Award this year.

Santa... No, it's Stewart Hollingsworth playing the part of a drunk uncle in the chorus' annual Christmas concert.

Talent everywhere... Corine Diefenbacher plays the flute at the chorus' Christmas concert.

Hungry... Jennifer Lee helps pack the brown bag lunches the chorus sold this year.

"The best thing about chorus is the trips we take and the friendships we develop."

-Bridgette Hicks, 12

Women in black... Everyone gets the privilege to hear the chorus sing at the NHS inductions each year.

"Oh, say can you see...." The chorus sings the "National Anthem" at NHS Inductions..

Turn, turn, turn... Kim Neno turns the pages for Laura Aaron to read the music notes.

Practice makes perfect... The choir practices for weeks, sometimes months, before their performance.

"Singing in the choir is a refreshing change from Academics" - Laura Aaron, 11

Stress, stress, stress... That's one thing Mrs. Atkins has plenty of!!!

Childcare & Elder Service

Playing with numbers or rather staying a little bit in the back, it really doesn't matter. Jennifer French, Ashley Gill, and Joanie Stacey take care of every kid's needs and help him wherever they can.

Everything back in order...? After all the little ones have left, it is part of Katherine Stephen s's, Laura Buckner's, and Kaylanda Grace's daily routine to clean up the whole mess to talk about all the good and bad happenings of the day.

Yeah, you see right! Child care at the trade school is not just a day full of fun but also one of hard work with creative learning games. Erica McCall, Melody White, and Jonie Hadley try every day to prepare their kids one step further for their future school years.

What makes the work with little kids so exciting? Nichole Perry: To see the look on their faces when they learn something new.

Relax, let go, and join the game!!! That is Jennifer French's, Emma Philyaw's, Cassandra Gaines', Ashley Gill's, and Tiffany Cox's attitude when they enjoy the games played with all their kids! Isn't it fun to be around all these children??

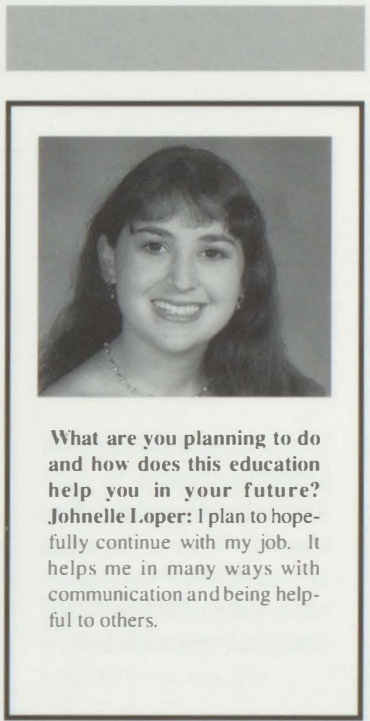

They're everywhere!!!Everybody in Ms. Julia Bryant's AM Child Care & Elder Services class poses for a big group picture with all the kids they take care of.

Business Education, Computer Electronics, & Landscape Technology

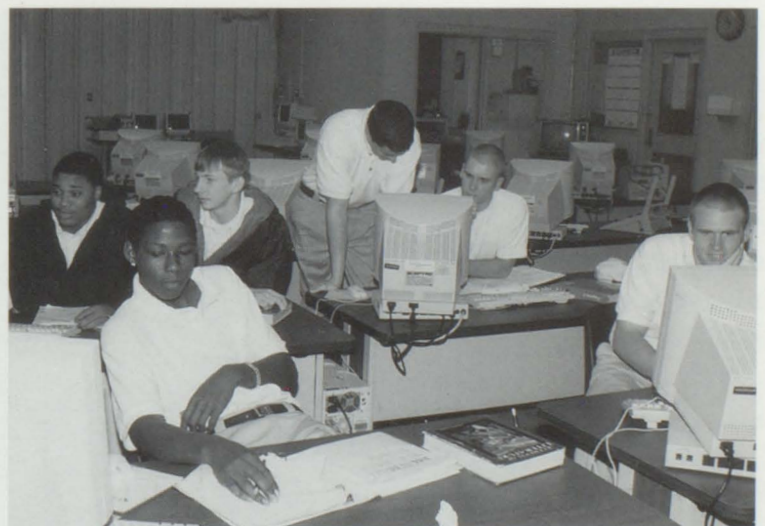

Jody Boyington sorts fund-raising items for the B.E. co-op program. Students raised money for an Employer Appreciation Luncheon.

Taking care of your plants as if they were was your children?? Well, maybe not that much, but Nathan Gallaway, Jimmy Green, and Travis Wilson.....sure care a whole lot about their plants' "well-being."

Do you see the hard work that was put into those plants? Brian Lyman poses proudly with "his" plants for the yearbook camera. Isn't it great to see the success of your care?

What are you planning to do and how does this education help you in your future?
Johnelle Loper: I plan to hopefully continue with my job. It helps me in many ways with communication and being helpful to others.

Girls in a landscape technology class??? But of course! Especially in today's world there are more and more young women like Cassandra Johnson and Angela James who enjoy working around plants, yards, or gardens!

Interested, into it,...bored??? Rashard Bolden, Gabriel Ankum, Derrick Todd, Ray Roberts, Chris Guy, and Robert Jones are on separate tasks, but they still have one thing in common: They're preparing for their futures with the skills they are learning.

Healthcare Technology

After a hard day of school, Jonathan Crook, Stacy Brown, Jessica Paul, and Haley Hadley still find the energy to pose proudly for the yearbook camera.

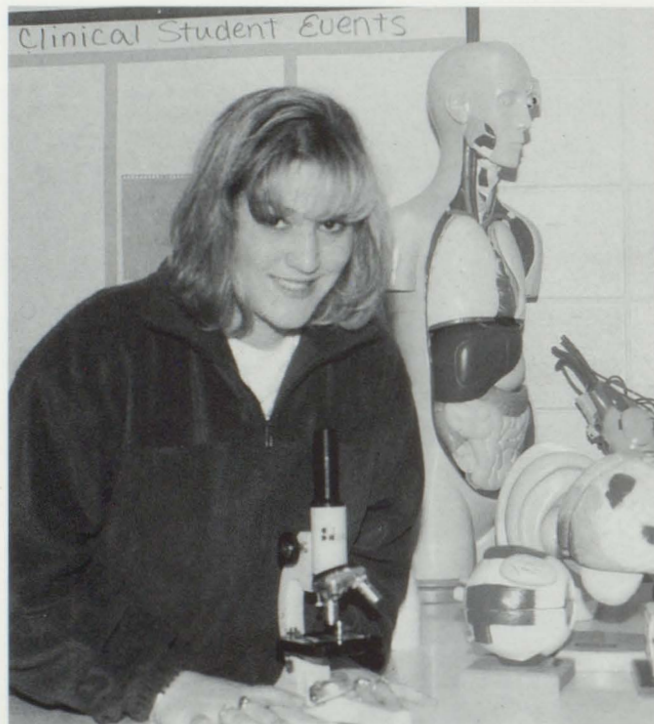

Everything all right, Dr. Newton?? Even though Natasha Newton and Lisa Peak just simulate a hospital procedure, they both do their job as if they were already real professionals!

What can you see....??? For Tiffany Burgett, looking through the microscope must be like diving in another world. Isn't it great to be able to discover the world of microcosm with your own eyes?

Why did you choose this particular field?

Tamesha Houston: Because it's been something I always liked working in, and we also have so much fun, and learn a lot, too!

Can you still hear me??? School nurse, Ms. Donaldson, shows healthcare students, on their own bodies, how to use the audiometer, so they will be able to screen elementary students' hearing.

Clinical students Stephanie Davison, Chastity Parker, Natasha Newton, Holly Mosley, and Lisa Peak all take a time-out during their busy work day and sit down for a picture pose.

(right) Shaking hands with your great-grandfather.....??? No, don't be afraid--- it's just a fake skeleton, but it is still a great training object for Coly McLean and Chris Wallace as they learn every single bone of the human body.

(left) Do you know how your ear works??? If not, you should sit in the trade school's health class and listen for one day to Haley Hadley's and Jonathan Crook's presentation about the functions of the human ear.

(below) Jamie Clegg rolls up his sleeve to donate blood. Yeah, you see right, "Big Boys do cry!"

Do you think that your 3 days of work help you in the understanding of the theory?

Natasha Newton: It helped me realize that nursing is something that I don't want to do in my life.

Healthcare students take their time to pose outside the Exploreum in Mobile for a group shot for the yearbook.

Do you know how your body works??? Jessica Paul does, and she certainly seems very proud to be able to share her newly learned knowledge with her classmates.

Line'em up... As our guys get in formation on the line of scrimmage, they think about the importance of the Homecoming Game against Shaw.

VARSITY

The Varsity Football Team had a great season this year. This is the first year they have won an area championship since 1992. Another achievement was the Daphne game, the most important, which we won 28-21. And the excitement doesn't end there-- the football players also were in the playoffs this year. Even though they didn't make it through the first round, it was still a challenge to play against Opelika, one of the best teams in the state. According to Coach Ford, the strong point of the season was the senior leadership, the way they dominated the opponents in our area, and their big play offense. Their only weakness was their lack of size. How could BCHS ask for anything more than winning the area championship? Way to go, Tigers!!!

GOLF

It's all in the swing... Brandi Coxwell knows the game is not as easy as it appears from the sidelines...

Girls' Team: Jennifer Wasdin, Brooke Langham, Jenn; McMillan, Katie Sedberry, and Brandi Coxwell.

Straight arms... Jenny McMillan concentrates on her swing and on club-ball contact. It's a tough game.

Golf is a game that can make a grown man cry, a patient man throw his club, a dignified man grumble. Our BCHS golf teams are made up of boys and girls that like a challenge. No matter how easy the game looks on television, think again. Our teams practice at Holly Hills and play on various courses here in Baldwin County. Mental strength, patience, and physical agility are all necessary for the player who wants to excel in this sport.

Heroes At Rest

VARSITY

This year's Varsity Baseball Team has played teams from as far away as Kentucky and as close as neighboring county schools. Baseball requires athletes to be fast, agile, and accurate. Our boys are all that and more. They also lift weights in order to gain strength. In addition, baseball requires hours of practice and tremendous amounts of determination. This hard work is proof of the boys' will to win. Playing baseball from an early age is a pre-requisite for future varsity players, and most of these boys have grown up together playing ball.

Although the win/loss record is disappointing, the scores do not reflect the effort put forth by these dedicated boys. The loss of six seniors will leave a void, but last year's J. V. players are ready and willing to take their places next year!!!

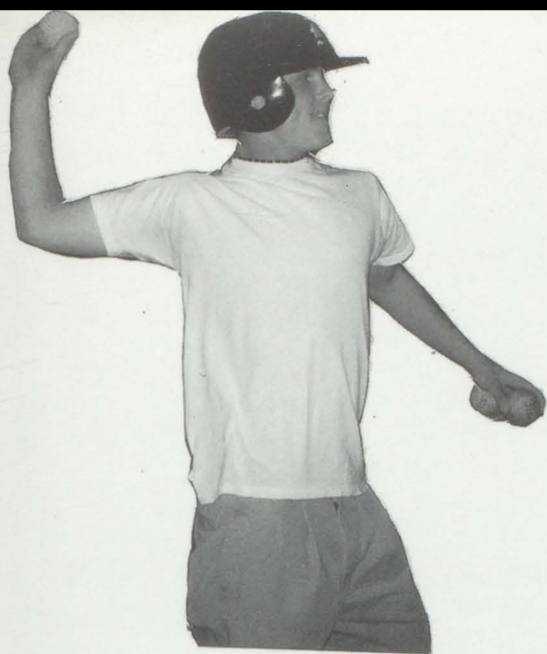

Team members: r.1. Brad Merchant, Trent Roberson, Chad Fetters, Zack Killcreas, r.2. Kevin Smith, Shaun Coleman, Will Peavy, Klin Brantley, Jody McMillan, Shunn Sanders, Josh Day, Jonathan Chadwell, r.3. Tony Tillman, Donald Killings, Lauren Bounds, Brandon Long, Brandon Simpson, Clint Corley, John Wilson, Blake Hall, and Coach Jerry Wright.

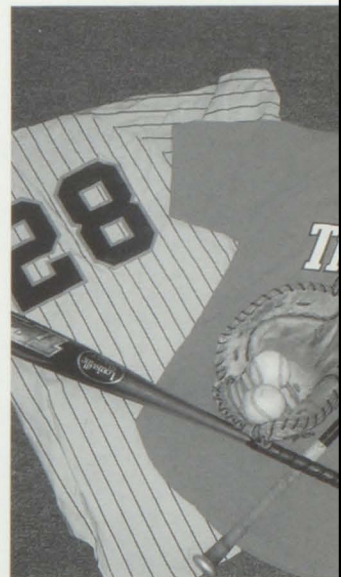

A little time to think... Batters take their turns while the rest of the team waits patiently. There's a home run in every batter's dream.

Junior Power... Sarae Lambert and Jenny McMillan are vital players to this year's team, even though they are only juniors. Both girls began playing softball at an early age; natural talent and driving motivation have made these players indispensable to the Lady Tigers' Team.

The Lady Tigers' Softball Team enjoyed another successful year with a winning record. Coach Anthony Cox began his coaching career in softball with an excellent start. Under his leadership and the talent of the girls on the team, our Lady Tigers posted an impressive winning season. The varsity team consisted of two senior leaders: Cori Barnett and Leighann Kirchharr. In addition, the team contained other leaders such as Sarae Lambert, Jenny McMillan, Kelly Hargett, Kim McCarley, Holly Ramer, Leighann Baker, and Jennifer Johnson. The Lady Tigers made it all the way to State for their fourth consecutive time! Way to go, Tigers!!

All The Way To State!!!!

The 1999-2000 JV Baseball season was a success for BCHS. Under the instruction of Coach Turpen, the boys won 13 games and lost 10. Congratulations, team, on a winning season!!! JV Baseball is a training ground for Varsity Baseball; it is every bit as important as Varsity Baseball is, and these boys put in every bit as much work as their older counterparts do for Varsity. It is the coach's job to teach these boys patience, skill, strategy, and good sportsmanship. The reward comes later in the form of a successful Varsity experience! Again, congratulations, JV Baseball, for a successful season! Varsity awaits!!!

On her toes... Rebecca Lambert has no time for breaks. She is on her toes when the ball comes her way! Talent runs deep in her family, and she is well-acquainted with the game of softball!

Junior Varsity Baseball and Softball are two BCHS sports going places; with the development of new facilities to accommodate the players, these two teams are sure to become better. It is at this level that most of the all-star players are born. It is here where the all-county and state championship drive is created. The Varsity squad is only as good as the upcoming relief. Baseball and softball can only get better at BCHS.

Strategy is most important... That is what Coach Hunter has stressed all season long, but it has obviously paid off.

The Varsity Basketball Team had an exciting season this year. Coach Hunter gets the credit for the awesome coaching he provided. He was not only the boys' coach, but he was their friend. Another factor that led to the great season was the outstanding bond the boys developed. Most of these boys have known each other for years; some are even related. To begin their winning streak, the boys were County Champs. Then, they went on to claim the title of Sub-Regional Champs. This game was played against Hillcrest and the boys won 52 to 43. Next, the boys went on to play Leflore at Regionals. The game was played at Jaguar Gym at the University of South Alabama. This game was the most fun for students because they were allowed to check out and go watch. Even though this is where the team's luck ended, they had an outstanding season.

Who are these fine guys... It's the senior guys. They have dedicated their season to Nick Anderson #55.

The Lady Tigers were indeed fierce this year, losing only a handful of games. With leadership from its seniors, Lauren Paul and Wynter Crook, our girls went onto the court with a vengeance and never retreated. Coach Metta Roberts provided the coaching expertise that gave the girls the confidence to play ball and win. Practicing hard and playing as a team paid off, as these girls were feared by their opponents! When Angel McCryndle was asked how the team got pumped up, she said it was simple: "First we pray, then we start cheering, and then we review our favorite memories of playing basketball for the Tigers!" Sounds like a recipe for success. Just ask any of the Lady Tigers!

BCHS MARCHING BAND

B. Owens and J. Sheffield salute. Let halftime begin.

The 1999 Marching Tiger Band had a great season. From summer practice and football games, to competition and parades, all of the hard work paid off with success as the competition scores showed. Under the direction of Mr. Fyock and Mrs. Williams, the Band's season was truly great!

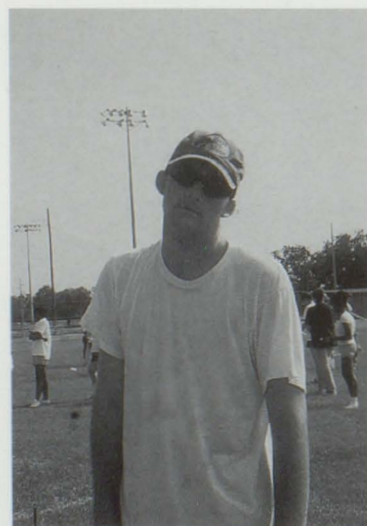

Da da da...Mr. Fyock sings along to help the band keep the beat. He has worked hard on making a great season each year. He's very dedicated to the band, and his students appreciate him more than he thinks. Thank you, Mr. Fyock, for all of your hard work.

B. McDill is in deep concentration as he keeps the beat for the Band.

What a Ride!!! A long trip to Opp, AL, for competition was well worth it. The Band successfully brought home all Superior (1) ratings and the Flags brought home an Excellent (2). Congrats for all the hard work!

J. Melton's having a blast as Mr. Fyock says for the 10th time, "One More Once!!"

BCHS TIGERETTES & FLAG CORPS

Smile... Work those flags, girls!

Lookin' Good... Standing for 45 minutes at attention before the game is one of the requirements of Flag Corps.

The Flag Corps and Tigerettes had a great 1999 season. Giving up days during the summer and working hard at after-school practice is all part of the dedication and responsibility the girls chose. Throughout the season special bonds and friendships that will last a lifetime are made. The hard work, dedication, and fun paid off in the end!

Yeah, I like it... Kendra Jeffers enjoys the roar of the crowd as she performs during the Half-time Show.

Laura Aaron, Captain; Angel Hiatt, Co-captain; Christy Goins, Kelly Wilson, Bridgette Hicks, Bethanie Griffith, Samantha Simmons, Deborah Dawson, Jennifer McGowan, Mary Presley, Kendra Jeffers, Bridgette Benton, MaRanda Fleming, Emily Starkey, Meesha January, Brandi Shiver, Shanna Singleton, Stephanie White, Temmie Zimlich, Crystal Allen, Nekia Mitchell

Keepin' time... Nekia Mitchell sticks with the beat during Half-time!

Practice, practice, practice... Flag Corps members stay after school to practice.

Concentration... Mary Presley works hard on her presentation.

Workin' Hard?...A. Hiatt and T. Zimlich take a break at after-school practice.

Heather Tolbert, Ashley Jones, Virginia Stephens, and Elizabeth Bridges listen intently to an emotional end-of-the-year pep talk.

Chins up, tummies in... The Tigerettes stand tall and proud while waiting for the music to start.

Pre-game traditions... Tabatha Cole, Emily Wood, and Caron Lynch make the finishing touches before the game. Perfection works!!!

People... We stay the same no matter what!

Seniors 2000

It takes all kinds... Joseph Overstreet, Alfred Ingram, James McCryndle, Jessica Shiver, Cindy Thomas, Keesha Hale, Merrilly Birge, and Brandis Atchison represent a cross section of personalities making up the Class of 2000. Individuality rules!!!

Senior Class Officers:

President Kayla Morris is the Key Club President, Yearbook Editor, Spanish Club Treasurer, National Honor Society member, and a North Baldwin Delta Belle. Kayla has also been a Homecoming Maid for all four years.

Vice-President Lacey Creppel is a member of the National Honor Society, FCCLA, Sigma Delta Phi, Technology Honor Society, and Spanish Club. She is a volunteer at North Baldwin Hospital in her spare time.

Secretary Katie Loper is the President of Sigma Delta Phi, Vice-President of National Honor Society, Secretary of FFA, a North Baldwin Delta Belle, varsity tennis player, Yearbook Staff member, and 1999 Homecoming Queen.

Treasurer Chasity Byrd is Captain of the Varsity Cheerleading Squad, a member of Sigma Delta Phi, French Club, and Student Council. Chasity was also a senior Homecoming Maid.

One Moment In Time

Although the Prom is traditionally a Junior-Senior Prom, the emphasis consistently highlights lead-outs and the goings on of the seniors. "One Moment in Time" was the theme of this, the Millennium Prom, and the seniors truly concentrated on what they realized would be one of their last "moments" in high school memory-making time. During lead-outs, this year's young gentlemen treated their leading ladies to paths of rose petals and deep, romantic bows. Lead-outs became a competition of sorts with each boy trying to out-romance the others. Did the girls complain? Nah. They took the cue and strutted proudly down the path; they enjoyed their "moments" as much as the guys did!

Haley Horn, Braden Cox, Janie Peavy, Chasity Byrd, Kayla Morris, Meredith Rhodes, Jenny Stewart, Katie Kelley, Katie Loper, Sara Tanner, Corine Diefenbacher, Haylee Gordon, and Lacey Rhames

Every girl knows that the most important step to being drop-dead gorgeous at Prom is having her make-up done right. Wynter Crook makes sure that she doesn't skip that step (even though she's gorgeous without it!)

The Senior Breakfast has become a tradition at BCHS---a time to honor the seniors; their breakfast is on the house, paid for by the Yearbook Staff. This year over 600 parents and students ate breakfast, had their pictures taken, and honored the Who's Who winners. Even with the AC out, everyone had a fine time!

Wait, wait, wait... Antoine Morrison and Kevin Crook (above right), and their moms wait patiently to have their portraits taken. Waiting is just a part of this operation...

MMMM...Blake Hall, Meredith Rhodes, and Corine Diefenbacher pile their plates with scrambled eggs, homemade cinnamon rolls, grits, toast, and orange juice. They need plenty of juice to cool themselves in THIS hot place!!!

Yeah, we're pretty!!! Seniors take advantage of Dress-up Day!

THIS is what cameras are made for!!! Say "CHEESE!!!"

Hangin' out...Tamesha, Leigh Anne, Quentin, Deshauntel, Tiffany, Kara, and Jennifer sip a cool Coke and enjoy being out of class.

No, I didn't swipe that last piece of pizza!!! Wes Morris, new to BCHS this year, likes pizza as much as anybody else does, especially during class!!!

Friends always... Willie Cloudas and Jerriod Fowler love Auburn (*&^)!

AH! We've got it made in the shade!

Our buddy, Mr. Beam... Seniors Jon Adams and Sherry Schoppert know it can't hurt to be pals with the teacher...

April, Sheena, Staci, Sissy, and Kim seek shade!

H

Smile for Mrs. Koepf... We'd do just anything for the person who's giving out grades next week. Anything you say, Mrs. Koepf!!!

Better slow it down, boys... Do you think it would be hard to talk Kevin Crook out of a ticket??? He'd better drop that smile if he's going for the mean look.

Where's that hat??? Krystal Parker is out of the main stream when she neglects wearing a hat on Hat Day. Brandy Thompson takes advantage of a day she can be different without getting into trouble!!!

US with no hats? Not a chance... Jennifer Davidson, Jocelyn Peaden, and Kelli Wenzel always follow rules. Today's Hat Day? Wear a hat. That's all there is to it!

Cool Dudes...Kenny Mason, Edmund Brown, and Labarryon Anderson have different interpretations about what's cool. Obviously, it's not the hat that makes that call!!!

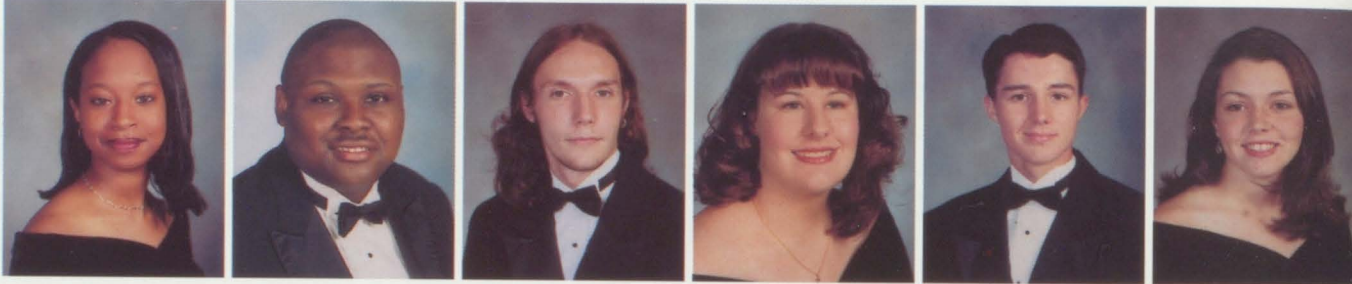

DUH... Brandon Kernells, Daniel Tuberville, Brent Jones, Arthur Johnson, and Jonathan Jones are SO handsome. Wonder why nobody's noticed!!! Ditch the hats, guys!!!

Mr. and Miss BCHS

Marchella Carter

Everyone knows Marchella. Maybe some know him as "Sam." It doesn't matter. He's the gifted athlete, the one with the non-stop smile, the twin. This year Marchella was voted by the Senior Class as the most outstanding male senior in his class. A truly exceptional athlete, Marchella led the Tigers to win after win on the football field. Last year, Marchella's peers voted him Junior Class Favorite. Congratulations, Marchella!

Haley Horn

Haley Horn has had a great year. A member of the Homecoming Court, a Belles and Beaux representative, NHS member, Mardi Gras Ball Queen, and Prom Queen, Haley has managed to keep her grades in tip top shape, and she has earned the the continued respect of her peers. This year Haley was voted by the Senior Class as the most outstanding female senior in her class. Congratulations, Haley!

Graduation 2000!!!

Y2K graduation took place on Tuesday, May 16, 2000, at Simmons Field. Salutatorian Gia Mizell and all nine valedictorians, Lucia Wade, Emily Wood, Merrilly Birge, Sarah Boyington, Meredith Rhodes, Braden Cox, Brandi Shiver, Eli Rieen, and Clint Corley had their moments of glory at the microphone, graduates received their diplomas, and it was over! Seniors became freshmen once again, and all of them realized that there isn't any going back. High school for the Class of 2000 became a memory with a blink of the stadium lights...

I'm not cocky...It's the cap.. Just call me MR. Bartley from now on...

We're NOT nervous...Now HOW does this collar go??? And the cap???

Gia Mizell, salutatorian, was one step behind the nine valedictorians (gradewise); however, she didn't mind standing alone on the stage to give her speech. "Slacking" paid off for her in a way!

Merrilly Birge shares a moment of wisdom with the audience. As a valedictorian she shared her thoughts with eight others. Merrilly compiled a 4.0 GPA during her high school years. Way to go, girl!!!

WE'RE OUTA HERE.
NO LOOKIN' BACK
FOR US!!!!!!!

Where will we be in ten years? How many of us will be doctors, teachers, or lawyers? How many of us will graduate from college? How many of us will be married, and how many of us will own our own houses? Which ones will surprise us by succeeding when we think they'll fizzle. Which of us will disappoint the ones who look up to us? How many of us will remain as close tomorrow as we are today? Who will move off and never come back to visit? Graduation is scary for almost everyone.

Hey! It's over!!! Deloris Johnson shows her pleasure in walking across this stage...

Look at ME, NOT my shoes!!! Lucia Wade wouldn't try to make a statement at graduation...

Let us not forget...

Up, up and away... Some seniors throw their caps. Others pretend to throw them. In a second's time, the caps are gone... Could this be symbolic of carefree youth that is gone now, too???

One more time... We can do this: we can do this; we can do this..

What are you talking about??? These ARE my dress shoes....

The Class of 2000 was a class of firsts. Students found themselves wearing uniforms for the first time ever, Mr. Salter replaced Mr. Duck at the beginning of the year, and Homecoming "wars" between classes reaped sore consequences for the seniors. The Class of 2000 was unique, that's for certain!

Miss A.W.A.G. Contest

Congratulations, Lakesha Johnson, for winning the Miss A.W.A.G. contest. Hail, Queen Lakesha!

Most Embarrassing Moment?????

I was playing softball and the ball socked me right dead in the eye. I had to start 6th grade with a huge black eye. Everyone was looking at me and whispering.

-Cori Barnett

I was at a basketball game when I was in the 8th grade. Because I was fooling around with my camera, I accidentally missed the 4th step on the bleachers. I tumbled all the way to the floor!

- Victoria Jackson

One day in the 9th grade, I was standing with my friends when from out of nowhere came an apple that hit me right on the forehead. Everyone burst out laughing, but I wanted to die.

-Meredith Rhodes

It was a Friday, and the cafeteria was serving pizza (surprise!) The bell rang, and I rushed into the cafeteria so I could be first in line. I was in such a hurry that I slipped and fell with my tray. I wanted to die!

-Delerrick Frost

Wildest Moment?????

One Friday night there was this big party, and I had made plans to stay with a friend. When we asked her mom if we could go, she said no, and that was that. So when she was asleep, we sneaked out of the house and had a blast! We never got caught.

-Cindy

Thomas

I went to Jamie and Meisha's party, and I had a blast.... even though I kinda stuck out in the crowd.

- Jennifer Davidson

I stole my mom's car one Friday, and I didn't make it back home until that Sunday....

-Deloris Johnson

I was really embarrassed when I was trying to park car for the first time. I mixed up the gas pedal with the brakes! Instead of stopping, I drove full speed over that cement bumper thing, and I didn't stop 'til I finally "landed" in the grass, heading toward the cafeteria! While Katie and I were cracking up, Kayla and Marcella had their 2nd heart attacks of the day!

Your time as a little girl won't come again. That thought may be sad to someone who doesn't know how beautiful your youth has been. The memories of loving and learning will live forever. But now your future as a woman is even more exciting. You are a masterpiece. You go now, to bring beauty to the world, to be a strong woman of great compassion. As you step away,

Rejoice! For whatever distance comes between us, we will share your days of sunshine and will help whisk away the clouds, our hearts bound together, in a special love.

We love you, Laurie

The First Day

*I remember the very first day of school
You were so happy and we were so blue.
We walked you hand in hand to your room,
Knowing this day had come way too soon.
You were our first daughter and this day a big step,
One that we knew we would never forget.
We watched at the doorway while you sat in your desk,
That day seems forever now as you start a new school,
But just like before, you will be fine,
As we watch you leave and say our goodbye.*

Memories

*The campus is quiet with the dew on the ground,
There are no students or teachers around.
The school year is over, another one gone,
So fast, so furious, so wild, so long.
This one was different because it was the last,
Full of memories of four years past..
The campus has changed and grown as we have,
Happy, joyful and at the same time sad,
This place is special within my heart,
And even though I'm leaving, it is an end to start.*

Four Years

*Four years have gone quickly in such a small time
Ninth grade, tenth grade, eleventh, goodbye.
We stand here and watch you, our daughter, our child,
Hoping and wishing that you could stay for a while.
Yet we know in our hearts that big day is here,
And you need to know that we will always be near.
The decisions you now make will be all you own,
But make sure you know that you are never alone.
We send with you our wisdom, our strength, and our love
Knowing you will make it with God's help from above.*

Special thanks and love for the beautiful poems written by Julie Saucier. "Four Years" was written especially for Jessica.

*We love you and are so very proud of you, Jessica. You are a very special person and we are proud to say you are our daughter and sister.

*To my little Stink Nagle,
 You were a sweet, pretty, little lady, lots of curls and laughs and questions. When you turned into a sweet little girl, I said, "My God, this one's got the gift." You were always courteous, full of cheer, and our family alarm clock. We have a lot of memories that no one can take from us, some bad, most good, and we've learned from every one. You are the apple in our eyes and the stars in the sky at night, and I know one day you are going to be one of the top people in whatever you become. Just keep reaching for the stars, because, knowing you, you'll just grab one and off you'll go.*

We love you and are very proud!
